Applications Open – Laurel Sovereign of Arms

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) is seeking candidates for the position of Laurel Principal Sovereign of Arms (Laurel).

Laurel is the principal heraldic officer of the Society and the head of the College of Arms, and is responsible for fostering the study and practice of heraldry, supervising the processing of submissions, and overseeing the heraldic activities of the Known World.

Laurel is an unpaid position, currently requiring approximately 20 hours a week. The position requires considerable tact and patience, armory and onomastic knowledge, supervisory ability, the ability to work within tight deadlines and coordinate closely with Wreath, Pelican, and other staff to produce a Laurel Letter of Acceptance and Return monthly, computer literacy and word processing skills, reliable e-mail and telephone access, and time and ability to travel.

Interested applicants should send a letter of interest, together with modern and SCA qualifications, hardcopy to:

Laurel Sovereign
c/o Louise Du Cray
P.O. Box 611928
San Jose, CA 95161

with courtesy copies to both resumes@sca.org and bids@heraldry.sca.org Applications are being accepted through November 30, 2023.

People on the Move – Director Elect Seat B

The Board of Directors is pleased to announce the selection of Megan O'Shea (THL Sumayya al Ghaziyya) as the Director-Elect for Seat B. She will assume the position from Director Ross Roegner at the close of the October 2023 quarterly meeting.

Megan O'Shea is a psychologist who works primarily with rural clients. Completing her doctorate in 2019 she has completed research on the negative impact of stereotypes on military populations. She's lived in various places along the East Coast (with a side quest in Ohio for her internship) before finding a great home with happy bats in the NW panhandle of West Virginia.

When she's not at an SCA event, she can be found spending time with her husband Marcus and their dogs, doing random art – or buying Halloween decorations.

Sumayya al Ghaziyya is an Ottoman from 16th century Istanbul. Living on the coast she often spent time with Corsairs when they came to trade, though she also spends significant time helping family and friends. She has found joy in creating obscure arts and learning different techniques that people use to make themselves more aesthetically pleasing. Her motto is "for the joy of it is sacred" and she has taken this to heart in all of the activities she participates in.

As new Directors are seated each April and October, candidates for the Board are continually being solicited. SCA Inc or affiliate individuals may be nominated by SCA members and participants or can be self-nominated. No special experience is required, and candidates do not need to have specialized modern degrees. They also need not be peers – experience from every aspect of the Society is desired.

To make a nomination, (or to nominate yourself), please forward a Modern Name, SCA Name, and email address to recruiting@sca.org

The War of the Phoenix Land Department needs your help!

Do you want to camp with your friends at War? Then pre-register for War of the Phoenix and let us know which group you want to camp with! Land allocation for groups will close on December 31st to allow for planning of war layout.

Remember, all camping adult attendees will receive a base allotment of 250 square feet of land for their camps, but if you pre-register for war before October 31st, you'll get an additional 100 square feet for your camp!

Are you planning to attend War of the Phoenix, but glamping the War in your RV seems like a better alternative to a tent? If you pre-register by December 31st you will get an RV spot and allow you to donate your 250 sq ft of land to a group of your choice!
