Royal Message

O, People of Lochac, lend us thine ears!

It is we, thy most devoted King and Queen, who return from the noble Spring Crown Tournament - an event of grandeur, valour, and daring deeds! Upon this glorious day, Sir Kitan and Mistress Alesia did rise above all, claiming, as their right, the Crown of Lochac. For now, they shall be known as Prince and Princess, but soon, their brows shall be graced with the full weight of the Crown.

To Lord Eilifr and Master Dallan, whose mighty blows rang through the lists, your valorous efforts didst inspire us all. The path ahead for both of you gleams brightly, like the dawn. But to our heirs - may they find the populace as warm and embracing as we have, and may the brilliance of their reign shine forth as a beacon of nobility, chivalry, and joy, unmatched in splendour.

We travelled far and wide to the lands of Krae Glas and Stormhold, where a most wondrous revelry was held. What delight we found, from the fierce clash of arms to the graceful whirl of dancers, and a “Black Adder” performance that left us breathless with laughter! The King, I confess, felt like both Black Adder and Baldrick at once, while the Queen, as ever, came away smelling of roses. Our thanks to Master Dafydd and his merry singers - though the King may jest otherwise!

Yet, let me return to the fray, where Master Waldo, ever the “organiser” of the lists, also found himself victor!

Should we be surprised when the one who heralds, also wins? Ah, there may have been a moment of "et tu, Brutus?" when the prize was handed out! Still, to all who bore witness and as a card-carrying member of the "Tassilon" fan club and joined in the revels, we cry "Huzzah!" for the mirth and mayhem, and extend our heartfelt thanks to all who took part.

month as Craftober! Yes, sweet populace, October may have had its day, but now, Craftober doth rise! Unleash thy creativity - cut, blend, sew, cook, illuminate!

Let thy imaginations run wild! And we beseech thee, share thy wondrous creations upon Facebook, email lists, Instagram, Discord - all the realms of the internet.

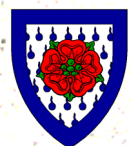

In this moment of joy, let it be known that we have called The Honourable Lady Violetta Vasari to join the revered Order of the Laurel, and with gracious humility, she has accepted. Her elevation shall be held at the forthcoming Baronial Investiture in Aneala. Huzzah to thee, fair Lady, may the day shine upon thee with the same grace and beauty that thy art doth spring from!

Lastly, we give thanks unto all who have embraced the challenges we have laid before you. We trust you have found new friends and learned new skills upon this journey. And now, with a flourish, we declare the coming

Let the splendour of Lochac's artisans shine bright for all to see!

With all our love, humility, and boundless kindness,

King Bain and Queen Iglesia
Thy devoted Sovereigns

Crown Prince & Princess

Unto the most noble populace of Loçac do Crown Prince Kitan and Crown Princess Alesia send warm greetings.

Firstly we wish to thank their Majesties for their kind, and artful words in proclaiming us as their heirs. We are in awe of their Majesties benevolence and feel keenly both the privilege and the pleasure of walking in their shadow.

The spring crown tournament was full of acts of chivalry that showed the depth and honour of the armoured combatants of Loçac as well as the inspiration of their consorts. Such a display of combat and pageantry is truly reflective of the magnificence of this great kingdom. We celebrate in the prowess of all the entrants and especially that of the incipient Champion of Loçac, Eilifr Lukasson who did great honour to his consort and the kingdom.

The tournaments, feast and other delights of crown weekend were a sight to behold, and savour, and made the event one that will live warmly in our memories. We echo their Majesties thanks to the stewards and event crew for their service and dedication in putting together such a wonderous event.

The last week has been quite a whirlwind as we have started to find our feet in our new station. We are humbled by the acts of service that we have already been witness to and thank the many that have brought us words of wisdom and offers of support.

We are currently putting together our household, but the wonderful Duchess Eva von Danzig has agreed to be our chamberlain, for which we are most grateful. For any matters regarding our reign in which you need clarity from us she will be best able to respond. You may contact her at spring-chamberlain@lochac.sca.org.

I would like to take this time to Congratulate our new Crown Prince Kitan and Crown Princess Alesia and look forward to working with them during their Reign.

The heralds in our Kingdome do an amazing job and I encourage all who would like assistance, on naming practice or help designing a device or badge, to reach out and allow them to do they best they can to assist you.

Lastly I would like to thank all who assisted or attended the September Crown. The event ran without any major hiccups and the Stewarding team are amazing! I am proud to have had every one of them working with me.

If you have any recommendations for populace awards or for heralds that you have worked with, then please submit them. Awards to The crown and heralds to myself.

In Service and pride

From the Kingdom Arts & Sciences

Greetings all,

At Spring Crown, a Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition was held.

Judges were delighted by a range of entries in the Beginner to Experienced section, with entries following the themes of 'Before 1000 AD', 'Shell' and 'Puzzles'.

In the Experienced Category the Gold bell went to Linnette for a research piece on the ancient Ogham script.

In the Intermediate Category the Gold bell went to Mestrez Ysabeau Chanteuse for sugar-paste shells.

In the Beginner Category the Gold bell went to Sesenco for a fur cape.

In the Beginner Category the Silver bell went to Lady Yrsa in Harfagra for naalbinding socks.

We had one entry for 'Shell', and four entries for 'Before 1000 AD'.

I would like to thank the KMoAS Deputy, Dame Joan Sutton for organisation and judging and the rest of the judges :
(Advanced category); Dame Joan Sutton and Countess Ginevra di Namoraza, (Intermediate category); Lady Yrsa in Harfagre, Visconte Muirghen ni Grainne, and Mistress Kiriell du Papillon, and (Beginner category); Lady Magdalena af Husum, Dame Joan Sutton, and Mestrez Ysabeau Chanteuse.

Judging involves a considerable commitment of time and energy; thank you to all for all their hard work in judging and providing thoughtful feedback for each entry.

We also had several backup judges on hand. Although their time and skill was not called upon this round, We appreciate their willingness and hope they will volunteer again in the future.

Three cheers for the wonderful judges and the amazing artisans who entered!

With two competitions out of four having been completed, the current results are as follows:

Mestrez Ysabeau Chanteuse is leading, with 147 points, followed by Linnette Horne, with 136 points, and The Honourable Ronan McBriain, with 87 points.

Photos will be uploaded to the Website (<https://artsandsciences.lochac.sca.org/>) and the Facebook Page (<https://www.facebook.com/share/g/3YNUUxLnFG8TsQUJ/>)

The next round of competitions will be judged at November Crown.

The themes will be 'Protective Clothing', 'Flowers', and 'Trading Textiles'.

In Service to Lochac,

Contessa Ginevra Lucia Di Namoraza KMoAS
and Dame Joan Sutton Deputy KMoAS

Seeking new Kingdom Webwright

Greetings good gentles of Lochac,

Are you an avid internet user? Do you enjoy perusing websites and referencing online materials? Are you good at communicating via online methods? Do you have an interest in content management and information sharing?

If so, then we have a role for you!!!

The Kingdom Webwright (also known as Webscribe) is in charge of creating and updating Kingdom Web pages and overseeing and supporting those maintained by all the Kingdom's officers and groups.

This role requires:

- ~ Current SCA membership and be at least 18 years of age.
- ~ Excellent communication skills.
- ~ A desire to poke around and understand how things work.
- ~ A strong emphasis on keeping current, maintaining and preserving and expanding existing content, rather than radical redesign or retirement of existing resources.
- ~ Very reliable email and internet access.

You do not need many technical skills, the most important thing is having a curiosity for how things work.

The workload includes such elements as:

- ~ Typically weekly updating of websites, especially calendar, events notices and other timely material, removing outdated material while preserving important resources and historical information.
- ~ Notifications to mailing lists, checking lists for notices or comments and adding to online calendars or to special pages.
- ~ Attending Kingdom Officer meetings online.
- ~ Mailing list moderation: Lochac-Announce and the Shambles - mostly deleting spam and occasionally assisting subscribers.
- ~ Advising and assisting other Webwrights in the Kingdom to help them do their jobs more effectively and easily.
- ~ Collecting quarterly reports from group

Webwrights and reports on the Kingdom Seneschal and Society Webminister.

The sites you will manage yourself are the Kingdom website, the Kingdom Webwright website and the Royal website (in consultation with the Crown). All other website work is upon request from the site maintainer, and dependent on your availability.

The Lochac Webwright does not do this job alone. The Masonry team includes WordPress administrators to manage the 'back-end' of our websites, so you can focus on content, if that's where your strengths lay.

The time commitment is quite variable, but averages 5-10 hours a week.

The successful applicant will be given a comprehensive handover by the outgoing Kingdom Webwright.

You will find more detailed information about this roll in the Officer Job Descriptions Document at <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer>

If you are interested in this role, please email an application by Saturday 12th October, 2024 seneschal@lochac.sca.org, with a courtesy copy to the webwright@lochac.sca.org.

Please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, any relevant web management experience, and your general experience in the SCA - as well as outlining why you think you'd be suitable for the role.

If you have any questions regarding the role, its responsibilities and requirements, please don't hesitate to contact me at webwright@lochac.sca.org.

Your in Service,
Alain Quartier

Seeking Kingdom Armoured Combat Marshal

Greetings!

I have been happy with my deputy Lord Patri de Buck, but his health demands his full attention, and I want to be able to spend time relaxing with him in the future, so I agree.

Therefore, Lochac needs a new Kingdom Armoured Combat Marshal.

This role is in the heart of a dynamic community of combatants, and joins a team of dedicated Kingdom officers who are passionate about their martial streams, and of whose work I am very proud.

Key requirements:

- ~ You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older, AND be a current warranted Marshal within the Kingdom of Lochac.
- ~ Reliable and responsive access to email and internet connection.
- ~ Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks.
- ~ Must be a Senior Marshal in Lochac.

Key elements of the job:

- ~ Encouraging the development of chivalry and safety in armoured combat.
- ~ Development, maintenance, publication and enforcement of the Kingdom standards for construction and use of weapons and armour.
- ~ Gathering regular reports from branch officers, tabulating and summarising for your quarterly report.
- ~ Processing armoured combat injury reports.

You'll find more detailed information about this role in the Officer Job Description Document at <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer>

Please send you applications by 18th October 2024 to marshal@lochac.sca.org.

Do please include you membership number, mundane and SCA names, and any relevant experience, along with any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in winning the role.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Your in Service,

Kinggiyadai

Earl Marshal

Seeking a new Masonry Deputy

Greetings!

We need to reboot the process of upgrading the Masonry team which supports the basic under-pinnings of the Kingdom's technological foundations.

The Kingdom's masonry deputy is the first point of contact for people who need help with any of our various IT systems. The ability to help non-technical users, most of whom are also trying to provide voluntary service to the populace, is the critical part of the job.

Key requirements:

- ~ You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older.
- ~ Reliable and responsive access to email and internet.
- ~ Ability to keep on top of a variety of related administrative tasks

You may not think that you are the right person for this job, but if your friends forward you a copy of this notice, pay attention to them!

And if you know someone who you think would be good in the job, do them (and all of us) a favour - ask them to apply.

Key elements:

- ~ Being comfortable with basic Linux server administration.
- ~ Enjoy problem-solving.
- ~ Can reliably spare a few minutes a day to make sure nothing has fallen over.
- ~ Can deal with requirements from corporate and Kingdom officers, when they identify a need for something new ie: being able to spec requirements, assess current and other possible approaches to help extend Masonry's offerings in ways that are usable, affordable and sustainable.

You do not have to do everything yourself - know that you will be well supported by other experienced Masonry team members and more documentation that you can shake a memory stick at.

You will find more detailed information about this role in the Officer Job Description Document at <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/resources#officer>

Please send you applications by 20th October 2024 to seneschal@lochac.sca.org, with a courtesy copy to masonry@lochac.sca.org.

Please include you membership number, mundane and SCA names, any relevant experience, and you general experience in the SCA - as well as outlining why you think you'd be suitable in the role and any fabulous ideas you have.

Appointment to the role will be made at the pleasure of the Crown.

If you would like to know more about the job, or you would like to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you. <https://masonry.lochac.sca.org>

Seeking Deputy Earl Marshal for Youth Armoured Combat

Greetings from the Earl Marshal!

I am a firm believer that today's children are the core that will keep the SCA alive, and I am very happy with the culture of competition and cooperation that firmly underscores our Society's martial arts and for the values of chivalry and courtesy that we learn and teach in the fighting community.

Baron Grim of Southron Gaard has held the position of Deputy Earl Marshal for Youth Armoured Combat for a long time and deserves relief, so I am seeking a successor for him in this role.

The Deputy Earl Marshal for Youth Armoured Combat is responsible for:

- ~ Encouraging the development of youth armoured combat standards and chivalry on the field, in co-operation with the Marshallate;
- ~ Maintaining and enforcing the Kingdom standards for construction and use of melee weapons and armour for youth combatants;
- ~ Setting, maintaining and enforcing safety standards;
- ~ Making regulations and information concerning Youth armoured combat available;
- ~ Reporting as required by the Crown and the Earl Marshal;
- ~ Reporting quarterly to the Society Youth Combat Marshal.

To help you do this, you will need:

- ~ Knowledge and understanding of the Society and Kingdom rules as they pertain to Youth armoured combat.
- ~ You will need to be a current SCAA or SCANZ member.

~ To be over the age of 18 years.

~ Reliable internet and email access, (a Facebook presence is also preferred).

~ Such civil credentials as are necessary to work with children.

If you are interested in this position, please send your application and your plans for the role to marshal@lochac.sca.org, no later than the 25th October 2024.

Do please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, and any relevant experience, along with any important plans or great ideas you would seek to enact if successful in winning the role.

If you would like to know more about the job, or to discuss how you see yourself taking it forward, I would love to hear from you!

Greetings, Lochac!

The long wait is nearly over. For the last time, the Alternative Crown working group will be asking you what you think – and this is the big one. Having narrowed the options down, we recruited a great team to help us work out how the short-listed possibilities could actually work.

In this final poll, we want as many of our current adult members as possible to tell us which types of tournament you are interested in seeing tested. If you have been waiting for the chance to say “none of the above, the system already works”, this is the time to say so. If you believe the answer is “I want to see everything tried” we want to know. It’s a much quicker and easier poll than the last one, so you have no excuse for not responding!

As with the last poll, we're making the questions available in advance for you to check, and tell us if you spot a problem. The sample poll is visible now at <https://lochac.sca.org/polling/AltCrown5.php?pollPass=123>.

In a week's time, we will email everyone their personalized links to respond, and we will once again give you a month to do so. This poll will open on 22nd September, and close on 22nd October, 2024.

We will keep you updated on the response rate while it is open, and send out additional invitations to anyone who joins while the poll is open.

As soon as the poll closes, we'll be letting the Crown, Board, Committee and US BoD know the outcome, and shortly after that we will publish the full results.

Thank you for all your contributions so far - let's wrap this up with a great turnout.

Cheers,

The Alternative Crown Working Group

Greetings,

Both the SCA Ltd (Australia) and SCANZ Boards have approved the Issues Resolution Policy and Procedures. This to replace the 2016 Sanctions Guide.

This new policy has been designed to promote transparency, understanding, and natural justice for all parties.

You can find this document on the SCANZ website at <https://sca.org.nz/node/56> and on the SCA Ltd website at <https://sca.org.au/wp-content/uploads/2024/08/Lochac-Issue-Resolution-Policy-and-Procedures-2024.pdf>

The issues resolution policy was developed with the skill and wisdom of members of the society, who volunteered their time to help us become a better place. It has been subject to thorough commentary and multiple drafts have been critiqued to achieve the version available today.

Like all documents of this nature it is not perfect, but it is aiming to improve upon the procedures we have used until now.

Both SCA (Inc) and SCANZ wish to thank each member who worked, commented on, and improved this policy.

This document is now official.

There is talk of civil unrest and opposition to the Crown: A cry! Let the madness be over, the time of liberty to be granted, the necks of Lochac she be free from the yoke!

Unrest, unrulily at its core. Their Majesties mark diligently, the causes, the acts and the issues on all great attempts.

Peace is warranted, but what sacrifices will it demand?

Spring War is the Barony of Mordenvale's premier annual camping event. For decades, good gentles have ventured from across Lochac and other Kingdoms of the Knowne World to make war, camp, and partake in the feasting, plentiful arts and sciences opportunities, and merriment of Mordenvales' hospitality.
