The Mediterranean Sea: Cradle of Civilization

The Mediterranean Basin has been the cradle of world civilization since the first settlements in Jericho in 9000 BC. Known in English and the romance languages as the sea between the lands, the Mediterranean goes and has gone by many names: Our Sea, for the Romans, the White Sea for the Turks, the Great Sea for the Jews, the Middle Sea for the Germans, and the Great Green for the ancient Egyptians.

The Mediterranean Sea is a symbol of creativity, of the search for the meaning of life and for wisdom, and of the love of people and nature. This sea has always been an environment that has bred outstanding people who have made remarkable contributions to the development of history in philosophy, art, music, literature, science, and technology. Magnificent civilizations have scattered all around the Basin, from east to west, from north to south, from Mesopotamia to Egypt, from Anatolia, Troy to Macedonia, from the Greek city states to Phoenician civilization, from Carthage to Rome, from Baghdad to Al-Andalus, from Byzantium to the Ottoman Empire and from Alexandria to Bologna, and have formed a sound base for world civilizations. Join us for a day of games, contests, and revelry at al-Barran Midwinter!

Words from the Officers

From the Seneschal:

Beloved Outlands,

As we move through the wheel of the season and look to the new Heirs of the Stag's Throne, now is the time for planning. StagsCon is coming up on November 16th and there will be a full day of learning how to volunteer in the kingdom and your local Branch. From running a feast hall to being a branch seneschal to everything in between, this day will be one of collective learning. The event is free and we hope to see smiling faces, ready with ideas and empowered with the drive to move the kingdom forward. Two food trucks will be on site for lunch options. Please see the event website for full details.

This spring, my time as your Kingdom Seneschal will come to an end. I am seeking a successor for the office. The ideal candidate should be familiar with the SCA Organizational Handbook and working knowledge of the Society Seneschal's Handbook. You will be expected to report to the Society Seneschal quarterly, and attend SocSen meetings with your fellow Kingdom Seneschals. Candidates should expect to spend between 10-30 hours a week in the role. The office requires use of working internet, computer, phone, and ability to use MS Word and Google For Nonprofits. A background check is required before you step into the role. Please send your Letter of Intent along with your SCA resume to seneschal@outlands.org.

For the People,

Baroness Ays,e al-Rumiyya
Outlands Kingdom Seneschal

Regional Vice President of Operations SCA, Inc

From the Heralds:

I write you today again concerning the College of Heralds of the Outlands. This is a continuing series of letters broadly about the structure of the College of Heralds of the Outlands (and College of Arms at the society level); the College is separated into three main categories, Book Heraldry (names & armory), Voice Heraldry, and Protocol Heraldry. Last month we discussed the voice heralds, this month we will talk about the Protocol Heralds

The third branch is broadly led by Gimlet Herald, our Ceremonies herald, currently Duchess Anna MacTaggart. Their responsibility is to maintain the Book of Ceremonies, updating the verbiage of the ceremonies as the Crown sees fit, assisting folks in customizing peerage ceremonies, and to hold the general ceremonial knowledge about the Kingdom (precedence of visiting nobility, the order of the thrones for a Grand Court, and so-forth).

They also work with Stags Attire, our Armorial Display herald on the display of registered armory, both Royal and personal. From banners to surcoates, pennants to tabards, Stags Attire helps the populace come up with ways to display the devices they worked hard to register.
