Royal Message

Unto the most noble populace of this most awesome kingdom we, your humble Crown, extend our heartfelt greetings.

It was with great honour and joy that we recently joined many of our populous, particularly those of the crescent isles, in merriment, feasts, and contests of skill and spirit at Canterbury Faire. Though we know it was bittersweet for many it was an extraordinary event and we extend our heartfelt thanks for the warmth and hospitality shown to us during this most wondrous of gatherings.

We bore witness to the noble step down of their Excellencies, Alexandra de Santiago and Grim of Thornby, from their esteemed titles as Baron and Baroness of Southron Gaard, having served with steadfast dedication and honor. Their leadership, wisdom, and care for the people of Southron Gaard shall not soon be forgotten, for they have shaped this land with grace and resolve. With their departure, we did not only lose rulers but friends and guides who led nobly through seasons of both triumph and trial.

And yet, as the sun sets on one chapter, it rises on another. We heralded the ascent of Joana de Bairros and Angus de Sommerville to these noble roles, entrusting them with the mantle of stewardship over Southron Gaard.

With courage and vision, they now take the reins, their hearts bound to the people they now serve. May their reign bring prosperity and strength to our land, and may they lead with the same honour and kindness that has defined this Barony throughout its history.

The coronets of Southron Gaard rests upon their brows, and we celebrate, with eager anticipation of what is to come, the dawn of their leadership.

The passing of one reign, and the rise of another - such is the eternal cycle of our lands, ever moving forward under the watchful eyes of the stars.

We gathered to honour and celebrate the steadfast service of Mistress Helouys Le Poer on her elevation to the noble Order of the Pelican. Her dedication and unwavering commitment have earned her this most esteemed recognition, and we stand in admiration of her contributions to our lands and people. May her example inspire us all to serve with the same grace and devotion.

Yet, our hearts were heavy with sorrow as many mourned the untimely passing of the beloved Baroness Agnes Graye. Though we did not have the honour to know her, the weight of her loss is deeply felt by all within our lands. Her spirit was a cherished part of this realm, and she will remain forever in the hearts of her people and our kingdom.

Alas, it was beyond our means to partake in all, or even many, of the wondrous diversions we might have desired. Though we found great joy in the fierce combat, both in war and in peace, as well as in the sumptuous feast and the merry ball, the true delight of the event lay in the vibrant tapestry of experiences around us. This gathering, rich with wonders, filled our hearts with contentment as we watched others revel in its many pleasures.

For those who competed in any of the noble contests - be they in arts, rapier, armoured combat (including war), or archery - we encourage you to visit the Champions page on the royal site (<https://crown.lochac.sca.org>) and submit your results, that you may be counted among our worthy Champions.

We were particularly enchanted by the newly formalized Royal postal service, which brought forth both mirth and no small measure of shenanigans through its charming and whimsical missives. It is our fervent hope that this service shall grow and flourish across our kingdom, carrying its joy and laughter to every corner of our lands, and binding us ever closer together in camaraderie and festivity.

Earlier in the month, word reached us from the Kingdom of the West that their eternal Guardian had gone a-wandering, leaving behind a cryptic missive - something about seeking the elusive Vegemite. It appears he had secretly stowed away with Duke Felix and Duchess Eva, then made his way to Canterbury Faire, where he was spotted enjoying the revels. His only true challenge, it seems, was in attempting to befriend the spikiest of the local wildlife - a lesson in patience, no doubt!

Yet, when the call to war was sounded, his noble instincts stirred, and he joined our ranks, lending his strength to our cause and helping lead us to victory!

Our hearts are full, and our spirits lifted by the bonds forged in laughter and camaraderie. For this, we are ever grateful. The memories of this event shall remain with us, treasured as the finest of jewels, and we shall speak often of the kindness and valour of the people of Canterbury Faire. As well as of their fondness for custard.

Once more, the clarion call to war rings forth, and his Majesty eagerly prepares to answer, making ready for the journey to Tides of War at the month's end. There, we shall once again gather, united beneath the banner of camaraderie and revelry.

The elevation of Eleanora de la Birche has been confirmed for this noble event, to take place in Stormhold on the 21st through the 23rd of February, with her ascension most likely to occur upon the Saturday, the 22nd. May this gathering bring forth both triumph and joy, as we stand together in the spirit of our shared bonds.

May fortune and favour smile upon each of you in the days to come. With deepest thanks and respect,

In service to the Kingdom,
King Kitan and Queen Alesia

Autumn Crown Tournament

Greetings to our most Noble populace of Lochac,

The sands of time pass too quickly and while it feels like we have barely started our Reign the vow We took to pass the Crown on to another worthy pair tugs at us.

To this end we seek Heirs. In line with our tradition we will hold a high tournament to test the honour, prowess and inspiration of those who would seek to take the Crown and lead this mighty kingdom.

The time has been set and preparations are well underway to host this magnificent tournament and accompanying activities to celebrate this great kingdom, its people and the Heirs.

The Kingdom is reflected in the glory of the Crown list and We would like to see a list worthy of this magnificent Kingdom. So we task as many of you as are able to enter this tournament, If you are not able to seek to be our Heirs yourself we ask you to encourage and enable others as best you are able.

We have no additional requirements on entrants. The only requirements are those that are necessary to fight in any tournament and the Kingdom eligibility requirements. (You will find the Lochac Laws for Crown Tournament here on page 6 - <https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/files/2024/09/LochacLaws-September-2024.pdf>)

The format of the tournament will be a round robin with a best of 3 final unless that format is made impractical by the volume of entrants. While this would make us extraordinarily happy, we would then move to a best of 3 (or single kill if weather dictates) triple elimination tournament.

We entreat you to enter no matter what your experience of fighting. The entrants of any, and all citizens of this kingdom as fighter or consort brings honour to the list. No one is too new, no one is 'not good enough'. No one's armour is too poor, no one is 'not worthy'. Simply being there and taking the field does honour to the list and to the kingdom.

We ask that you provide your letter of intent by Sunday, 9th March, 2025 to crown@lochac.sca.org, however we will be considering late entries should circumstances have prevented you from determining your entry in the list prior to that date.

Your letter of intent should include the full SCA name of the combatant and the consort and the heraldry of each. Please also provide email addresses for both entrants.

In service to the Kingdom,

King Kitan and Queen Alesia

I had great pleasure in visiting Canterbury Faire this month. Meeting many of the Crescent Isles heralds and sharing ideas was very enjoyable.

It was extremely heartening seeing Lady Rose Taillor acting as Royal herald for their Majesties, and doing an amazing job handling curve balls as presented.

Lady Isabella Caterina de Massi became the new herald for the Barony of Southron Gaard. I wish her well in her first time as a Baronial herald.

After a round table discussion with many of the heralds present, it was noted that several items needed further information disseminated. When you have submitted a device or name for a client, it is advisable that you ensure you read the commentaries on Oscar while the submission is at Kingdom level. This may alert you to potential issues that can quickly be sorted so the submissions are not returned. When submitting names, devices or badges please use the new forms available from the website <https://herald.lochac.sca.org/submissions> as all older forms will be returned!

Key requirements:

- You will need to be a current SCA member, 18 years or older.

Ability to keep on top of a variety of A&S-related administrative tasks.

Key elements of the job:

- Taking care of the Kingdom's A&S website and Facebook group (directly or through deputies).

The Summer Twilight Tourney Series continues in February with Love: Fate vs Chance!

Long have people debated whether Love is predetermined by Fate, or if people meet solely by Chance. Join us we attempt to solve this eternal mystery by exploring the history of Saint Valentine's Day, making tokens of affection (favours), playing games of chance, eating chocolate & - as many medieval disagreements were solved - by fighting! Performances (especially themed around Love, Fate or Chance) during dinner are encouraged for the entertainment of our Baroness.

For the tournaments, combatants will have to make a choice: Trust their Fate, or take a Chance with the dice!

Each combatant will have 2 lives. If it pleases the populace, the fallen combatants can choose to take a chance rolling the dice - if luck is with them they get another life!

Weapons will be random. Each combatant will roll a dice to decide their weapon. If a combatant wishes to trade weapons with their opponent, there will be a roll off & the combatant with the highest roll will make the decision whether to trade or not.

If you have spare weapons and or gauntlets, please bring them. Combatants are encouraged to bring their banners (& banner poles) if they have them).

This is a potluck dinner. Please bring a plate to share. Oven space is limited, so please let us know in advance if you need it.

Timetable:

Hoping to include rapier & heavy combat, but first need to consider how to best manage the heat in late February.

6:00 pm - Feast: Maximum 60 people.

A long, long time ago, in an incipient Shire far, far away, a small group of young people from a role-playing group in Moe, Victoria met the SCA. And thus, the Shire of Dark Skies came into being. Our first event was held in February AS IX, in a small country hall in the hamlet of Trafalgar East. A hall with a wooden floor, exposed beams, an open fireplace, and an outdoor toilet. Not to mention to a kitchen that only two people could safely work in, with incredibly basic functionality!

While Dark Skies disbanded decades ago, that little Shire gave Lochac a three-times Prince and Knight, plus two members of the Order of the Pelican. (Three if you count Cristoval, who we always considered one of us, even though he never lived in Dark Skies.)

Forty years on, those founding members of Dark Skies who remain invite Lochac to join us in remembering our past, celebrating the present, and looking forward to the future. Please join us for the Dark Skies 40th Anniversary Memorial.

The feast menu will include as many dishes from the original feast as we can remember. There will be hedgehogs, and gingerbread people. If anyone who went to the original event can remember what they ate, we'd love to hear from you!

A&S competitions: Oldest garb, Best "no shit, there I was" SCA history story (bonus points for stories about events in or people from Dark Skies).

16th-21st April 2025: Rowany Festival 2025 Barony of Rowany, New South Wales

Site: Camp Wombaroo, 162 Black Spring Road, High Range, New South Wales.

Preparations for Festival 2025 continue!

Bookings are open.

This year we made a special effort to get bookings open ASAP. If you haven't yet, head over to the Festival website to see the prices for 2025 and the new catering offerings.

Payment plans are also open, so if you would like to pay for your festival ticket over time, now is a perfect time to get that organised. Full details are provided <https://festival.lochac.sca.org/>

This year we are looking into providing personal tents/beds for people who are not able to bring their own but still want the full camping experience with their friends. There are a number of options available, however this is still in the investigation stage.

We have a professional provider lined up, we just need to know how interested people would be with the offering as there is a minimum order.

If this sounds like something you would like to take advantage of, please go to <https://festival.lochac.sca.org/festival-personal-tent-hire/> for details and fill in the form to express your interest.

We are also looking for people who would be willing to take on an office at festival. If you like to help get things done, please drop us a line at stewards@festival.lochac.sca.org.
