VOL. 20 NO.6 MARCH 2024 AS LVIII

THE NEWSLETTER OF THE KINGDOM OF NORTHSHIELD

DUCCERE

MINISTRARE

ILLUMINARE

At the first rapier championship of the Principality of Northshield, HSH Gwyneth Felton presented the victor (Isaac de Hugo) with one of the sleeves from the gown she was wearing at the time. At the next tournament, Isaac passed along this favor to the new champion, Adrien de Troyes, thus beginning the tradition of the Princess' Sleeve as a "hereditary" favor. The idea of a Princess' Sleeve tournament (independent of The rapier champion tournament) was presented during the third reign of the Principality Northshield. "I proposed this new tradition during TSH's Therica & Sigfried's reign because many rapier fighters felt that the selection process of a champion was too selective and that we should have an honor conferred by prowess alone - Julio."

Counting the initial two champions as joint sleeveholders/champions, the rapier community has provided a Princess' Sleeveholder to each and every princess Northshield has been graced with (as both a principality and now as a Kingdom) (note, Countess Bridei, aka Queen Mum, was never The Princess of Northshield and did not host a Princess' Sleeve tournament).

Their Royal Highnesses

Greeting, great populace of Northshield! I hope everyone had fun and drove safely to our various winter events. Sadly, with it being March, it is still winter in Northshield.

The Princess is excited to be heading into Gulf Wars and hanging out with Our wonderful populace. Regretfully the Prince can't make it to this war but will be at Pennsic. I wish all of our artisans, archers, throwers, fighters, helpers, and everyone else to travel safely, stay warm/cool and hydrated (it can be either one with Gulf Wars), and to have lots of fun.

Coronation is coming up and with that so are Letters of Intent for Spring Crown. Remember, they are due on Saturday, April 13, 2024, by 11:59 pm. The sooner I can get them, the better.

We hope you all continue to enjoy events, be safe, and be helpful to one another.

Respectfully,

Hans & Genevieve

Greetings Exchequers!

This office remains quiet – no new policies or instructions from Society, and all of you should be well past closing out 2023 reporting.

I am still seeking a successor, as my term ends July 1. While there is a significant time commitment to the job, almost all duties can be done at home on one's own schedule. A large amount of travel is not required, though in-person meetings with group exchequers could be beneficial. Technically speaking, the job is less complicated than a medium-sized group's reporting, as Kingdom exchequers can use Quickbooks and run reports directly from there. Society is easy to work with and has always been very willing to answer questions and provide guidance. If you have any interest at all, please contact me and we can discuss in more detail.

In service,

Æsa

Greetings unto the populace of Northshield from the Minister of Regalia,

Continuing our celebration of Northshield's 20th anniversary as a Kingdom I would like to share some more of our regalia. This item is called the "Princess' Sleeve." Here is the text in the actual sleeve case explaining the history of the item:

At the first rapier championship of the Principality of Northshield, HSH Gwyneth Felton presented the victor (Isaac de Hugo) with one of the sleeves from the gown she was wearing at the time. At the next tournament, Isaac passed along this favor to the new champion, Adrien de Troyes, thus beginning the tradition of the Princess' Sleeve as a "hereditary" favor. The idea of a Princess' Sleeve tournament (independent of the rapier champion tournament) was presented during the third reign of the Principality Northshield. "I proposed this new tradition during TSH's Therica & Sigfried's reign because many rapier fighters felt that the selection process of a champion was too selective and that we should have an honor conferred by prowess alone - Julio."

have an honor conferred by prowess alone – Julio."

Counting the initial two champions as joint sleeveholders/champions, the rapier community has provided a Princess' Sleeveholder to each and every Princess Northshield has been graced with (as both a principality and now as a kingdom) {note, Countess Bridei, aka Queen Mum, was never the Princess of Northshield and did not host a Princess' Sleeve tournament}. More info on the Kingdom website.

I hope you all enjoy looking into the history of our Kingdom's regalia and I look forward to sharing more with you in upcoming articles.

Kingdom Polaris Herald

Greetings, Heralds of Northshield!

As the saying goes, "many hands make light work." It takes over 100 volunteers to fill our various kingdom offices, from Stallari to group officers and all. Our community of heralds is no exception; we need volunteers! Northshield is divided into three regions, and Polaris is supposed to have a Regional Deputy in each. All three of those positions are open.

- Duco Herald (Eastern Regional Deputy)(WI & the UP)
- Ministraro Herald (Central Regional Deputy)(MN & ON)
- Illumino Herald (Western Regional Deputy)(ND, SD, & MB)

Regional heralds collate reports from branch and at-large heralds in their assigned region, and complete quarterly summary reports of regional activities. They are expected to maintain contact with senechals of groups in their assigned area without a branch herald to make sure any needs are being met, and to serve as first-line resources for branch and at-large heralds in their assigned area. They are expected to assist with tournaments and courts at events held in their assigned area as needed or on request. They are expected to provide commentary in OSCAR, and will be trained in its use if needed (don't worry, it's not hard at all). You must have a paid SCA membership to be an officer. Time commitment:

about 1-2 hours per week. The term of office is generally two years.

For more information, please feel free to contact me. Please send letters of intent to me at herald@northshield.org. These positions will be open until filled.

In addition, my friends, I will be stepping down in December, so I am calling for letters for my replacement as well. Polaris Herald is the administrative head of the Northshield College of Heraldry, and is warranted jointly by the Crown of Northshield and the Society Herald as a Great Officer of State. Polaris is responsible for overseeing all heraldic and scribal activities within the Kingdom, and for reporting quarterly to Laurel Sovereign and Their Royal Majesties regarding those activities in the kingdom. They are a member of the Stallari council as a Great Officer, and are expected to attend Stallari meetings and to advise Northshield Royalty. You must have a paid SCA membership to be an officer. Time commitment: 2-3 hours per week. The term of office is generally two years.

For more information, please feel free to contact me. Please send letters of intent to myself and Their Royal Majesties at herald@northshield.org and TRM@northshield.org.

Deadline for applications is March 14, 2024.

Please continue to keep tabs on the Event Roster sign-up sheet for courts that need heralds! (Northshield webpage, Polaris Herald, Resource Links, Northshield Herald Event Roster)

You can also contact the event stewards of upcoming events and offer to herald, or contact your group or regional herald, or contact me. There are always opportunities for shouting.

I look forward to hearing you!

Ysolt

Greetings!

As you may have noticed, back in early January we made some changes to the Kingdom website which disrupted email and the site itself for a relatively short period of time. The end result is that we avoided a longer outage window, that we enabled some additional functionality, and we have paved the way for even more improvements to come. So, my apologies for the disruption, and look forward to better things in the future.

Speaking of changes in the future, have I mentioned lately that we have a new website coming? I know, I know, I've said that before. But this time for realies. And if anybody wants to help develop it (the base will be WordPress, so PHP and MySQL is helpful, but a good UX designer wouldn't go awry, and I expect that the Chronicler letter in this issue will have more details), please let us know.

And finally, we have been asked by the Society Webminister to make some changes to how Northshield manages websites in our Kingdom. Specifically, the requirement we've had in place that someone other than a group's webminister also have admin permissions to the group's website will be expanded, and the office of the Kingdom Webminister will also need to have that level of access. I will be in touch with all of the group webministers to get that information.

But wait, there's a carrot with this stick! In addition, any group which needs a location for a website will be given space on the hosting provider which hosts the Kingdom website. At this time we can only provide .Net / MSSQL hosting, but soon – with the advent of the new website – we will be able to host WordPress installations as well. Since those will be in the same space as the Kingdom website, we will also be able to provide a data feed from the Kingdom database into the group's site. You won't need to manage your own OP, your own populace list, your own officer list... it will open whole new vistas for webministers in Northshield.

So. Stay tuned for more!

In Service,

Abelard

Greetings!

It is my pleasure to announce that Hlíf Mjoksiglandi Askasmiðr will be our new SUN Chancellor. I look forward to working with them to coordinate the Stellar University of Northshield events for 2024 and 2025. As we consider additional ways to bring you quality A&S class content, I also encourage folks to think about whether they have skills or information that can be taught virtually – we hope to build on the experiment of the online component for SUN 2023, and if there is sufficient interest, perhaps offer more than one virtual university session per year. This depends on you, however. If you want to teach, moderate/host, or attend more online classes, please don't hesitate reach out to us at moas@northshield.org or sun@northshield.org.

Farolfus

Greetings unto the populace of Northshield,

While I write this missive, Northshield is tight in Winter's icy grip. March brings the promise of Spring, and Gulf Wars. Be sure to share your stories and memories from War.

Many changes are in the air. The seasons are changing, a new reign begins next month, and my term as Kingdom Chronicler is nearing its end this summer. I would like to receive letters of intent by March 1, 2024, to provide time for Stallari to review the applicants, and provide training to my successor. The office is a required office for a kingdom. It is a largely administrative position, overseeing the specialized deputies who do much of the day-to-day work of their areas. The Kingdom Chronicler is also a voting member of the Stallari Council and Finance Committee. If anyone has any interest in serving in this office, or any of the many deputy positions, please let me know, I am always glad to talk about is involved with the offices.

The Chronicler's office has a great many offices open. I would like to fill these positions by the time my successor steps up.

Chronicler deputy positions that are open:

- Emergency Deputy Chronicler
- Deputy Northwatch Editor
- Media Relations Officer
- Kingdom Historian/Archivist
- File Clerk

Social Media Officer deputy positions that are open:

- Social Media Deputy
- Western Regional SMO
- Central Regional SMO

Arnbjørn

Northwatch Editor

Cén scéal? What's the news?

Hey folks, it's a lot of work trying to fill the whole newsletter. I would greatly appreciate any submissions on any topic that interests you. Our upcoming newsletter themes are as follows, but please submit art and articles about anything at all for the edification of the kingdom.

- February 20 – Fun Facts – Share a fun historical fact! It can be a fact about medieval/early life, OR a fact that medieval people would know that... may not be entirely accurate to our understanding of the world.
- March 20 – Toys and Games – Taff? Dolls? Northshield has the tradition of the Children's Toy Run and a rich board-game culture. What toys, games, and other period amusements would you like to highlight?

- April 20 – Early Attempts – Share some of your first garb, A&S, fighting kit, or other projects from starting out in the SCA. What are some things you did/would do differently? What parts are you still proud of?

Please send all questions or submissions to northwatch@northshield.org.

No missive this month:

Armond

Youth Armored Combat Marshal

Greetings!

Many of you know that I wear many hats in the Kingdom, and it's time for me to put one of them back in the ring. I've held this one for almost six years, and that's long enough for one office.

I am seeking my replacement as Kingdom Youth Armored Combat Marshal for the Kingdom of Northshield. This position is a deputy of the Kingdom Armored Combat Marshal, who in turn is a deputy of the Kingdom Earl Marshal, and also reports to the Society Youth Combat Marshal. The job entails fostering and supporting Youth Armored Combat (also known colloquially as Boffer Combat) across the Kingdom, providing resources to youth Combat programs, managing paperwork including tracking background checks, and recruiting and training Youth Marshals. Interested parties will need to also secure a background check through the SCA process.

Please send applications and inquiries to me at Marshal-youth@northshield.org and cc KEM@northshield.org.

In continued service,

Abelard

SCA CORPORATE ANNOUNCEMENTS

JANUARY BOARD MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT: OMNIBUS PEERAGE

Currently approximately 8000 people around the Knowne World actively participate in target archery, combat archery, siege weapons, thrown weapons and equestrian martial activities. While no ultimate decision has yet been made the Board believes that a proposal of a path to peerage for these individuals is worthy of deep consideration.

Having received advice from the Peerage Committee, Directors have discussed the matter and following some minor amendments to language which align the proposed draft of Corpora wording to the existing patent orders, the Board feels that the proposal has matured to the point where commentary on the proposed Corpora wording from members is requested. This commentary will assist the Board in forming further decisions relevant to its consideration of this matter.

The draft Corpora language approved for commentary is:

VIII.A.4:

e. The Order of <Name>

(i) Members of the Order of <Name> may choose to swear fealty but are not required to do so. The candidate must have attained the standard of excellence in skill and/or knowledge equal to that of their prospective peers in a pre-17th century martial pursuit as practiced in the SCA, including, and limited to, target archery, combat archery, thrown weapons, equestrian activities, and siege engineers. The candidate must have applied this skill and/or knowledge for the instruction of members and service to the kingdom to an extent above and beyond that normally expected of members of the Society.

(ii) The duties of the members of the order are as follows:

(a) To set an example of courtesy and chivalrous conduct on and off the field of honor.

(b) To respect the Crown of the kingdom; to support and uphold the laws of the kingdom and Corpora.

(c) If in fealty, to support and uphold the Crown of their kingdom.

(d) To enrich the kingdom by sharing their knowledge and skills.

(e) To enhance the renown and defend the honor of the peer's Lady or Lord.

(f) To advise the Crown on the advancement of candidates for the Order of <Name>.

(other sections re-numbered as needed)

Knowing exactly what the people who work, study, and play in the Society want a potential new peerage to achieve and do will be key to moving forward in this discussion. The Board welcomes any additional context that people feel may be of use to the discussion.

We are looking for your feedback – as you begin to type up your comments please feel free to include your thoughts on the following questions:

- Does this language fill the gap I personally feel exists in the paths to peerage, why or why not?
- What is my ideal vision of a new peerage and its members? What virtue will they embody?

EDIT: If you are a financial member of the SCA, please include the relevant information.

The expertise of our community is invaluable, and these responses will contribute significantly to an outcome that positions our Society to meet its goals and future opportunities.

Corpora, including the By-Laws, can be found in its entirety here: <https://www.sca.org/resources/document-library/govdocs/>.

Please email all commentary to SCA-Comments@sca.org and use the title “Omnibus Peerage Proposal” in the subject line.

NOTE: Do not use attachments in your commentary. Attachments will mark your message as spam and it will be rejected by the server.

You can also send commentary by mail, Postage-Prepaid, to:

Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc.

Commentary regarding this proposed Corpora change, must be received by the Board no later than April 2, 2024.

POLICY CLARIFICATION: KINGDOM EARL MARSHALS AND AUTHORIZATIONS (JAN 22, 2024)

The following is a joint statement from the Society Seneschal (Lis Schraer) and the Society Marshal (Melissa Midzor).

This is a clarification of Society Seneschal's Corpora interpretation regarding the “Authority of a Kingdom Earl Marshal (KEM) to issue or confirm martial authorizations” (July 24, 2022). The long version of this clarification (including Corpora and Marshal Handbook references) can be found at: <http://www.sca.org/resources/document-library/#marshal>

Clarification: If there is a question on the validity of the proof of an authorization, the KEM is responsible for and is the arbiter for confirming that yes, a person did authorize properly (and thus were properly issued their authorization) or no, they did not authorize properly. If a proper authorization was completed and verified, the KEM can also issue the proof of authorization (for all martial forms). This provides a quick remedy for participants in the case of a lost card, or when paperwork filing or online system updates were delayed. “Issue” in this context refers to the proof of authorization provided to the participant upon an authorization being completed, registered and tracked by the kingdom (Corpora IX.A.6).

This does not mean a KEM can singularly authorize an individual unless they are a warranted and designated authorizing marshal of that form and follow established processes. Paperwork should be processed in a timely manner. Undue delays in the registration and tracking of properly submitted paperwork must be reported to the Kingdom Marshal immediately. Further disagreements on the issuance of authorizations are referred to the Society Marshal for resolution.

Additional information on authorizations:

a) A marshal, including KEMs, cannot authorize a participant unless that marshal is an authorized marshal of that martial form, and designated as able to authorize individuals. Warranting and authorizations must follow Society and Kingdom processes. (Corpora IX.A.2, and IX.A.3)

b) All authorized and warranted marshals, including KEMs, PEMs, Society, and their Deputies, must meet Society requirements before they can be authorized and warranted in that martial form. They are not, and cannot be, automatically authorized and warranted in any martial form solely because they hold an office or an award. Society requirements include demonstrating the ability to oversee that martial activity, judge an authorization, and inspect weapons and armor, and be knowledgeable about the safety and rules of that martial activity. (see specific Marshal requirements in the Handbooks.)

Questions or comments on this clarification can be sent to Dr. Melissa Midzor (Maestra Arabella da Siena), marshal@sca.org

IMPLEMENTATION OF THE APRIL 1, 2024, INCREASED EVENT MEMBERSHIP RATE (NON-MEMBER SURCHARGE)

The Society for Creative Anachronism (SCA) Inc. wishes to inform its participants about a change in the cost of event memberships, referred to in some places the non-member surcharge and how it will be implemented.

Effective April 1, 2024:

The non-member surcharge for event memberships will be increased from $5 to $10 from 1 April 2024. This adjustment is necessary to support the continued growth and sustainability of our events and organisation.

Action Required: Update Event Advertising

To ensure transparency and accurate information for our community, we request all event stewards and organizers for events occurring after March 31, 2024, to update their advertising materials promptly. Please reflect the new event membership rate (non-member surcharge) of $10 in all promotional content and event announcements.

Event Income Classification:

Prior to February 3, 2024:

All fees received before January 30, 2024, for events occurring after March 31, 2024, will be accepted at the previous event membership rate of $5.

Event membership rate fees received this period will be classified as “Prior to February 3, 2024” for financial reporting purposes.

Post February 3, 2024:

Fees collected on or after February 3, 2024, for events occurring after March 31, 2024, will be subject to the revised event membership rate of $10.

Acknowledgment:

We understand that adjustments to fees impact our community, and we appreciate your understanding and continued support as we work together to enhance the SCA experience. There simply is no good time to implement an increase of this nature due to the ongoing nature of our events.

Experiencing financial stress? The Signorotti Membership Assistance Fund is available to support those participants who may find it difficult to purchase or continue their memberships. More information on accessing or donating to this fund is available here: <https://www.sca.org/membership-assistance-fund/>

DEAR ABBESS:

I want some advice about how to deal with my parents. I just want to go out and do normal teenager things and all they do is say no. My dad is even spending his weekends leading the neighbourhood watch, just to keep an eye on me, I'm sure. I'm a normal 17-year-old French girl, and I just want to live my life, you know? I'm not gonna go out behind the chantry and muck about with some handsome peasant's son, not with the English out there attacking our villages and stealing our cattle. What I would really like to do is to take this really awesome banner I have and go with my friends Michael, Margaret, and Catherine, on a road trip, somewhere fun, you know? Maybe Chinon, and go see Charles. I hear he could use some cheering up. And Michael, Margaret, and Catherine absolutely insist that I can help. But my parents won't listen. I mean some days they act like my friends don't even exist. My parents are just like, "It's the 100 Years War out there! It's too dangerous for a road trip! You have to stay here in Domrémy!" Blah, blah blah. How can I convince my parents that I'm seventeen years old, and I can take care of myself?

—A MAIDEN WHO IS READY FOR THE ROAD

DEAR MAIDEN,

While I can certainly appreciate that your desire to see the world has recently been kindled, your parents' wisdom is worth heeding. You are at an age where idealism is easily inflamed and resentment can smolder, but do remember that 15th-century France is a tinderbox. The English threat is indeed a real one, and the scorching contempt of clergymen (particularly those with English sympathies) should also not be overlooked, lest you stoke their ire. Your friends Michael, Margaret, and Catherine may have set your heart ablaze with tales of the wider world or promises of a grand destiny, but I am afraid I must urge caution and patience, lest your dreams go up in smoke.

—ABBESS

DO YOU HAVE MEDIEVAL PROBLEMS? ASK DEAR ABBESS BY WRITING TO NORTHWATCH@NORTHSHIELD.ORG, PUTTING "DEAR ABBESS" IN THE SUBJECT.
