From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings!

We would like to thank all of the people who helped Caid get to Pennsic and helped with the camp at Pennsic.

Thank you, Rychard, for getting the truck and organizing pickups as well as driving it. And Robynne, Egill, Daninir and Malcom for setting up, running, and packing down camp which is a Herculean job all in itself! To all who came early and stayed late to help with that.

All wars away from home build special bonds within the members of the Caid encampment. Pennsic is no exception. Thank you for all of your time and energy to make this a great experience for everyone who came!

We look forward to our Kingdom's wars coming up, Highland in Al-Sahid and Great Western War. We encourage you all to volunteer for just 2 hours because many hands make light work.

Thank you,

Wilhem

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, fellow members of the glorious Kingdom of Caid and by extension, our cousins and, friends in the greater Society for Creative Anachronism!

I hope all are well and that everyone is doing their best with the summer weather. Please remember that water and shade (and sunscreen) are your friends. There is no need to 'suck it up' unless you mean a beverage chock full of electrolytes!

This month simply bristles with combat opportunities in that it begins with Highland War before charging directly into Crown List time, and I wish the most honorable and puissant combat from all on both the War and Tournament fields. In addition, we will see all descend upon the Rapier field as the Caid Rapier Open occurs towards the end of the month! Just a wonderful time to be a combatant!

I also suspect that many of you are no doubt preparing for all of the fun and excitement that comes with our Kingdom hosting Great Western War! As was mentioned a few pages ago by Their Majesties, please volunteer so those who put so much time and effort into this massive Inter-kingdom extravaganza might also get a little bit of fun time too (or at the very least a time for Merchants Row perusal!)

Just a quick reminder that I am always looking for art showcasing our populace and cool, informative, and/or funny articles. I mean, you have all put up with my ramblings for well over a year; I am certain there are others with neato and nifty things to say within these pages ethereal.

Finally, on to requests from Society: Please read and comment on the proposed changes to our by-laws and Corpora at the end of the Crown Prints! Helping to make the SCA run better, smoother, and with more understanding and appreciation should be the goal of any and all who play our game. (Real Chronicler work! By ME! Can you imagine?)

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society I remain,

Beorn of the Northern Sea
Chronicler, Caid

Could I Make A Note?

Hail and well met good people of the Society for Creative Anachronism! It's your friendly neighborhood Kingdom Chronicler here, reminding you that one of the most important aspects of our volunteer organization is... its volunteers! Now, I realize that I am not breaking any new ground here; however, beyond assisting with the dreaded diseases of "helium hand" and "refusing to ask for help," there is another way in which to serve in Caid's populace, and indeed the other members of the Knowne World.

I am talking about writing Award Letter recommendations. Our game is often a wonderful and engaging endeavor. And, there are few things in the SCA as heartwarming as seeing someone receive just and timely recognition. We are very lucky to have a system where anyone, and I do mean anyone, may recommend anyone else for any award in any Kingdom. Now, it helps to know the person, the award, and the respective Kingdom's climate before firing off a recommendation in a foreign land for someone to receive their "Order of the Ordered Order" (I imagine when a Herald reads this it would sound like "OOOooooOOOOoooh!"). But, I mean, you could do it.

While there are 20 different Kingdoms in the SCA, there are a staggeringly greater number of awards. True enough, certain things like AoAs (Awards of Arms) are standard, while many others are not. For example, though we technically have them, Grants of Arms not attached to one of our Orders in Caid (sometimes referred to in a saucy tone as "naked Grants"), are almost never given. But in other Kingdoms, they are an integral part of the awards recognition process. Here in Caid, there are four "levels" of award: Non-armigerous, those with Arms, those with a Grant, and those with a Patent. If you are unsure of what a person has, you can either check their Caid Wiki entry (if they have one [and if they don't maybe they should get one?]), or look them up online at <http://heralds.sca-caid.org/op/people.php> and see what awards they already have.

I cannot stress enough that the Crown is always looking for recommendations from Their populace. As wise as the Sovereign and Consort may be, and as many and varied as Their Court undoubtedly are, there are simply not enough eyes and ears to see and hear everything that everyone does every day! So, please, should you notice an excellent fighter, a devoted servant, a talented artisan, a formidable archer, a swift equestrian, a person of great courtesy and wit, or anything else that seems, to you, to be noteworthy, then by all means, make the Crowns (and if living in the confines of a Barony, the respective Excellencies) aware of the good gentle.

Now for the old fogie note: back in MY day we had to write physical letters and use a stamp and everything. But now we have these wonderful websites with an automated letter generator and it can assist you in the process. For Caid, it is at- <http://royals.sca-caid.org/awards/online.php>

Thank you and happy letter writing!

WHERE: Recreation Park, 620 South Shamrock Ave., Monrovia, CA 91016

Please join the Barony of the Angels for a fun-filled day celebrating the Barony and its populace!

There will be period and non-period categories, and dishes must be able to withstand hot weather without refrigeration needed. All entries must use this ingredient in their recipe... cardamom! # Going to Your First War?

By Amanda of Gyldenholt

If you are planning on going to your first war, we thought we would make some suggestions and recommendations that may help make your first war just that much easier.

First and foremost, it is okay if you don't have period style camping gear! We all started from somewhere and there is no reason to let your camping gear stop you from enjoying your first war! Just let your camp master know you have modern gear and they will be able to place you properly.

An old trick to keeping hydrated is to eat pickles or even drink the pickle juice. However, not everyone can or really wants to drink pickle juice and we get that. So, we suggest picking up some electrolyte packets from your local big box store.

If you are planning on bringing water (which we highly suggest for summer time events), you can freeze some of your water bottles/jugs to use instead of only relying on ice to chill your cooler. Which we suggest you start cooling 24 hours before loading it up.

I have seen people use plant misters as a way to cool off while not being too modern looking while doing so.

If you have time, make a towel tunic. They are helpful for going back and forth from the showers. You can use an old towel, some terry cloth fabric, or even an old bed sheet to make them.

As was stated before, these are just a few ideas. Of course, if you ask nicely, most people are willing to help and answer any further questions you may have.

Have fun at your first war and remember to stay safe!
