Their Royal Highnesses

Unto the great people of Northshield do We, Hans and Genevieve, send greetings.

We have come up with the rules and requirements for this upcoming Spring Crown Tournament. The tournament will be to bring your best weapon, double elimination with bouts being best 2 out of 3 fights. The finals will reset with that also being best 2 out of 3. Double kills throughout the tournament will be refought.

Weapon requirements for Crown will be thus. No "butt spike" on single-handed swords. You can keep them on your single-handed sword but any strikes with them will not count. No weapon shall exceed 6 feet in length, no throwing weapons, no combat archery, and no daggers.

Letters of Intent are due on Saturday, April 13, 2024, by 11:59pm. They shall be emailed to TRH@northshield.org and seneschal@northshield.org. This letter should provide evidence of fulfillment of any requirements for entrance by the prospective combatant and consort and outline their involvement in diverse areas of the SCA.

Per Kingdom Law III-900:

All prospective combatants and their consorts must meet the minimum criteria in the Governing Documents, as well as the following requirements:

1. Each must have been a subject of Northshield for one year immediately before the Crown Tournament.
2. Each must be a member of the Society for Creative Anachronism and have access to the Northwatch.
3. All prospective combatants and their consorts must be acceptable to the Presiding Royalty.

4. No one under 18 years old may fight or be fought for in a Crown Tournament.

5. No member of the Royalty may either fight or be fought for in a Crown Tournament.

6. One member of the couple must also affirm that they can and will maintain the ability to legally cross the U.S./Canadian international border for the duration of their reign, should they be victorious, to ensure that they are free to travel to all parts of the Kingdom. This means that any who fight in Crown must have one member of the pair that can cross the international border legally. This includes but is not limited to them being vaccinated per the mundane laws in place and not having a felony, OWI, DWI, etc.

7. All prospective combatants must hold a valid Northshield Armored Combat authorization card. If the combatant does not hold all authorizations that will be used in the tournament, the Crown has the sole discretion as to how and whether they will allow that combatant to participate.

By choosing to fight in Crown they have agreed to these terms and attested that they do indeed meet all the requirements and that at least one of them can legally cross the border to the best of their knowledge and belief.

Respectfully,

Hans & Genevieve

Chancellor of the Exchequer

Greetings, Exchequers!

I hope that the New Year finds you all well, and warm and safe in your homes.

Now is the time for 2023 final reporting. If you have any questions about your reports, please contact your Regional Exchequer. I am also available to help out with reporting issues. Please get drafts to your Regional by January 20, or let them know you will be late if you can't quite make the 1/20 deadline.

In Society-level news, we recently received word that kingdoms can now start using SCORES, the SCA's event pre-registration system. I have seen a preliminary demo and it looks useful, especially for larger or multi-day events with camping fees.

More to come on SCORES, with training and other information to be issued in the near future.

In service,

Æsa

Greetings unto the populace of Northshield from the Minister of Regalia,

Continuing our celebration of Northshield's 20th anniversary as a Kingdom, I would like to share some more of our 'not often seen' regalia. This item is one of a pair of coronets gifted to the Kingdom by Their Graces Finn and Garlanda during our time as a Princiality.

We believe that it was crafted by one of Finn's dependents. If there are others in the Kingdom that know more of the history of these coronets, please let me know so that I can document them further.

I hope you all enjoy looking into the history of our Kingdom's regalia and I look forward to sharing more with you in upcoming articles.

In Service,

Geoffrey of Warwick

Kingdom Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings!

As we welcome the new year, what new arts, sciences, and research projects are you working on? Kingdom A&S is far ahead on the horizon, but perhaps you can make a New Year's resolution to share, teach, or show off one new skill learned, a new rabbit-hole found, or whatever you decided to work on to while away the darkest months of the year. I look forward to hearing what everyone is up to, and remember – competition is only one way to participate in Kingdom A&S. If you prefer to display the fruits of your labors in a non-competitive way, that is great! Every cool thing on a table is one more chance for your fellow Northshields to get excited about whatever excites you!

Farolfus

Happy Gregorian New Year unto the populace of Northshield,

As part of our continuing countdown to Northshield's 20th kingdom anniversary, I want to thank Master Geoffrey, Regalia Minister, for starting a series of articles on Northshield regalia, and thank you to Master Caradoc on his history of the Region and Crown Principality of Northshield. I encourage people to submit articles, photos, artwork, songs, and poems commemorating not only our twenty years as a kingdom, but also eight years as a territorial principality, almost three years as a crown principality, and decade and a half as a region.

We have many open positions in the Chronicler's office. Please check out the Help Wanted section later in the Northwatch.

Lastly, my term as Kingdom Chronicler expires in six months, on June 1, 2024. I would like to receive letters of intent by March 1, 2024, to provide time for Stallari to review the applicants and provide training to my successor. If anyone has any interest in serving in this office, or any of the many deputy positions, please let me know. I am always glad to talk about what is involved in the Office.

Ever in service to Crown, Kingdom, and you,

Arnbjørn

Cén scéal? What's the news?

Staying warm? Our upcoming newsletter themes are as follows, but please submit art and articles on any topic for the edification of the kingdom.

- December 20 – Early Attempts – Share some of your first garb, A&S, fighting kit, or other projects from starting out in the SCA. What are some things you did/would do differently? What parts are you still proud of?
- January 20 – Showing Pride – Celebrate LGBTQIA+ Pride with stories and photos.
- February 20 – Fun Facts – Share a fun historical fact! It can be a fact about medieval/early life, OR a fact that medieval people would know that... may not be entirely accurate to our understanding of the world.

- March 20 – Toys and Games – Taft? Dolls? Northshield has the tradition of the Children's Toy Run and a rich board-game culture. What toys, games, and other period amusements would you like to highlight?

Please send all questions or submissions to northwatch@northshield.org.

SCA CORPORATE ANNOUNCEMENTS

DEPUTY SOCIETY MARSHALS FOR THROWN WEAPONS AND TARGET ARCHERY APPOINTED

Maestra Arabella da Siena, Marshal of the Society, is pleased and proud to advise the appointment of Deputy Society Marshals for Thrown Weapons and Target Archery.

Adam Burnham (he/him/his) is a Business Operations Analyst for a bank. He works on gathering and writing specifications, preparing data for testing, processing data and analyzing it for results. This includes gathering input, filtering that input down to the core items needed, then writing specifications and instructional documentation. Adam also enjoys Lego (Star Wars in particular), kayaking, fishing, and woodworking so if he's not on the range he is probably busy with one of those other interests.

Master Viði Hovdestad, OP, is a Norse, thirteenth century gentle, based on the family farmstead (that he hopes to visit in person one day) from the Kingdom of Northshield, Barony of Nordskogen. He started in the SCA almost 20 years ago by wandering out to the archery range at his first event and has been going back ever since. He shoots modern recurve, Asiatic recurve, longbow, and crossbow within the SCA. Master Viði also participates in leagues and competitions in the state of MN and in USA Archery in the Barebow category and enjoys helping people get started in archery and finding ways for people to participate. Whether they need period gear, modern gear, or specialty gear there is a place on the range and he will help find ways to make that happen. He has served as Baronial Captain, Regional Deputy and Kingdom Archer General.

Jon Libby (he/him/his) is the Assistant Director of Student Services for a school district outside of Boston, MA. Among other responsibilities, he oversees Special Education and Section 504. He has deep professional knowledge of disability and applicable laws. Jon regularly advises school faculty to "go where the data take us" when making decisions about how to support students and families. He is passionate about inclusion and building success for all students, including students who are neurodiverse, gender diverse, multilingual, and of all racial and ethnic backgrounds. Jon served as a Trustee for his local synagogue board, the chair of the synagogue bylaws committee, and a member of the synagogue education committee.

Pandaulf is from England in the early thirteenth century. He is a gentle who works to serve the populace of the realm. In the SCA, Pandaulf hails from the East Kingdom. He became a Thrown Weapons Marshal at Pennsic XXVII and has worked for over 25 years to grow the Thrown Weapons program and make it inclusive to youth and throwers with physical challenges and neurodiversity. Along the way, he has collaborated with the thrown weapons community from many kingdoms. Pandaulf served as the East Kingdom's Northern and Central Regional Deputy as well as a Marshal at Large. He was the Deputy Marshal in Charge of Thrown Weapons at Pennsic XLVIII. During the pandemic shutdowns, Pandaulf led a workgroup of throwers and thrown weapons marshals from five Kingdoms on how to make accommodations so that thrown weapons is an activity accessible to all.

DEAR ABBESS:

His Majesty King Henry III recently saw fit to grant me a baronage and lands in across the sea in Ireland, and I must confess I am lately puzzled by some strange reports of things occurring at night – fearsome, ghastly women washing bloody clothes in a nearby lake, disheveled maidens howling in fields, and other similar unpleasant goings-on. I myself have not seen or heard such things, having lived all my life in England prior to this. What is the meaning of this mischief, and how might I put an end to it so that the locals will return to work and cease their frightened babbling?

—LIVID IN LIMERICK

DEAR LIVID,

You seem to have a plague of banshees in your holdings – Irish legend states that these female spirits foretell death, although I certainly cannot speculate as to whose doom your current infestation portends. Of note, however, is that tradition generally holds that the spirits only warn of the deaths of the Irish, not the invaders of Ireland and their descendants. This may explain why you have not seen them yourself, and it may in fact mean that you will be spared. However, this is not a guarantee, as there is at least one instance where an English army encountered a terrifying old woman laundering bloody robes in the River Fergus – the next day the English were all slain. You might consider whether the life of an absentee landlord is safer; if you can avoid angering the King, a return to England is probably your best bet. Good luck.
