Spring Coronation 2025

Shires Windegate and Stan Wyrm
March 22nd, 2025

<https://www.facebook.com/share/1Awd3BQZqB/>

Pray attend All nobles, knights, and gentlefolk. You are hereby invited to the grand coronation event of Their Royal Highnesses Atilivs and Olivia, Crown Prince and Princess of all Artemisia, to be held on the 22nd of March, 2024.

There will be plenty of opportunities to demonstrate fighting prowess. Highlights of the event include the Queen's Champion Tournament, a test of skill and valor where fighters will compete in the five different weapon forms for the honor of serving as the Queen's champion. Queen's champion will run in pools, then brackets for the semi- and final rounds, with the top two invited to fight in the King's Champion. The Sable Rose tournament will also be held for the honor of the Queen.

Additionally, there will be the King's Champion Tournament, showcasing the prowess and gallantry of knights vying for the esteemed title of the King's champion by round robin 5 weapon format.

Their Royal Highnesses have requested that artisans bring an art to share and that there is to be music and stories. They invite all bards and in particular the youth of the Kingdom to bring a song, story or myth to share with them.

Mark your calendars and prepare for a day of spectacle and merriment as we celebrate the coronation of Atilivs and Olivia!

Note - There will be a silent auction as well that Their Royal Highnesses have decreed will go towards the Shires of Windegate and Stan Wyrm.

Nothing is so base level humor as the ubiquitous “Your Mom” joke. It should be no surprise that the origin comes from the Renaissance, and even less surprising that the first person to use one was Shakespeare. In Titus Andronicus, Act 4, scene ii, Chiron says “Thou hast undone our mother.” To which Aaron replies “Villiian, I have done your mother.” And now you know more random carp.
