Royal Missive

Their Majesties

Good Morrow, Lochac,

I trust this day finds thee well, with the sun upon thy face, a warm breeze from northern climes, and the good company of thy fellow Scadians to warm thy heart.

We are happy to announce the expansion of our Kingdom with the creation of two new groups. The first is the creation of the Incipient Shire of Sherwater in the Crescent Isles, the other is the creation of the Hamlet of Radburne, to the west of Dismal Fogs.

There is also an update to the armoured combat rules for Lochac, details of which can be found online, and in the missive coming from the Earl Marshal.

His Majesty, the King, had the immense pleasure of attending Inter-College War 27, and is elated to report that it was an event filled with unforgettable antics and daring escapades. One of the highlights was His Majesty's audacious quest to unravel the mystery of the connection between St. Ursula and bears.

After delving into the evidence, I must avow that St. Monica's compelling data and impressive graph hath swayed me towards their side—yea, a graph! The weekend was ablaze with valour as mighty warriors clashed on the battlefields, striving for the coveted Golden Threads and endeavouring to avoid the fearsome gaze of the Gorgon.

As a proud member of Passalaqua, I was elated to see our side claim victory. Though it was unclear if we were officially a faction, it appears that fortune doth favour the King. With a wink, I must commend the noble Alexander and Evan Bainsan, who fought with unparalleled bravery and secured the day. Interestingly, they were mercenaries employed by St. Monica for the princely sum of a towel, "accidentally" donated by a poor St. Ursulan.

The strength of our kingdom lies in the tales of our youth, and I am delighted to see that we excel in creating joy and camaraderie. We must commend Nathan and Isabella for the grand event they orchestrated, with the aid of a crew that ensured everything ran smoothly. Huzzah!

We were most fortunate to attend the grand Midwinter at Tocal. It was His Majesty's first time upon this venerable site, and verily, it did not disappoint. Truly, it is a splendid place for grand events, and we do hope all shall have the chance to visit its hallowed grounds.

The tournament was a spectacle of valour and skill, most thrilling and well-received. The fencers crossed blades with finesse, and the heavies clashed with mighty force. The rounds were swift and fierce, a comradeship, friendship, and joy radiating whirlwind of combat and chivalry, with throughout. Nobles, ladies, and lords all clashed for the delight of the crown and the assembled crowd.

Afterward, we were treated to a grand feast within a majestic hall, with dancing and singing echoing through the night. Games of skill and chance were played, in which I, your King, may have had a slight advantage. It was a night of merriment and revelry, a true celebration of our shared spirit.

The Queen and I extend our heartfelt gratitude to Mordenvale for hosting such a magnificent Midwinter at Tocal. We eagerly await the coming Spring War, which shall be held upon this same esteemed site. We call upon all to join us, to don thy armour, and embrace the adventure that awaits. Let us meet again at Spring War, to fight with honour and create new legends. Huzzah to Mordenvale!

Queen Iglesia's Masked Pavanne was veiled in secrecy until its revelation in Pegasus. Her Majesty proclaimed, 'I am deeply moved and incredibly grateful for the unforgettable evening you all created in my honour.'

With such thoughtful touches as the beautiful flowers—delivered one at a time, then thoughtfully arranged—to the heartfelt poems, and even a love song. It was a night of profound love and joy.

I am overwhelmed by the generosity of our Kingdom to the whims of His Majesty. The dedication of King Bain, who, with the help of many kind-hearted friends, created memories I shall cherish forever.

To everyone involved in making this night so special, including the kitchen staff, teachers, dancers, singers, musicians, stewarding team, largesse gifters, setup and pack down crews, please accept my heartfelt thanks. Your kindness and effort have touched me deeply.'

Our next royal appearance shall be the Battle for Bottony Cross in the peaceful and mercantile barony of Saint Florian de la Riviere – but more about that next month.

His Majesty is most excited, as is Her Majesty, to attend Pennsic War. It shall be a true test of our Kingdom's strength to project such a force so far from our shores. We are both confident in the success of our raid...cough, I mean mission of peace, and shall regale thee all with tales of our adventures. All shall hold their personhood cheap whilst any speaks who fought with us upon the Pennsic Field.

The upcoming Spring Crown Tournament hath been announced. Please see the missives herein for requirements, dates, and format. Remember, the wildebeests come, so get thy details in early.

Lastly, thank thee all. The King and I are having a wonderful time, full of joyful events, good companionship, and earnest time spent with many friends both old and new. Thank thee all for making this journey exciting for us both. Ye all rock verily.

A Poem of the events of this month from their Majesties in the style of a
16th Century Rhyming Poem

On the war field, the King marched with pride,
As colleges clashed, their spirits did not hide,
With swords and minds, they sought the carrot's lore,
Their prowess shone, and knowledge they did pour.
To all who came, our thanks and hearts we lend,
For showing strength and wit until the end.

To Tocal's embrace, in winter's chill we came,
With Mordenvale's warmth, we felt no winter's claim,
Their merriment and cheer did light the way,
Turning cold night into a festive day.
To those who welcomed us with open arms;
We send our gratitude, for all your charms.
A wondrous surprise, the Queen doth now relate,

For on this eve, my heart did celebrate,
With flowers fair and poems sweetly penned,
The King and co-conspirators did this joy extend,

In joyful song and dance, our love was praised,
I'm humbled by the kindness and amazed.
To all who shared this night so full of grace,
My joy and memories can no-one e'er replace

In Saint Florian de la Riviere's bounds,
Where valour calls and noble deed resounds,
King Bain himself shall join the fierce display,
To meet the fray and test his might that day.
We challenge all, in friendship and in fight,
To face us on the field, and prove their right.

Our hearts are full as we embark with cheer,
To Pennsic's shores, new friends shall draw near,
With friends to meet and tales to share anew,
In unity, our bonds shall we renew.
To all who journey with us, from far and wide,
Our thanks abound, you light our path with pride.

In Sincerity and Fellowship,
Queen Iglesia and King Bain
Undoubted Crown of Lochac

Spring Crown Tournament

Your Kingdom needs YOU - we need Heirs.

Declared amidst the revelry of Rowany festival and the solemnity of Coronation in Southron Gaard, our forthcoming crown tournament shall carry additional requisites, ensuring that our successors embody excellence across the pillars of Service, Prowess and Arts and Science. Each potential partnership will need to demonstrate their commitment to these noble pursuits. Honour shall be paramount upon the field of combat, each participant pledging allegiance to the rules of fair play and the sanctity of the tournament. Service may manifest in holding an officer role, be it within the kingdom or local groups, or in the stewardship of events. Contributions to the Arts and Sciences may take the form of scholarly discourse or the dissemination of knowledge. These are examples only – and many other forms of Service and Arts and Sciences will also be acceptable to us as entry into our Crown list. If our populace has any questions regarding this, please reach out to our Chamber-Alain.

Continue exemplifying the virtues of inclusivity, courtesy, and kindness, virtues which have long been the cornerstone of our noble realm, and which we hold in the highest esteem.

In brief; to enter spring crown either the fighter or consort must -

- ◆ Service - have held an SCA office, run an event, run a regular SCA event (eg local A&S) or other like service within the last two years.
- ◆ Arts and Science - run a class, entered a competition, performed (i.e. performed a song at an event) or another similar activity within the last two years.
- ◆ The consort and fighter are both required honour the rules of fair play and the sanctity of the tournament.
- ◆ Format - A round robin with a best of three final, should numbers preclude a round robin, the rounds will be decided in a triple elimination.

The Canton of Torlyon in New South Wales, shall be our hosts for this splendid occasion!

Dates: 7th & 8th September, 2024

Update Re Crown Tournament

Greetings Lochac,

The important bit, Letters of Intent for the upcoming Crown Tournament are due by August 31st.

As the upcoming crown tournament approaches we, your ever so humble King and Queen, invite you to participate in this grand event. The Official invite as follows with much less wildebeests and more official stuff.

To enter you must:

- ◆ Be a current SCA member and maintain your membership throughout your reign.
- ◆ Include your membership number and expiry date with your letter of intent.
- ◆ Supply your mundane name and SCA name along with how you wish to be announced by the heralds at the tournament, including preferred pro-nouns.
- ◆ Be willing/able to obtain/maintain a passport throughout the reign.
- ◆ Be 18 years or older on Sept 7th 2024.
- ◆ Swear to attend the subsequent three Crown events (Spring Coronation, March Crown and May Coronation).
- ◆ Be willing to swear fealty to Lochac for the duration of the reign.
- ◆ Both be deemed acceptable to the Crown.
- ◆ Send a Letter of Intent to the Crown by August 31st (see Crown Requirements below).

Who may enter the tournament:

- ◆ Any currently authorised heavy fighter, whatever their status or experience, partnered with a consort.

Tournament Format:

- ◆ All weapon forms acceptable to armoured combat on a tournament field.
- ◆ If the number of combatants is less than 12: round robin format.
- ◆ If there are more than 12 combatants: single kill, triple elimination.

How to enter:

- ◆ Letter of Intent may be sent via email to crown@lochac.sca.org, or presented to the Crown at a Royal event.
- ◆ Please append contact details for both participants: SCA/mundane names; email/phone number; preferred titles and pronouns; membership and authorisation periods.

Crown Requirements:

- ◆ Appropriate heraldic display upon the field and for Invocation Court: e.g. banners/standards/merki, painted shields, tabards/livery, covered mundanities, etc.
- ◆ Letters of Intent: simple emails are acceptable, but feel free to get creative.
- ◆ One of the partnership must have participated in a suitable A&S activity in the last 2 years. (run a class, hosted on-line A&S based event, been a A&S officer or deputy, performed at an event etc).
- ◆ One of the partnership must have contributed service back to the society in the last 2 years. (held a local or kingdom office, run an event, marshalled, been herald or otherwise supported an event, etc).

Strong recommendations:

- ◆ Read Kingdom Law
(<https://seneschal.lochac.sca.org/files/2021/10/LochacLaws-October-2021.pdf>, especially "Section III. The Crown").
- ◆ Talk to former Crowns or Landed baronages.
- ◆ Have a draft plan in case you win.

If you want to enter the upcoming Crown tournament read the above.

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Lochac,

As always, there is a lot happening in Lochac. We have a new Kingdom Hospitaller (Lady Madelaine le Mercer). We have a new Seneschal for Politarchopolis (Master Crispin Sexi). We are advertising or in commentary for Mordenvale, Stormhold, and Aneala. We are also in commentary for a new Provost of Scribes. We have Radburne War and the Guilded Symposium both at the end of August, followed by Spring Crown in Torlyon, and Spring War in early October. These are just a few of the events offered in the coming months.

I would also like to congratulate the East Kingdom for achieving something extraordinary, receiving permission to hold an experimental rapier Crown in 2025-26. It will be interesting to see the results.

In Lochac the Alternate Crown working group is currently drafting the final poll. Each choice needs to be described in enough detail to ensure people are comfortable with making an informed choice. This should be out in a month or so.

We also have some changes to groups in Lochac. The household of Radburne has now become the Hamlet of Radburne, in western NSW. Also the Hamlet of Sherwater, near Wellington in New Zealand, has now become the Incipient Shire of Sherwater.

In service to Lochac

Gomez

From the Kingdom Earl Marshal

Greeting Lochac from the office of the Earl Marshal,

ATTENTION Armoured Combat Participants and Marshals.

A new update to the Armoured Combat ruleset is now in effect. As always, you can find the current rules linked on the Earl Marshal's website at <https://marshal.lochac.sca.org/>

The current version of the Armoured Combat Fighters' Handbook is now 3.4
The current version of the Armoured Combat Marshals' Handbook is now 2.3

For everyone's convenience, there is a change log linked in the table of contents for both documents.

I would like to thank members of my team for their efforts in bringing this change into being; previous and current deputies for Armoured Combat; Duchess Sir Eva von Danzig and Lord Patri de Buck, Deputy for Rules Mistress Angele Marie de Savigny, and other members of the office of Marshal throughout the Kingdom for their helpful commentary.

I remain Your servant and Earl Marshal,
Kinggiyadai Orlok

From Crux Australis

Unto the heralds and populace of Lochac does Gwyn Cantor send greetings, and the July CAMEL.

It's reporting season!

Shire Heralds should have already sent a report to Crux and Canton Heralds to their Baronial Herald. Please attend to this at your earliest convenience if you have not already done so.

Baronial Heralds' reports are due to Crux by 1st August.

Let's have all the reports together nice and tidy for Isabella when she gets back :)

Congratulations to the following gentles on their new heraldic registrations this month!

* Addison de Parre. Device. Per chevron argent and purple, three flax flowers slipped and leaved azure and a distaff inverted argent.

* Mathias von Sachsen. Device. Azure, a chevron sable fimbriated and cotised between two wolves combattant and an open book argent.

* Matthijs Tjepke van der Horst. Badge. Azure, on a pale sable fimbriated a mullet of sixteen points Or and a lighthouse issuant from base argent.

* Muirghein ni Ghrainne and Alexandra Hartshorne. Joint badge. (Fieldless) A bull's massacre sable enflamed proper.

* Ollivier Le Floch. Badge. Per pale argent and gules. Nice badge!

I have summarised, and have omitted adjustments to existing registrations. For further detail, please view the entire Letter of Acceptance and Returns at <https://heraldry.sca.org/loar/2024/05/24-05lar.html>

Resource spotlights for the month are my favourite heraldic resources that I think anyone with an interest in consulting heraldry should know about.

For name heraldry:

- Morsulus search engine, <https://morsulus.org/>
Neat custom search for name articles at the bottom, searches heraldry.sca.org as well as the following two resources.

- The Academy of Saint Gabriel's name article index: <https://www.s-gabriel.org/names/index.shtml>

My second port of call after Morsulus, when I want to know anything about historical names.

- The Dictionary of Medieval Names from European Sources dmnes.org
The best place to browse names & find spelling variants .

And for armorial heraldry:

- The Pictorial Dictionary of Heraldry <https://mistholme.com/pictorial-dictionary-of-heraldry/>
Not only a useful dictionary of charges, but the commentaries on how they are used in SCA heraldry are invaluable.

- The Book of Traceable Heraldic Art <https://heraldicart.org/>

Many, many depictions of charges which can be used for device submissions. Many based on period manuscripts.

Yours in service,

Gwyn Cantor

Lochac Chancellor to the Exchequer

Greetings good gentles of Lochac,

Her Excellency, Baroness Helouys, is nearing the end of her term as Lochac Chancellor of the Exchequer. As such the time has come to find a successor.

The Exchequer is a Greater Kingdom Officer and the senior Reeve of Lochac, and primarily has responsibilities in the following areas:

- * Training, guiding, and assisting the Reeves of the Kingdom in managing the finances of their branches and reporting on the same.
- * Managing and reporting on the Kingdom bank accounts, including approval of expenditure and Crown Events as a member of the Lochac Council of the Purse.
- * Maintaining the electronic systems used by the Kingdom's Reeves, including Xero, Dropbox, the Reeves Webpage and Reeves email list.
- * Developing and maintaining financial procedures, and assisting the SCA Ltd and SCA NZ Inc Treasurers with developing financial policies.

Prior financial experience - either as a branch Reeve or in the mundane world - could be considered a must-have, as would being a people-person. Experience with Xero in particular would also be very beneficial.

Other useful attributes include:

- * A desire and capacity to assist the amazing Reeves of Lochac, comfort using computers and the numerous electronic tools at our disposal (a love of Excel would be a strong bonus).
- * A good head for numbers (although in all honesty, Xero and Excel do most of the hard work for you).
- * Able to devote several hours a week to the task. And if you saw the words "three-quarters" above and think that 75% would have been a better way to put it, you get extra marks.

As a bonus, you will be fortunate enough to have support through Mistress Elizabeth Severn, once Aneala Reeve, and now my Xero (and hard questions Deputy) ;)

A successful applicant will be appointed as my deputy for a six-month training period before stepping up. If you are interested in serving the Crown and Kingdom in this critical role, please email an application to both the Kingdom Seneschal at seneschal@lochac.sca.org and the Kingdom Exchequer at exchequer@lochac.sca.org

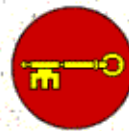

Please include your membership number, mundane and SCA names, any relevant financial experience, and your general experience in the SCA - as well as outlining why you think you'd be suitable for the role.

Appointment to the role will be made at the pleasure of the Crown.

If you have any questions regarding the role, its responsibilities and requirements - or indeed anything else - please don't hesitate to contact Baroness Helouys.

In service to Lochac,

Gomez

Notice Board

Welcome to the Known World Newcomers Symposium 2024!

The Known World Newcomers Symposium (KWNS from here forward) will be held virtually via Zoom on November 30, 2024. The lobby will open starting at 7:00AM central standard time (CST), with classes starting at 8:00AM CST.

The Symposium will host a full day of classes teaching about the SCA. From who we are and where we came from, to all of the different kinds of activities we participate in, how to get started in your local area, and much, much more.

While there will be a focus on introducing newcomers to the SCA, there will also be classes for aspiring chatelaines, networking opportunities with people from the entire "Known World", and a great knowledge base that should be valuable for anyone involved with the SCA.

Currently we are seeking teachers for classes that fall into the proposed tracks. Interested? Please fill out our class proposal form! Not sure which track your specific class falls under? That's completely okay. Put it in the track you think sounds the best and we'll sort it out on our end. More information and a link to our class proposal form is available here.

There are no event registration fees for this event, and registrations will open later in 2024!

Canterbury Faire 2025 call for bids

Greetings to the populace of Lochac,

Canterbury Faire is the largest SCA event in New Zealand.

The Canterbury Faire sub-committee has recently been formed to assist the preparation of bids and to advise in the running of Canterbury Faire, but we are not the stewards and we are not running the event.

To that end, the Canterbury Faire sub-committee is calling for bids for the running of Canterbury Faire 2025.

If you are interested in putting a bid in for this event, or if you have any questions then please contact the sub-committee at cfsubcommittee@sg.lochac.sca.org and the Southron Gaard Seneschal at seneschal@sg.lochac.sca.org

The site is already booked for Saturday 18th January to Sunday 26th January 2025.

Master James of Southron Gaard
Canterbury Faire sub-committee
Chairperson

Canterbury Faire Sub-Committee

Greetings to the populace of Lochac,

Canterbury Faire is the largest SCA event in New Zealand.

The complexity of running this event has meant that Southron Gaard has appointed a sub-committee with the general responsibility of overseeing the running of Canterbury Faire and consulting on, and implementing improvements to ensure the long-term viability of the event.

This email is to announce that the sub-committee has been appointed and can be contacted at cfsubcommittee@sg.lochac.sca.org.

The subcommittee consists of the following people:

- Master James of Southron Gaard.
Mundanely known as James Piesse and the Chairperson of the sub-committee.
- Mistress Aveline Goupil .
Mundanely known as Sandra Wheeler.
- Lord Thorbjorn Bjarnylr .
Mundanely known as Bear.
- Simon of Cluain.
Mundanely known as Simon Hollman.
- Master Llewelyn ap Dafydd.
Mundanely known as David Maclagan.
- Lord Daid de Cochrane.
Mundanely known as David Marsden.
- Lord Bjorn Svartsson.
Mundanely known as Nigel Richens.

The purpose of the sub-committee is to assist stewards by providing advice and managing institutional knowledge.

Our responsibilities include:

- Liaising with the site when the steward is not actively running the event.
- Assisting potential stewards with event bids and budgets.
- Compiling and updating documentation.
- Reviewing any legislative or regulatory changes that may effect the event.
- Continually evaluating the site and providers of goods and services to ensure that they are the best fit for the event.
- Developing systems to reduce the workload of stewards and other volunteers.
- Ensuring that the site is booked for the following year.
- Consulting with the populace on major changes that will effect the event.

Our responsibilities do NOT include:

- Running the event.
- Authorising expenditure.
- Over-ruling stewards decisions.

We are in the early stages of pulling together documentation for this massive task and we ask that any members of the populace get in contact if they have useful guides, documentation, templates etc related to the running of Canterbury Faire.

Also, we are seeking a bid for Canterbury Faire 2025 Could it be you?

Master James of Southron Gaard
Canterbury Faire sub-committee
Chairperson

Greetings all!

It is my pleasure to announce the Barony of Innigard will host May Coronation in 2025.

We are urgently looking for a bid for March Crown next year. If you would like information or interested in putting a bid forward, please contact your local seneschal or myself.

SCANZ Committee

Greetings all,

At the SCANZ meeting last night the decision was made to stop the current AGM and restart the process from the beginning at the next SCANZ meeting.

This was not done lightly but we felt due to the concerns raised about the AGM process, alongside the debate about how to best bring our constitution in line with the 2022 Incorporated Societies Act, it was agreed it was best to pause and take the time to investigate the concerns raised and seek further feedback from our members.

We apologise to all those who have already voted in the AGM but in good news you will get to vote again!

Yours in Service
the SCANZ Committee

Greetings all,

Applications for SCANZ Treasurer will close at 6pm on Wednesday 31st July, 2014.

The SCANZ Treasurer is responsible for financial reporting alongside the administration and management of all financial assets of the Society in New Zealand.

Please include a brief statement regarding your relevant skills/experience. You don't need to be an accountant, but basic bookkeeping skills are beneficial as is experience with Xero.

Applications should be sent to committee@sca.org.nz

YIS
Josie Welch
SCANZ Chair

Greetings all,

The SCANZ AGM Take 2 will be held on Sunday 15th of September. The agenda will be sent out to members by Sunday 18th August and members will be able to vote postally up to 5:00 pm on 15th September.

An online meeting will be held on the SCANZ discord channel at 7:30pm on Sunday 15th September and members will have a chance to vote in person on the motions then (if they have not already done so postally).

We would encourage any discussion of the motions on the althing mailing list and the committee will attempt to respond to any questions in two to three days. We will allow some discussion of motions at the meeting but members will only be allowed 2 minutes each to ensure the meeting runs to a reasonable time.

Should anyone wish to submit a motion they will be able to do so to committee@sca.org.nz by 5:00 pm on the 18th of August. If anyone wishes to nominate themselves for the committee they can also send an email of nomination to the committee by the 18th at the address above.

The Committee will put some proposed rules changes prior to the 11th of August and welcome feedback on these up to 5:00 pm on the 18th of August when the agenda will be published.

Our rules do not allow for proxy votes. Voting at the meeting will be by text voting (digital show of hands) so will not be a secret ballot.

The SCANZ Committee

After celebrating our Russian Baron last year, we now invite you to celebrate all things French with our Baroness, Josseline de la Cour. Be inspired by the Lady and the Unicorn tapestries and show our Baroness your creativity in our Arts and Science Competition. Delight in the tastes of France as our Chef de Cuisine tempts you with tantalising morsels of the Renaissance. Join us for games and merriment or show your skills of combat to impress the Baroness.

Arts and Science Competition:

1. Using the Lady and the Unicorn tapestries as inspiration- use any medium to create something with a Unicorn; it can be an embroidery, illumination, heraldic, tapestry, sewn item, etc. The only documentation required is to show what inspired you.
2. A French inspired subtlety to delight the Baroness.
3. The French loved beautiful gardens, create a plan for a garden, suitable for a palace. Not to be computer generated.

Children's Arts and Science:

Items to create a Unicorn Horn will be provided, to make at the event. There will be a prize for ages under 10 and ages 10 to 15.

Great populace, we plan on having a celebration.
You are invited on the 14 & 15th of September to come and celebrate with The Barony of Krae Glas the Joy and things we love of the SCA. So save the date!!

We are having a weekend of fun, joy and celebration as we run tournaments, feasts, dancing, singing, competitions and so much more.

And the theme is Joy! What does that mean? You ask.

"Show us what brings you joy in the SCA."

So throw on your best outfit. Bring the things that give you joy. It could be your favourite dish, your favourite outfit or just sending a thoughtful message to express how great the SCA is.

The Royals are attending. And we hear they like some shenanigans. Please also remember to think about those people you know who may need recognition of the service, or skills they have shown.

So save the date, more details to follow.

Regnum

IT IS A PRIMARY DUTY of every Kingdom officer, B&B, and local seneschal to keep the contact information in your membership record and your Regnumator record current, so that all those who need to reach you can do so. Please see the Regnumator User Guide for more information.

ORDER CLERKS and GUILD HEADS: While you should also use Regnumator to maintain your own contact information, please use the Regnum Update Form when you appoint a successor.
