THE SCA PROHIBITS HARASSMENT AND BULYING OF ALL INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS.

The SCA prohibits bullying and harassment of all individuals and groups. Bullying is systematic and unwelcome behavior which involves the use of influence, threat, intimidation, or coercion to cause hurt or harm to another person or group of people. When the bullying behavior is based on a protected class (1), that behavior is defined as harassment.

(1) race, sex, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability.

Bullying and Harassment may be overt, as in the following non-inclusive list of examples:

- Verbal abuse, including using racial, homophobic, transphobic, ableist epithets, etc.
- Non-consensual physical contact, violence, or threatening gestures.
- Displaying material that is offensive, degrading, or threatening to a protected class.
- Consistent demeaning remarks or malicious teasing - Stalking or predatory behavior

Covert:

- Spreading rumors or innuendo with malicious intent
- Deliberate exclusion, isolation, or alienation of an individual without just cause
- Using rank, title, or office to intimidate others

Provided that the behavior does not rise to the criteria listed above, bullying and harassment is not:

- Single episodes of social rejection, dislike, tactlessness, or forgetfulness.
- Mutual arguments, disagreements, or fights.
- The termination, mutual or not, of a romantic relationship or friendship.
- Reasonable constructive feedback or critique.

The test for bullying is the reasonableness of the behavior and the impact of that behavior on the recipient. Participants engaging in bullying/harassment are subject to appropriate sanctions. If an individual believes they have been subjected to or have witnessed harassment, bullying, or retaliation, that person should contact a senechal, the President of the SCA, or that kingdom's Board Ombudsman.

From Their Majesties

Murdoch Bayne and Ríoghnach ní Rose

Unto the noble populace of Our fair Kingdom do Murdoch and Ríoghnach, King and Queen of Æthelmearc send greetings.

The days are longer, the sun is brighter, the Ice Dragon has passed! It is once again the busy season here in Æthelmearc and We couldn't be more excited. There are events nearly every weekend catering to the interests and passions of nearly everyone in Our Kingdom. While it is impossible for anyone to make it to all of them (your Royals included), we can certainly try!

Whether you fence, fight, shoot, throw, brew, "art", or serve, Æthelmearc and its people stand ready to compete, teach, help, and learn. This is the strength of a chosen family and one We would see grow and strengthen in the upcoming season.

For those of you who do not know Us, or those who wish to know Us a little better, there is information to be found on the Æthelmearc webpage at trm.aethelmearc.org including some background, some personal preferences, patterns for Her Majesty's War Favors, and a list of upcoming Royal progress events where We hope to see, meet, and reacquaint Ourselves with this Glorious Kingdom and its populace.

If you see Us at events, come say hello. Introduce yourself if we don't know each other. If you have questions, comments, concerns, complaints, We want to hear them. The position We hold exists because you accept Us in this role. We are here to serve you, the Kingdom, and our shared Dream.

We look forward to a glorious event season.

In service We remain,

Murdoch and Ríoghnach
Rex et Regina Æthelmearc

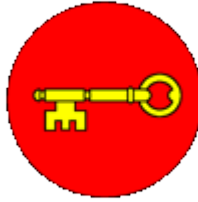

Officer Reports

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Æthelmearc.

Their Royal Majesties hit the ground running, holding Their first Curia mere days following Their coronation.

It was a delightfully productive meeting in which They decreed some new changes to the Laws of the Kingdom, and some future changes were brought up for discussion. The two main discussion points were adding the Pennsic command staff to the roll of officers, and if peers should be allowed to participate in the corresponding order of high merit if they are not a member of it. Currently that has only happened for the Order of the Gage, but They would like that to be consistent across all orders or none, given that all of the Orders of High Merit are of an equal rank.

We have also closed the position of Seneschal's DEI Deputy (for Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion), and our first Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging Officer was sworn into the newly minted Grater Kingdom Office. DEIB is important to our Kingdom and the Society at large. Big changes are coming from the very top, and Æthelmearc has proudly been leading the curve in adopting them in addition to carrying out our own initiatives.

I want to thank Gytha Oggdottir for her long and successful term as DEI Deputy, and Gulsah al-Zakiyya for stepping up into the new Kingdom office. Much like Their Royal Majesties, Gulsah has hit the ground running, and I am working with her and our Kingdom Webminister on improving our event calendar to include more accurate and useful information.

As a final comment, please remember that you can bring any concerns, questions, or ideas to me. If I am not the one to help you, I can at least get you in touch with the person who can.

In service,
Barún Pádraig Ó Branduibh

From the Kingdom Exchequer

Greetings from the Kingdom Exchequer's Office!

I want to let everyone know that Robert O'Conner has officially taken over the position of Pennsic Chamberlain. He had been operating in the role for a while. I also wanted to thank Lady Forveleth Dundee for her service as the previous Pennsic Chamberlain.

Over the next few months, the Exchequer's office will be reviewing warrants. If you are a group exchequer, please make sure your membership is current. We will also be looking to update signature cards as some groups still have previous Kingdom Exchequers from over 10 years ago still listed as signers on their bank accounts.

Finally, if anyone is interested in learning more about how to be an exchequer, I'm planning to hold some online classes and a class at Pennsic. In addition, I'm looking to hold meetings for all exchequers online. There will also be a meeting at Pennsic for those able to attend.

For any interested in learning more about how to be an exchequer, please send me an email.

Should you have any questions, concerns, comments, etc, please contact the Exchequer Office at exchequer@aethelmearc.org

Sincerely,
Tigernach mac Cathail
Aethelmearc Kingdom Exchequer

Greetings from the Chancellors of the Æcademy!

From the Kingdom DEIB

Greetings Noble populace!

I am Hatun Gulsah al-Zakiyya, your Kingdom DEIB Officer. I wanted to take a few moments to introduce myself and let you know what I can do about the office. Please understand that this is a time of transition for the society and we are still figuring out all the details, so I may not have answers for your questions, but I will always do my best to find out. There will be a new handbook coming out soon, so I will have more information then.

I encourage you to come talk to me at events, I'm usually easy to find – look for Ottoman garb and a rainbow veil. If online is better, you can find me on facebook as Karolyn Morgan or my email is deib@aethelmarc.org. I have plans in the works to address some ADA issues, increase data on handicap access for events, and several other things. Please, if you know of something that I should address, talk to me. I promise your voice WILL be heard and your concerns WILL be taken seriously. In addition, I will be seeking regional deputies. If you have a passion for helping to make a difference, and are willing to take on the challenge, please message me. I look forward to building a team to take this to the next level. Please take a few moments to familiarize yourself with the ADA laws regarding service dogs if you plan to work at gate/troll or autocrat an event. Many questions have been raised lately.

There is NO SUCH THING as a “certified” service animal or a service animal registry. See <https://www.ada.gov/topics/service-animals/#top> and <https://www.ada.gov/resources/service-animals-faqs/> for more information and don't hesitate to contact me with questions or concerns. I can't wait to meet more of you as my term continues, and I look forward to what we will build together.

Gulsah

From Pennsic 51 Hospitality

Pennsic will be here before we know it. In preparation for hosting the Known World, Our Gracious King and Queen, Murdoch and Riognach, have appointed Baroness Yvianne and Mistress Jenna to oversee the Hospitality tents that form the gateway to our Kingdom Encampment.

Volunteering to help in the Royal Encampment is only one of the many opportunities to serve Æthelmarc at Pennsic and many hands make light work. Some jobs are short in duration; others require a small commitment of time. As you are beginning to make plans for Pennsic, we would like to ask if you would consider spending a bit of time volunteering to staff the Hospitality table. This is a great opportunity to serve Æthelmarc and literally be the smiling, welcoming face that visitors associate with our kingdom. All levels of precedence and experience are welcome. If you have never volunteered at the Hospitality table before, don't fret! Training and mentorship will be available from 8am-noon daily (and if this doesn't work for your schedule, let us know on site and we will work with you to try to find a time that does).

We are planning on staffing the Hospitality table from 8am - 6pm daily from Monday of Peace week through Friday of War week. Each shift will ask you for only a two hour commitment. To make sure everyone who wants to volunteer has equal opportunity, scheduling will begin as soon as we have a tent and a place to set the book (Monday of Peace week at the latest). Only a few days at a time will be available and we ask that volunteers only sign up for one shift each day. If slots are still available for the next day, volunteers may sign up for more than one shift to fill the need.

Some other changes you can expect to see...

Easier access to the encampment. Yes, it does get a bit crowded in the gate at times. Know that we will be doing our best to maintain an open pathway for those who just want to enter or exit the camp. We would ask that all visitors help us by being aware when they are in this area. Our goal is to create a Royal Presence and grant access through the gate area and move socializing to the populace tent which is better suited (and much more comfortable).

Charging stations are going vertical. Due to the popularity of this amenity, space and access have become problematic ... To that end we will be putting up vertical holders for electronic devices. In an additional effort to make the charging area more efficient and accessible, we are asking that guests do not use a device while it is docked. Owners should not leave their devices unattended and should remove them from the holders once they are charged. Please plan accordingly. Neither the Kingdom of Æthelmarc, its agents nor volunteers are responsible for stolen, lost or damaged items. Use of the charging stations, cords and electricity provided is at your own risk.

Officer Reports and Board of Directors

Also due to space constraints, we will be limiting the number of items on the Hospitality table in the entrance. From keeping the schedule books for volunteers and information about popular encampment activities including order meetings, bardic circle and the Scribal University, to kingdom sponsored tournaments, vigils and courts that take place elsewhere on site, we're the place to check for specifics. We are also a safe and convenient place to leave a message or small package for Royalty or Kingdom officers. Preference for items placed on the table will be given to information with a broad appeal and/or time sensitivity. For instance, directions to Pennsic vigils will take precedence over announcements for fall/winter events.

To avoid confusion, the Hospitality table will no longer be handling items for sale or asking for a donation. Volunteers will no longer accept or distribute items that have any monetary aspect (this includes merchant coupons and raffles). If you wish to donate an item that can be used to thank volunteers, largesse for visitors or Royalty, you will be asked to leave a message with it so that your gracious gifts end up in the right place.

Not going to Pennsic? Contact us if you would still like to help. There are a few beautification projects in the works, opportunities to donate items to thank the volunteers or help the kingdom provide amenities to visitors to the Royal Encampment.

Yvianne and Jenna would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has thus far made suggestions, offered guidance and is working to make upgrades and changes. We look forward with eager anticipation to warmer days... and welcoming all to our Gracious and Glorious Kingdom at Pennsic.

The site does not permit pets, but does allow service dogs. No flames (open or closed) are permitted, and there is absolutely no alcohol permitted on site. (However, classes that talk about alcohol are allowed.) The site is all on one floor and appears to be fairly accessible, but if wheelchair users are uncomfortable with the entrances we are using, we can open up other doors for their use to enter and leave the building even if we are not using that part of the Church. There is some marked accessible parking, and we ask that spots along the building be saved for kitchen staff and those with mobility concerns.
