Words from the Crown

Greetings to our gentle populace,

August found Us on the fields of Pennsic fighting with the Western Alliance. Though Our numbers were only 16 we fought well and held our own on the field of battle and fought in the vanguard of the Western Alliance. It was a glorious time as We made new friends. Upon Our return, We traversed the length of the Kingdom and traveled to the Barony March of Mons Tonitrus as they hosted the Mace and Greatsword tournament. We then found ourselves in the Northlands for Polaris War, where more glorious battles awaited Us.

With all this travel and fighting we have realized that We have grown weary, as the Crowns are a heavy burden. We now seek to find heirs in the coming weeks. We have requested letters of intent from the warriors of our glorious populace and are preparing to hold a grand tournament in the search for someone worthy to sit the thrones of this magical kingdom.

As Our reign has progressed and We prepare to have heirs, We look back with joy and fond memories of being blessed with the love and support of the glorious Kingdom of Atenveldt. We want to thank everyone for making this a magical journey and allowing Us the honor of being your Crown. From the bottom of our hearts we thank you.

Removing 'Courts of Chivalry' References in Corpora--Commentary Request

The Board of Directors is seeking feedback on a proposed edit to Corpora to remove references to 'Courts of Chivalry'.

Explanation: In the early days of the SCA, "Courts of Chivalry" were used to deal with completely in-game behavioral issues such as failure to acknowledge blows on the tourney field, lack of what was seen as proper courteous behavior toward ladies, etc. Sometimes these "courts" were codified in kingdom laws, and sometimes they were not. Often there was confusion. However, over the decades the SCA has developed standardized policies with which to deal with these issues that do not include public courts conducted by the Crown, peerage bodies, or other entities. These policies have the benefit of providing consistency across the Society, regardless of Kingdom. While many kingdoms still have laws regarding such "courts", they are seldom or inconsistently used. Often the courts are not in compliance with Society policies on investigative procedures and sanctions, and can set up an expectation that the SCA will function akin to a law court, which is problematic as it is untrue. As a result of the creation of new policies to handle these problems, some kingdoms have chosen to eliminate all references to such courts from their laws. Unfortunately, Corpora still implies they are required (Corpora III.C.4.h, below).

To clarify the matter, the Board seeks commentary on a proposal to eliminate from Corpora all references to Kingdom Courts set up to deal with disciplinary issues. This would not necessarily prevent a kingdom from continuing "courts of courtesy" or other mechanisms that work for them as long as those mechanism are in compliance with Society policies, but would remove the Corpora expectation that such "courts" are required.

Corpora III.C.4: Branches-Branch Designations-Kingdom:

4. Kingdom: A kingdom is a sovereign entity within the Society which has the right to select a ruling ~~King and Queen~~ Sovereign and Consort by armored combat. A branch or contiguous group of branches may petition for kingdom status if the resulting entity would fulfill the requirements listed below:

- h. A body of kingdom law which provides for the maintenance and succession of the Crown; for the definition and advancement of local branches; for the appointment and removal of territorial Barons and Baronesses; ~~for the conduct of such courts as may be required for the maintenance of the realm;~~ and for such other matters as are found necessary. Draft laws, in the form to be presented to the victors of the first Crown Lists, must accompany a petition for kingdom status.

Corpora IV.G.9: Royalty-The Crown:

The Crown may establish and call such courts as may be necessary for the governance of the realm, in accordance with kingdom law and custom.

- Any courts within the Society are presumed to be within the historical context of the Society and pertain only to conduct within the structure and definitions of the Society;
- The primary purpose for these courts within the Society is for the investigation of questions and issues, for opening communications on issues, and for the clarification of issues. Only secondarily are courts considered to be for the purpose of trying members of the Society for alleged behavior or incidents. No courts of the latter type are to be established by any branch below kingdom level;
- No court shall be held within any kingdom on individual behavior that falls within the jurisdiction of a civil or criminal court maintained by the nation or other political division where it takes place, nor shall any recommendation about individuals be made on such issues. However, a given action may have implications both in law and in the Society's rules of courteous behavior. A court which restricts itself to the latter may be held as long as the act in question occurred in a Society context;
- If a court concludes that the appropriate action is one beyond the powers of the Crown or Kingdom to enact, the judgment should be issued in the form of a request to the Society Seneschal.

Corpora IV.H.6-8: Royalty-The Coronet:

The Coronet may call courts of inquiry only if the Crown approves.

7. Reservations to the Crown:

When the Crown believes the Coronet has overstepped the bounds of law and custom, the normal recourse should be to attempt in-kingdom mediation ~~and then a Court of Chivalry, if needed~~ and then referral to the Board, if needed.

- If the Board upholds the judgment of such a Court, the affected parties may be subject to loss of any honors and privileges deriving from their reign, and nullification of any official acts dating back to the incident which led to the invocation of the Court.
- If the Crown feels that rapid action is essential to protect the Society, it has the option of ~~banishing the Coronet from the realm~~ issuing an Exile from the Kingdom against the Coronet, effectively putting the principality reign into abeyance until either conditions change within the kingdom or the Board acts. ~~countermands the order.~~ However, if the Board does not agree with the Crown's judgment regarding the urgency of the situation, the Board may choose to take action against the Crown as well as or instead of the Coronet.

8. Reservations to the Board

- The Board reserves to itself the final determination regarding discipline of members for actions taken while serving as Sovereign or Consort of a Principality. However, the Coronet remains subject to the Crown, and provisions ~~regarding Courts of Chivalry and banishment~~ Royal sanctions still apply.

Corpora X.B.4.b: Grievances and Sanctions-Sanctions-Reservations to the Board of Directors:

b. Sanctions upon Individuals for Actions taken as Coronet

- The Board reserves to itself the final determination regarding discipline of members for actions taken while serving as Sovereign or Consort of a Principality. However, the Coronet remains subject to the Crown, and provisions regarding ~~Courts of Chivalry and~~ Royal sanctions. If the Crown believes the Coronet has overstepped the bounds of law and custom, the normal recourse should be in-kingdom mediation and then referral to the Board. ~~a Court of Chivalry. If the Board upholds the judgment of such a Court, the affected parties may be subject to loss of any honors and privileges deriving from their reign, and nullification of any official acts dating back to the incident which led to the invocation of the Court.~~ If the Crown feels that rapid action is essential to protect the SCA, it has the option of imposing an Exile from the Kingdom ~~Proscription from Active Participation~~ upon the Coronet ~~from the realm,~~ effectively putting the principality reign into abeyance until either condition change within the kingdom or the Board acts. ~~countermands the order.~~ However, if the Board does not agree with the Crown's judgment regarding the urgency of the situation, the Board may choose to take action against the Crown as well as, or instead of, against the Coronet.

There was once a mighty star who ruled the northern skies. Polaris was convinced that he was the brightest and strongest of all of the heavens. One day, it came to his ears, that there was one brighter and stronger than he, but though he searched, he could not see it. Gradually, he heard through the grapevine, that a lovely maiden had possession of one brighter than he, though this star dominated the southern skies. He was determined to find out if that were true.

Come one and all to the third Polaris War in the beautiful lands of the Barony of Granite Mountain and help Polaris determine who is the brightest and strongest amongst the heavens! Contests will include bardic, rapier, armored combat, archery, and thrown weapons. We will have arts and science classes, as well. For those that wish to participate, Saree Saturday is returning! Join us for a long weekend of revelry and fun! (More information will be forthcoming about specific events and times. Keep tuned to the book of faces.)

Cabins: We will have some cabins available for rent for an additional $250. These are limited and will be allocated on a first-come-first-served basis. Greetings unto the Noble Populace of Atenveldt! The Premier Barony of the Known World will be hosting its Birthday event on September 21st, AS LIX (2024). We invite everyone to join us for this celebration full of merriment and revelry!!

What kind of merriment you might ask? The dancing kind! We will be hosting an Italian Renaissance Masquerade Ball, including buffet style food. The menu will be announced at a later date, but the buffet is included in your site fee. We will have options for alternative diets (vegan, gluten free) but if you need something specific, please reach out to our Feast Steward. Feel free to bring your own feast gear, but the buffet will be mostly small, finger foods and bite sized pieces so you are able to snack throughout the day and stay on the move so you can enjoy...

The dancing!! Following our opening Court, we will begin by teaching traditional Court dances followed by an afternoon of open floor and called dancing! So often, when court dancing is done at an event all the time is spent teaching, so we will make sure there is plenty of time to both teach and dance! And if you are interested in performing music for part of our day of dancing, please reach out to the event Steward.

This event will also host our Annual Nobility of Love competition! Outgoing Nobility of Love will host a tournament of grace that showcases the love you have for your partner. Anyone is welcome to compete, as long as you love <3 (our current Nobility of Love are father and son!)

We will be having a "Best Masquerade Mask" competition, to be judged by Their Excellencies! So make or buy the coolest, most unique mask you can for a chance to win.

And no day of courtly grace is complete without an Arts and Sciences Showcase or a Largesse Derby! Bring your best for the A&S display, show off the thing that really shouts ATENVELDT to you. For the largesse derby, bring your art that you would like to donate to the Barony and the populace will vote on their favorite. The winner will get to choose an item off the table.

This event will include the in-person polling for our next Baron and Baroness (on-line polling will be during the week leading up to the event). Keep an eye out on our social media, website and the Palm Prints for Letters of Intent from our B&B Candidates.

Gawd Awful Grail (BTY) September 24th, 2024

When: Tuesday, September 24, 2024 from 7pm to 10pm

Location: SW Corner of Reid Park (near 22nd and Country Club), 900 S. Randolph Way, Tucson AZ

Event Fees:

- Event is free

At long last, the holders of the Gawd Awful Grail and Gaudy Goblet (also known as "Susan") have been persuaded to allow others in the Barony to step forward and attempt to protect us from its evil. These cursed items have been in their possession for far too long and wrought much havoc upon them, but after much convincing, they have agreed to a tournament on Tuesday September 24th at the southwest corner of Reid Park, where our fighter practice is normally held. Both the tournament for the Grail and Goblet are only open to unbelted or uncollared fighters respectively, as they have the best chance of recuperation after being exposed to its foul presence.

Youth will also have a chance to compete for the Ghastly Glass, if there are enough competitors. Anyone may enter the tourneys, but the Grail and Goblet are not to leave the Barony of Tir Ysgithr. We've learned that lesson the hard way... Details of the tourneys and other activities will be forthcoming as we try to coax the holders into brief periods of lucidity.

Kingdom A&S Collegium October 19-20th, 2024

When: Friday, October 18-Sunday 20, 2024; Site opens 1:00pm on Friday and closes 4:00pm on Sunday

Event Fees:

- Pre-registered Weekend: $30 for members and $40 for non-members, youth 17 and under free.
- Pre-registered Day: $20 for members and $30 for non-members, youth 17 and under free.
- At the Gate Weekend: $35 for members and $45 for non-members
- At the Gate Day: $25 for members and $35 for non-members

Event Steward: Master Gunnar Skullsplitter & Thegn Angus Macairt

We have heard the call for more arts, more science, and more time to do both. This October we will answer the call with a brand new format for A&S Collegium. Up in the beautiful north of Arizona at Chauncey Ranch we will have a 2 and half day collegium. The location will provide us the space and time to have longer classes and classes that most indoor facilities will not allow. There will be hot stuff, cold stuff and things of many colors.

The planned tracks will include cooking, but not just cooking, those who take the classes will have the opportunity to show off what they learn that day by providing a feast. You love music we would like you to not only learn a song, a dance or to drum but to share that in the evening as we dine and celebrate. Metal has always fascinated you then come learn to shape that metal to your desires. These are just a few of the activities we want to share.

Have you ever had that idea for a dream dish or even an entire feast, but you know that the average SCAdian would not eat it or it is sadly out of the budget? Then this is the event for you! We are planning an event for you to come teach, cook, and share what makes your SCA cooks' heart sing! We designed an entirely new way of experiencing how to plan, prepare, teach, and share dishes at the Girl Scout Amahami Outdoor Center the weekend of August 30-September 2, 2024. This event is a fantastic opportunity to turn your dream feast and/or dish into an exciting new class! Let others learn about your reasons why, your methods, and your recreated recipes and techniques. We encourage teaching as part of your dish preparation and invite students to work beside you.

We asked have you ever:

- wished to make a dish using an uncommon ingredient?
- worked on a researched dish that was too expensive for a feast?
- wanted to cook it all over period heat sources? (Fire!)
- wanted to try cooking venison, rabbit, or fish but could not?
- done a deep dive into a culture or region and desired to present a complete meal they would have eaten?

Your concerns:

- Traveling with food from great distances.
- Cost of ingredients.
- Accommodations
- Only one feast/dinner.

Our solutions:

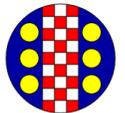

- Four (or more!) smaller feasts on Saturday.
- One Grand Feast on Sunday.
- This is a Girl Scout camp so there are lodges, several cabins, platform tents, and tenting space available for you.
- You provide the menu so that we can purchase your ingredients and have them on site for you!

Kingdom Announcements

Use of 3rd Party Payment Services

Good afternoon to all gentles of the Kingdom of Atenveldt!

It has come to my attention that several groups have been using Venmo, Zelle, and/or Square to receive SCA funds from fundraisers, such as silent auctions, or donations.

Funds from a silent auction or donation should be deposited directly into an SCA checking or savings account. Funds deposited into anyone's personal account is co-mingling. This is clearly documented in the Society Exchequer's Handbook and Society Financial Policy III C.

There can be no co-mingling of SCA funds with the funds of any individual or business. Disbursement controls will be implemented by the branch or other entity that are sufficient to discourage misappropriation of funds and to reveal any attempted misappropriation promptly.

Currently per Society PayPal policy – the SCA is allowed to collect for events, donations and heraldry by PayPal/PayPal Zettle. No other credit card collection services are allowed. No other credit card collection services are allowed except those explicitly listed in Society Exchequer's Handbook and Society Financial Policy.

Breaking of these policies or co-mingling of funds can jeopardize the SCA's Non-profit status. This is a serious matter; it can be investigated by the Society's Seneschals office.

If you are using any of these applications, please stop immediately.

Thank you.

In service to the Kingdom,

Lady Ann Devlin of the Celts
Chancellor of the Exchequer, Kingdom of Atenveldt
