Submission Guidelines for The Pale

ARTICLES on period topics, history, art, puzzles, SCA life, bardic stories and the like are welcome additions to The Pale. A 500- to 1000-word article will usually fit in one issue; longer articles will be split into multiple parts to appear in successive issues. Submit the file in MS Word .doc format along with an SCA Creative Release form. Send the images used in the article as separate files using the format described below.

You must cite all references, quotations and sources in your article using the Chicago Manual of Style format. Sample citations are located here: www.chicagomanualofstyle.org/tools\_citationguide.html. Citing sources is very important to avoid accusations of plagiarism and legal action for copyright violation.

IMAGES, such as line art, calligraphy, illumination and photographs are also welcome. Scan any artwork at 300 dpi and save it at the highest quality JPG setting. Photos should also be 300 dpi, high quality JPGs. All images will appear in print as black and white, but the online version of The Pale is in color. Images can also be submitted as high quality TIF or PDF files. Any artwork or photography submitted to The Pale must have a signed SCA Creative Release or SCA Photographer Release form from the artist sent in with the work. Any person identifiable in an image must submit a signed SCA Model Release form with the art work. This is a requirement of SCA Inc. for print publication. All release forms are available at www.midrealm.org/chronicler.

EVENT PREVIEWS: A free event preview of 50 words is available to all events. The listing MUST include the name of the event, sponsoring group, site address, date, times and event steward contact information.

EVENT NOTICES (ads) must be published in The Pale for events at which any of the following occur: crown and coronet tournaments, coronations and investitures, appointment of kingdom or principality officers, presentation of awards and titles, proclamation of law, establishment or advancement of branches. These activities cannot take place unless a complete event notice appears in The Pale, the Middle Kingdom newsletter, at least once before the date of the event. The publication requirement may only be waived in extraordinary circumstances, such as a natural disaster.

Events must already be listed on the Middle Kingdom Calendar prior to advertising in The Pale, but an event listing on the Middle Kingdom Calendar does NOT constitute "official publication". Incipient groups must submit a scan of the sponsorship form to the Editor. Event submissions to the Kingdom Calendar should be submitted through the online form available on the calendar page. Any issues contact the Middle Kingdom Calendar Secretary at calendar@midrealm.org. Middle Kingdom events receive free event ads that run in the next issue unless otherwise specified. Out-of-Kingdom events and merchants pay the listed rates.

Ad templates for the quarter and half page ads are available at <http://midrealm.org/chronicler/thepale/>. All ads must be submitted to The Pale via e-mail attachment in DOC, PDF, JPG, or TIF format.

Dear beloved populace of the Middle Kingdom,

Our hearts are filled with gratitude as We address you today. As We stand on the cusp of a new era, We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation for the unwavering support and dedication you have bestowed upon Us throughout Our Reign.

The monumental Pennsic 50 was an incredible journey, one that We embarked upon together with the knowledge that Our great Kingdom stands united, strong, and proud. The success of this grand event is a testament to the remarkable spirit, camaraderie, and chivalry that define Our realm.

We are humbled by the valor displayed on the battlefield, the artistry showcased in Our halls, and the fellowship forged around campfires. Our hearts are filled with admiration for each and every one of you who contributed to the glory of Pennsic 50. Your tireless efforts, unwavering commitment, and boundless enthusiasm have made this entire reign unforgettable. The Middle Kingdom thrives because of your dedication, and together we have achieved greatness.

As We pass the torch to Wigthehn and Neassa, We do so with pride, knowing that Our kingdom is in capable hands. The Middle Kingdom's future is bright, and We look forward to witnessing the continued growth and prosperity of our beloved realm.

Once again, thank you for your love and support. It has been an honor and a privilege to serve as your Royal Majesties. May the spirit of camaraderie and the traditions of the Middle Kingdom continue to shine brightly for generations to come.

Yours in Service and Gratitude,

Letters from the Kingdom Officers

From Their Highnesses

Good Gentles of the Middle Kingdom,

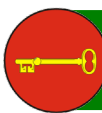

The Pennsic War is over, and now Our great Kingdom's War Populace have returned to their families and homes with the war pay from Their Gracious Majesties, King Louis and Queen Sadb. We hope all who attended had a wonderful time. We wish Our Predecessors well as they settle back into the lands of Roaring Wastes as Baron and Baroness.

Now that the great people of the Kingdom have returned home, We prepare for the crisp air of Autumn and then the frost of Winter. We are excited to be able to serve as your King and Queen during these times and wish to continue the growth of this prosperous Kingdom. In the coming months, We are excited to see new faces and remember long-standing friendships, to hear your stories and enjoy your passions, but also inspire those to join Us on pilgrimages to distant lands to strengthen the bonds of the Society.

Ever Forward,

Wigthegn and Neassa

Seneschal

Welcome to Official Fall,

The weather is still hot, but the leaves are already starting to change. And it is not the only change. I am pleased to announce that we have chosen a successor for the office of Kingdom Seneschal. My replacement will be Duchess Arabella Silvermane. Arabella will serve as my first deputy until early spring when she will take on the mantle of the office full time and I will transition to drop-dead deputy for 3 months. After which time I will retire to the country or something.

Please welcome her to the new role and look forward to a future without me, soon, just not yet.

Helewyse

Seneschal of the Middle Kingdom

Exchequer

Greetings Midrealm,

Group Exchequers: Please check your exchequer emails frequently. The Middle Kingdom Financial Policy is reviewed at least bi-annually. The BoD has approved the latest revision, a copy of which was emailed to you early in September.

If a group hosts a Kingdom event, a share of the profits must be remitted to SCA Inc., Middle Kingdom, P.O. Box 198, Bellbrook, OH 45305 within 30 days of the end of the event, along with a copy of the event report. Refer to the new Financial Policy regarding the percentage share to send. When in doubt, please contact the Regional or myself.

The Middle Kingdom is in need of a couple new Regional Exchequers and a Deputy Kingdom Exchequer to replace me next May. Check out the Middle Kingdom Job Openings.

Please do not hesitate to contact your Regional or me if you have any questions.

Yours in service,

Meisterin Appolonia von Wurttemberg, OP

Minister of Arts & Sciences

Hello!

Can you feel the weather getting cooler? We are entering the season of poudre douce! Harvest and plenty surround us, and the world shows us all its wonderful colors.

I hope you are able to enjoy these wonderful remaining days of delightful weather. Fill them with projects and gatherings before the cold months drive us all into our homes near the fire. This fall we will see a RUM event, in November. I am looking forward to taking some classes and seeing friends there. It will be a great time to plan out winter activities, getting those lined up and ready for when we don't want to deal with the outside temperatures.

Thank you!

Chatelaine

Unto the populace of the Middle Kingdom,

After returning from last month's Tournament of Arts, it made me think about how we are all teachers. I ask everyone to share their knowledge with their friends - by doing this we can better grow as a Kingdom and Society.

Very soon I will be sending out a survey/census. I would like to encourage everyone to fill it out regardless of your station. By doing this we can better learn through hard data what our Kingdom's make-up is and how to best direct our recruitment and retention efforts.

Again, I will remind everyone about the Known World Chatelaine Symposium to be held online 30 December 2023. This will be a great opportunity to take classes covering a host of topics. More details will be forthcoming.

Yours in service,

THL Gregory Bryant

Earl Marshal

Greetings,

After reviewing the feedback on dying defensively and talking with my counterparts in the East and Aethelmearc, I am updating our rule on dying defensively for Armored Combat. See below for the change. This is effective immediately. Let me know if you have any questions or concerns.

Revision:

Dead combatants must immediately cease being an active combatant and indicate that they are "dead" in a manner that is both clear and safe. The best way of dying safely is left to the "dead" combatant and can change depending on the situation but should always include calling out "good".

Examples of dying clearly include:

- Dying defensively (hiding under their shield or weapons)
- Taking a knee
- Giving a salute

Once safe, the "dead" combatant shall leave the field with their weapon over their head. They must leave the field in a way that does not affect the ongoing combat. It is recommended that as they leave the field they call out "dead". Dead combatants may neither hand weapons nor shout advice to the living.

Be safe out there,

Cellach

The War Bards of the Midrealm

by Rav Ezra

At the Crown Tournament of Their Majesties Louis and Sadb, in the dawning summer of A.S. 58, I was asked to become Their Majesties' War-Bard; Commander of the Bard Guard; Bardic Champion of the Midrealm. Since then, a lot of people asked what the heck all that means. I have penned this brief article to address that question, and speak on my experience in service to the Crown.

As War-Bard, I served as a bardic champion with a specific job: to promote the knowledge and use of three specific Midrealm Anthems chosen by Their Majesties for our Kingdom's time in the 50th Pennsic War. The goal was to teach the entire Kingdom these songs, and lead the Dragon Army in song as we marched to glory on the fields of Pennsic.

To that end, the Bard Guard was also established to further the Anthems; to promote the bardic arts; to perform for Their Majesties; and to represent our Kingdom's traditions of song, verse, and story. Our ranks are noble and honorable: Hilla Stormbringer; Tommaso Francheschi; Sir Sivrid Brumbach; Dorothea de Beckham; Dai Gerdwr; Líadan Liathán; Annalena Cecilia Massari; Brigitta Rosa von Metten. To have called these people my comrades has been one of the great treasures of my SCA career.

As War-Bard, I accompanied Their Majesties each morning of War Week at Pennsic, escorting Them to the sound of a Midrealm Anthem from the Middle Kingdom Royal Encampment to the Midrealm Royal Pavilion at the battlefield. I was accompanied by my fellow Bard Guard for these excursions, and each morning we brought our craft to the sidelines of the battle for the delight of any who would hear us.

But this was not the only service I have given in my position. I also took the opportunity to promote the sharing of stories by combatants and others; to compose chronicles of valor and honor; to work towards the elevation of our game into the sublime, and to capture moments where that happened without anybody even trying.

Everywhere I traveled, I heard the same thing from the bards of the Kingdom: this is amazing, I'm so glad they're doing this, I'm so glad to contribute; and I heard the same thing from the populace of the Kingdom: this is amazing, I'm so glad they're doing this, I'm so glad I get to see this.

By this metric, and by the approval of Their Majesties, I reckon I have executed my duty as faithfully as I can. But I do not delude myself into thinking that this work is ended, just because this reign, and thus my term, are ending: on the contrary, I hold that the work is just beginning. The Middle Kingdom is the third oldest Kingdom of the SCA, with some of the Society's most famed warriors and scholars. It deserves to have its history, and the deeds of its people, immortalized in song and story, as in days of old.

Thus, Midrealm, be assured: the Dragon will sing on.

I close with an excerpt from one of the very Anthems I have spent the past reign sharing, appropriate as it is:

*O ye people of the Midrealm,
Hear my puny voice!
The symbol of your kingdom
Offers you a potent choice:
Stand aloof and watch afar
Playing with your toys,
Or help to blow the trumpet
of the Dragon's mighty voice!*
