THE SCA PROHIBITS HARASSMENT AND BULYING OF ALL INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS.

The SCA prohibits bullying and harassment of all individuals and groups. Bullying is systematic and unwelcome behavior which involves the use of influence, threat, intimidation, or coercion to cause hurt or harm to another person or group of people. When the bullying behavior is based on a protected class (1), that behavior is defined as harassment.

(1) race, sex, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability.

Bullying and Harassment may be overt, as in the following non-inclusive list of examples:

- Verbal abuse, including using racial, homophobic, transphobic, ableist epithets, etc.
- Non-consensual physical contact, violence, or threatening gestures.
- Displaying material that is offensive, degrading, or threatening to a protected class.
- Consistent demeaning remarks or malicious teasing - Stalking or predatory behavior

Covert:

- Spreading rumors or innuendo with malicious intent
- Deliberate exclusion, isolation, or alienation of an individual without just cause
- Using rank, title, or office to intimidate others

Provided that the behavior does not rise to the criteria listed above, bullying and harassment is not:

- Single episodes of social rejection, dislike, tactlessness, or forgetfulness.
- Mutual arguments, disagreements, or fights.
- The termination, mutual or not, of a romantic relationship or friendship.
- Reasonable constructive feedback or critique.

The test for bullying is the reasonableness of the behavior and the impact of that behavior on the recipient. Participants engaging in bullying/harassment are subject to appropriate sanctions. If an individual believes they have been subjected to or have witnessed harassment, bullying, or retaliation, that person should contact a senechal, the President of the SCA, or that kingdom's Board Ombudsman.

From Their Majesties

Murdoch Bayne and Ríoghnach ní Rose

Greetings unto the populace of the fair realm of Æthelmearc from Murdoch and Ríoghnach, King and Queen of these Sylvan Lands.

In these early days of Our reign, We look forward to traveling the length and breadth of these lands to witness the accomplishments, skills, and acts of kindness and honor We have come to expect from this Kingdom. We truly feel humbled to be part of such an exceptional land.

The calendar over the next few months is filled with events and opportunities for the people of Æthelmearc to show their quality...the highest kind. Chances to fence and fight, to shoot at targets or helmets, chances to throw...be it axes, knives, or siege ammunition.

The time and place for the Arts and Sciences are simply always and everywhere! Research, creation, crafting, teaching, learning, it simply does not end. One rabbit hole of knowledge leads to a warren of possibilities.

To Our mind however, among all these activities and devotions, lies Service. Without Service, none of the above can take place. Without those who dedicate portions of their time to making Our Society run, the Dream stops. We are proud to live in a Kingdom that holds Service in such high regard and would see it continue and even increase.

We would ask, as a focus of Our time on the Throne, that Æthelmearc continues to be an example of what it means to serve our Society. Helping in your local group's events, taking on an office, learning a new skill to take on new roles, and volunteering when the opportunities arise. The Known World is coming to Our backyard this summer. We would ask every one of our citizens to do what time, ability, and opportunity allows to show what it means to be from Æthelmearc by spending some time helping where we can.

We look forward to all the chances We have to serve you and the Kingdom we all love so dearly and eagerly await the chance to recognize your accomplishments and share in the honor, glory, and renown that comes along with the Escarbuncle.

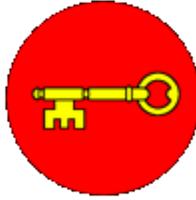

For honor, service, and you, the citizens of Æthelmearc, We remain,

King Murdoch and Queen Ríoghnach

Officer Reports

From the Kingdom Seneschal

This is an exciting time. The days are getting warmer. The sun is out, except when it wasn't for a few minutes during the eclipse, and the flowers are starting to bloom.

I would like to thank Gareth and Juliana for wisely ruling our fine kingdom through the winter months, and making my job as easy as possible. It was rather nice working under friends who are such experienced and competent rulers. And now I get to use all I have learned working with them to help make Murdoch and Ríoghnach's first reign as good as possible. I greatly look forward to working with them and anticipate a fun summer.

Curia is right around the corner, and we have some fun changes planned for Kingdom Law to make our governing rules better for everybody. Remember that our laws and policies are living documents made to reflect who we are and what we do. We have them to help us accomplish our goals and keep the dream alive.

Lately I have been reflecting on how my favorite part of being a kingdom seneschal is seeing more of the things people do in the background to keep things going. The dream doesn't happen on its own, and I am so happy to see that there is ever more to see of the things people do for the benefit of others.

It is with no small amount of work that our calendar is flush with events across this great Sylvan land. There are battles to be fought, tournaments won, classes attended, songs sung, and perhaps my favorite, food to be eaten. I look forward to seeing everybody.

In Service,
Barún Pádraig Ó Branduibh

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Please remember the deadline for the Æstel is the 5th of each month (unless a notice is sent to the Official Kingdom Mailing list indicating an earlier date). It is important to note that this deadline is for the following month's issue. For example, the deadline for the April issue of the Æstel is March 5th. The finalized newsletter must go to Corporate by the 10th of each month. Why is this important? When submitting events to the calendar if you submit event information after the deadline it is not going to make it into the Æstel for the proper month. Any updates to a current event submitted after the deadline will also not make it into the Æstel. Life happens and we will always work to accommodate people, but if your group can meet and decide on information, and meet Æstel deadlines, that is appreciated (looking at you Kingdom officers as well).

Magnus

From the Kingdom Arts and Science Officer

Hello! It's your friendly neighborhood Arts and Sciences Minister here with an Æstel update. Since I took up the mantle in January at the Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition, there has been a whirlwind of activity.

Virtual Æcademy was held February 4 and hosted 26 classes, the Arts and Sciences Faire and Queen's Tourney was held April 20 with a number of displays. In addition, I've seen a lot of A&S events online throughout the kingdom.

For one, The Twelve Months of Bardic hosted by Shāh Megis Éلمانou, our Queen's Bardic Champion. For May, the challenge is to create a sonnet... have an idea? You can still participate at the group's Facebook page:

<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1064535094681757>.

For in-person events, we're hoping to see you all at War Practice, starting May 16. Not only are there a bunch of classes and a beverage competition, but there is a return of the Artisan's Playtime on Saturday and a Youth A&S Challenge! It's going to be awesome.

At the start of June, there will be a great event, Academy of St. Clare of Assisi VII: All Embroidery, All Weekend!

<https://aethelmearc.org/event/academy-of-st-clare-of-assisi-vii-all-embroidery-all-weekend/>

June 8 invites all guilds to meet up at BMDL's Equestrian, Guild Hall, and Japanese Iris Festival Event. It's sure to be spectacular.

Scarlet Guard Inn IX
May 31, 2024, 5pm

Fraternal Order of Eagles #965
1050 Eagle's Nest Road Brockway PA 15824

The Shire of Hunter's Home in cooperation with Æthelmearc's Scarlet Guard is proudly reopening the Scarlet Guard Inn and hosting the Archery Festival the ninth time. There is truly no better site that is known in this great Kingdom of Æthelmearc where you will find more archery in one location. There is more space given here than at the fields of Pennsic. Find comfort and camaraderie at the Inn where there is food, music, games, campfires, and of course good friends.

Archery:

Come and enjoy more archery than you can shake a stick at. On average we have about a dozen different ranges to help keep you occupied and happy. On Friday evening we have a flight shoot and night shoot. During the day Saturday we have many novelty ranges and a few roving ranges so make sure to wear your walking shoes and bring plenty of arrows. In addition to all the spectacular and creative ranges and shoots, the Scarlet Guard has issued a challenge to all Shires, Baronies, and Cantons to send their best archer who is not a member of the Scarlet Guard to compete. To enter an individual must have a signed letter of entry issued by their group's seneschal declaring you as their representative in the competition. They also ask the competitor to add a small item or token to the prize basket for the winner. In addition to the prize, the victor will walk away with the annual competition banner to display throughout the year. Each year the winner's and group's name will be added to the banner to create a legacy of great archery and ultimate bragging rights (members of the Scarlet Guard are not allowed to enter). If you have any questions regarding the challenge please e-mail the archery coordinator Juan Miguel Cezar at scarletguard_clerk@aethelmearc.org.

The site is wet. Pets are welcome On Leash and Well Behaved, clean up after your animal.
