THE OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER OF THE KINGDOM OF GLEANN ABHANN

SEPTEMBER, 2023 A.S. LVIII (58) VOLUME 19, ISSUE NO. 9

From Their Majesties

Greetings from the Aries throne.

We pray that each of Our dear Populace is having a great summer.

Summer War Meles, hosted by the Shire of Iron Ox, was a great time. We thank each person who worked to make the event so memorable.

Pennsic War is upon Us. As of the printing of this missive, the war has wrapped up and everyone has hopefully made their journey home, safely. Gleann Abhann was so very well represented. Our Kingdom had a larger representation than ever before. Thank you one and all for supporting Us and the River Valley Realm. Awe Hail.

More and more events are being added to the Kingdom calendar. We look forward to seeing each of you at upcoming events.

Kingdom A&S is shaping up nicely and is looking like Mistress Arielle and her crew, are packing it full of fun for everyone.

The RTOC tournament will be held at Slay the Dragon, the first weekend in September.

Please check the Kingdom calendar for all the events coming up!

We implore you to write in deserving gentles for awards, that We might justly reward them for their efforts. For if you stay silent, how will anyone, especially Your Crown, know who has been doing what?!

We remain loyal to Our Kingdom and Our Populace.

From Their Highnesses

Greetings from Their Highnesses!

We hope this letter finds you well and staying cool. We write to you to express Our gratitude and share Our experiences of Pennsic, a remarkable event that many in Our Kingdom recently attended. It was a truly unforgettable experience for Us, celebrating the 50th event of this War with old and new friends!

Pennsic was filled with exhilarating moments, epic battles, and splendid A&S displays. Our Kingdom fought with great honor on the battlefield. It was a privilege to witness the skill and dedication of our warriors as they engaged in combat, leaving a lasting impression on all who were present.

Looking to the future, We are thrilled to share that We will be attending several exciting events. First on our agenda is Slay the Dragon, hosted by the Shire of Volgeburg. This full event will hold many activities, including the Rapier Tournament of Champions! Rapier fighters will test their mettle and showcase their prowess in this tournament.

Lastly, I am pleased to share that We will be visiting Our populace in the Barony of Grey Niche where We will view the fabulous A&S displays at Kingdom A&S. Following this event, we will also be attending The Feast of St. Trotters, hosted by the Barony of Small Gray Bear.

His Highness and I would like to extend Our heartfelt gratitude to everyone who supported the Kingdom at Pennsic. Your unwavering dedication and encouragement did not go unnoticed. We are truly grateful for your generosity, whether it was through providing supplies, offering words of encouragement, or joining Us on the field of battle. Your support means the world to us, and We could not have achieved what We did without you.

Thank you again, and We cannot wait for our paths to cross once more.

In service to the Dream.

FROM THE CHRONICLER

Greetings unto the Populace of our fair Kingdom,

After a couple of months of the new layout, I hope you can see my vision for the Ambassador. I still have more plans, so please be looking for new features and wacky ideas. If you have a few crazy ideas of your own, please drop me a line so we can see how it would fit into our 16 pages, no more no less.

As summer starts to wind down and hopefully the high temps go away, more and more events will begin to happen. Be sure to get your reservations in and if you are not sure what events are coming up, Dame Dot suggests that you print out pages 8 & 9 of the Ambassador each month. The list of upcoming events will keep you up to date on the next 8 events.

With 8 events listed every month in upcoming order, it is a great opportunity for you to get your local group event featured for extended times. Get your event flier made as soon as possible and your event submitted via the Event Submission Form located on GleannAbhann.net. Getting it in early will get your event the most exposure possible. If you are finding it hard to get your flier created, reach out to me. I will be more than happy to help you get your ideas into your ad.

If you are a peer, look for me to contact you about our Meet the Peer feature. I'm looking to get as many of you as I can. I want everyone to get to know each and every one of you. I personally am looking forward to reading all of your answers to get an insight into who you are, how you found the SCA, which always interests me and also get to know what makes you the best peer you can possibly be.

Until next month!!!

Greetings from the Kingdom Exchequer,

It seems that things are finally returning to normal as events and activities once shut down by the Covid-19 epidemic have resumed. Things have been difficult for the group exchequers because many of the things we do can be forgotten when we do not get to use the skills on a regular basis. Now that events are returning, so are those skills. I appreciate everything that the group exchequers have accomplished in returning to normal operations.

I have been in the position of Kingdom Exchequer for almost 2 years now. I need a person willing to become my deputy and eventually take over this position. The job is not one that can be assumed immediately without training and a certain transition period.

To qualify, a person needs to be an active SCA member in good standing, have served as an SCA exchequer in the past and have basic bookkeeping/accounting knowledge. They must have access to the internet and preferably some experience with QuickBooks and Excel software. They will also need approval by the Crown and the SCA Treasurer.

If anyone is interested in the position please contact me at exchequer@gleannabhann.net.

YIS,

Kingdom Exchequer

Meet the Peer

Countess Morgana

Muirgen of the Mist

Royal Peer
Order of the Pelican

What is your persona and what drew you to it? - 10th Celt. I love Wales and Scotland, so my path was headed in that direction.

How did you find the SCA? - First discovered in Maryland at a fighter practice, (unknown as to what it was at the time) An employee at a live weapons store in one of the malls many years ago.

What was your first SCA event? - Phall Family Pheast, hosted by Rolling Thunder

What SCA activities are you the most interested in? - Service, illumination, and needle work (mainly embroidery)

If you could start on your path again with all the knowledge you have now, what if anything, would you do differently? - I wouldn't change anything. My path (though I didn't know that I was on a path, at the time) has lead me to where I am. I always want to offer a smile or encouragement, especially to new comers. I do what makes me happy and I want to extend that courtesy to others.

What is the best advice you received about being a peer? - I was told by my dear friend, Tar Radu, when I became Princess, to never agree to do anything on the spot. He said, to have the individual put in writing their request and that I would take it under advisement. This serves two purposes, you won't forget it and if it's important to the individual, they will take the time to forward it to you.

What is the worst advice you received about being a peer? - I don't know that I can remember any one in particular. I have always followed my heart and conscience

What is the one thing you wish someone had told you about being a peer? - We all learn in our own way, so another's opinion is usually taken with a grain of salt. I follow my own heart.

What's something people try to tell you is peerlike, or is not peerlike, that you disagree with? - I don't approve of "letter writing campaigns". I poll with my conscience and what I believe to be true. I have never polled as a household or group. When I write letters of recommendations, it is from my observation, what I believe to be true and just. Peerlike qualities are full time, in my opinion, not just when someone "important" is watching. It should represent the entire being of an individual.

What is your favorite SCA moment? - I have so many, but as Queen, being able to see the face of the individual in front of you, being recognized, especially giving an Award of Arms. There is great joy in that moment.

For Fun - What SCA skills have you learned that would help you survive a zombie apocalypse? - Knowing who to contact! We have so many talented members that have always extended helping hands.

For Fun - What is your favorite cuss word? - Depends on the day. lol But "caca head" comes quickly to my mind and "bloody hell".

For Fun - Is a hotdog a sandwich? Why or Why Not? - For me, a hot dog is just a hot dog. I've never considered it a sandwich.

Pennsic 50

A record breaking number of Rams registered for Pennsic 50, with that many familiar faces in the far away lands of Pennsylvania, an amazing time was bound to happen. Royal parties, midnight parties, camp sitting, shopping and massive battles kept everyone busy and tired. There was vast amounts of walking and even more walking and just when you thought you were done walking, you had to walk some more. The smells of food cooking were everywhere and at no time would anyone go hungry. The ice cream was a must and the largest stack of french fries were sought out by all.

Bored was never a term used while at Pennsic with battles, shopping and 135 pages of classes, there was always something to do. If you have never made the trip to Pennsic, do it, do it next year and the year after, but beware of the bog and the cannon blasts that will scare.

Meet the Peer

Mistress Isabel Winterbourne

Order of the Laurel

What is your persona and what drew you to it? -

Isabel is a late period English lady. At least, that's what she started out as! Over time I've tended to move her slightly earlier in period. I adore the clothes, but also, there's such a wide range of embroidery to explore!

How did you find the SCA? - I was introduced to the SCA in college, but couldn't follow up with it during that time. It wasn't until my daughter was in college, after she's connected with her local group that I could get involved.

What was your first SCA event? - My first event was Forest Maiden 2011. It didn't take any time at all to fall in love with everything and everyone!

What SCA activities are you the most interested in? - I'd say I am definitely an ArtsSci geek. Doing it, talking about it, helping others find it and learn it.. it just makes my heart sing.

If you could start on your path again with all the knowledge you have now, what if anything, would you do differently? - I would put far less emphasis on the scores I received during competition, and far more emphasis on what I learned from the project.

What is the best advice you received about being a peer? - Everyone has their own path and their own game to play. Don't compare your experiences with anyone else's experience.

What's something people try to tell you is peerlike, or is not peerlike, that you disagree with? - Quiet people can be peers. Odd people can be peers. Opinionated people can be peers.

What is your favorite SCA moment? - There was a favorite memory at my first event. Gellis was telling a story, and I was nodding along, happily listening. Someone mentioned that it was my first event; Gellis didn't believe them. He turned to me, and pre-apologized for anything in the future that he might do or say.. then he winked at me. It was then I knew I was home.

My second favorite memory is Grimbaldis' speech at my elevation. I still go back to listen to it when I'm feeling low.

For Fun - What SCA skills have you learned that would help you survive a zombie apocalypse? - Cooking for a crowd; how to build a proper fire; and how to construct a garment.

Actually, we are members of the SCA, the Society for Creative Anachronism.

Hey! You guys are part of that fantasy larping group, right?

We recreate and reenact historical periods, not fantasy.

Oh... right, historical stuff. But, you guys do have dragons and magic, right?

Haha, my bad! I guess I mixed up my genres. But this still looks like a lot of fun!

Dragons and magic? That's more in the realm of fantasy novels!

Indeed, it is! We enjoy the camaraderie and the thrill of historical combat.

So, can I join and fight too? I've always wanted to swing a sword!

Absolutely! We welcome newcomers. We'll show you the ropes and help you get started.

BOWIE EILLEN

BO BO, BEAUREGARD, BOCEPHUS, BO DIDDLY, BOBO DEL RAY

PEMBROKE WELSH CORGI

The StormBorn Pets

Bowie owns Viscountess Dame Christine O'Neill of Cork

Age: 1 1/2 years Favorite Food: Blueberries
 How did your pet adopt you? Although we believe in pet adoption as a life style, she was the first on we have purchased through a breeder.
 Favorite toy? Her brother, Coalson the cat...she is not his favorite toy.
 Biggest dislikes? Being left out of anything. She always wants to be right in the middle of everything.
 Trained or living the best life? She is definitely living her best life. Unless she is with her aunties Ryggeby or Dinara, then she is a well behaved little lady.
 What would her speaking voice sound like? She would sound like drill sergeant...she has got a loud demanding bark.
 Her perfect day? Going on a trip with her mommy to spending time with other people and/or animals. Then stopping off at the park for a walk. Ending with a snuggles on the couch. And somewhere in there people food...she love it and can't get enough it.
 Favorite Thing about Bowie? Teagan's response...her short legs. My response her positive energy...she is always so happy and has a ton of energy.
