THE SCA PROHIBITS HARASSMENT AND BULYING OF ALL INDIVIDUALS AND GROUPS.

The SCA prohibits bullying and harassment of all individuals and groups. Bullying is systematic and unwelcome behavior which involves the use of influence, threat, intimidation, or coercion to cause hurt or harm to another person or group of people. When the bullying behavior is based on a protected class (1), that behavior is defined as harassment.

(1) race, sex, religion, national origin, gender, sexual orientation, age, or disability.

Bullying and Harassment may be overt, as in the following non-inclusive list of examples:

- Verbal abuse, including using racial, homophobic, transphobic, ableist epithets, etc.
- Non-consensual physical contact, violence, or threatening gestures.
- Displaying material that is offensive, degrading, or threatening to a protected class.
- Consistent demeaning remarks or malicious teasing - Stalking or predatory behavior

Covert:

- Spreading rumors or innuendo with malicious intent
- Deliberate exclusion, isolation, or alienation of an individual without just cause
- Using rank, title, or office to intimidate others

Provided that the behavior does not rise to the criteria listed above, bullying and harassment is not:

- Single episodes of social rejection, dislike, tactlessness, or forgetfulness.
- Mutual arguments, disagreements, or fights.
- The termination, mutual or not, of a romantic relationship or friendship.
- Reasonable constructive feedback or critique.

The test for bullying is the reasonableness of the behavior and the impact of that behavior on the recipient. Participants engaging in bullying/harassment are subject to appropriate sanctions. If an individual believes they have been subjected to or have witnessed harassment, bullying, or retaliation, that person should contact a seneschal, the President of the SCA, or that kingdom's Board Ombudsman.

From Their Majesties

Murdoch & Riognach Rex et Regina

Greetings unto the people of the most Fair and Sylvan Kingdom of Æthelmearc from King Murdoch and Queen Riognach

As you read this missive, the Great Pennsic War is behind us and the stories, memories, and glories attained are yours forever. Whether or not you attended this year, We hope you were all able to pursue your specialties and hopefully were able to find yet another rabbit hole to keep you occupied until next year.

As the summer ends and the time of the harvest dawns, Our time as monarchs of these lands is also coming to an end. It has been an absolute joy and privilege to serve as your Royalty and We are quite aware that it would not have been possible without the outpouring of love and support from you all. Words cannot truly express Our feelings towards our shared dream, this Kingdom, and its people. As We take Our leave and fade into the mists of history and obscurity, We do so with the confidence that you will be just as welcoming and supportive of Our Heirs as they ascend the thrones. We go to Our rest knowing that the Sylvan line is secure and in good hands.

It is said that the strength of a Kingdom is in its people. If this is true then it is no surprise or secret why Æthelmearc stands as a beacon to the rest of the Known Worlde as a paragon of honor, courtesy, and chivalry. We are honored to have served you.

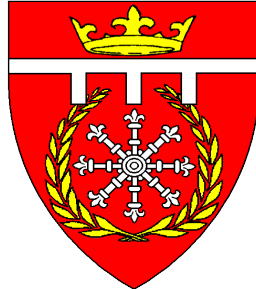

For Æthelmearc We remain King Murdoch and Queen Riognach

Officer Reports

From their Royal Highnesses

Unto the Most Noble Populace of Æthelmearc, Greetings from Andreas and Kallista, Heirs to the Sylvan Throne,

By now the drums of war are fading and we look to the time of harvest and cold winter months. We would very much like to extend a heartfelt thank you to our King and Queen, Murdoch and Rioghnach ni Rose, for their service of the highest magnitude in guiding our Kingdom through a troubling time. We hope to follow in their footsteps by ensuring that Æthelmearc remains strong as a shining bastion of chivalry and honor.

We very much look forward to a wondrous reign, travelling and spending time with all of you. We anticipate witnessing great feats of arms and displays of beautiful artistry as well as all the hard work that so many of you do to make our events run smoothly.

As we prepare to ascend the thrones, we would remind you that if you see others excelling at the things that they do, please do recommend them to us so that we may recognize them accordingly.

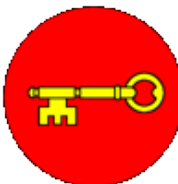

Yours In Service To The Dream,

Prince Andreas and Princess Kallista

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Æthelmearc!

I share this missive from the rolling fields surrounding Cooper's Lake in the shadow of Mount Eislinn. There are a concerning number of armies gathering all about, but I am quite confident that Their Majesties and Highnesses have everything well under control.

While here I have seen a great many types of service. Our Kingdom's various services from the Royal Encampment to the Command Structure to the cadre of retainers are being performed well by a variety of my fellow subjects, and I am glad to see them stepping up to the task. Likewise, the event staff and other numerous volunteers step up every day to keep things running in ways I am still discovering every day.

None of this would be possible without service. I hope the war serves as an inspiration for us all to pitch in and lend some of our time and effort to the many tasks at hand. This is, after all, our land, though it appears some of those big armies seem to take odds with that assertion.

Much of the event service for next year starts now. I would highly recommend volunteering for event services this war and looking to see what you can do for the next. Many of us live near to the site and have unique opportunities to get things done during the time leading up to the war and the cleanup afterward.

But soon I hope I will be back in my comfortable estates preparing for the Curia Regis of Murdoch and Rioghnach on August 20th at 7pm. Keep an eye out for links to be posted in the mailing list and on the closed social media groups in the week leading up to the meeting.

We have some new business in making changes to Kingdom Law to better serve us all, and I am certain my fellow officers will have much to report. I hope to see you there!

In Service to the Realm,
Barún Pádraig Ó Branduibh

Officer Reports

From the Kingdom Arts + Sciences Minister

Greetings from Rue, your friendly Kingdom A&S Minister:

Their Majesties, King Andreas Morgan and Queen Kallista Morgunova, are pleased to announce that they will be choosing their Arts & Sciences Champion at the Haunting in the Hollow in the Shire of Sylvan Glen this October 4, 2025. The event information is here: <https://aethelmearc.org/event/haunting-in-the-hollow-2/>

We encourage entrants to join us in-person at a wonderful site for a day of sharing and celebrating all the wonderful things that our Arts & Sciences community has to offer. However, we do understand that traveling is tough for many, so we will accept virtual entries upon request. We will have our links set up as soon as possible at <https://aeans.aethelmearc.org/upcoming-events/>

The in-person competition will be held along the same lines as in the past. Candidates with their entries will be judged face-to-face and the scoring will be based on the Kingdom A&S rubrics. The rubrics can be found here: <https://aeans.aethelmearc.org/rubrics/>

Although not a requirement, we ask that candidates register their entry online ahead of time to make planning for us a lot easier. The site is discreetly damp; therefore, we are excited and happy to accept alcoholic beverage entries at the event! Judges can sign up online; please provide us with the area(s) you're comfortable with judging so that we can match entrants and judges ahead of time.

Candidates who are not able to join us at the event can submit their entry online. Use our online form to upload some photos, your documentation, and some basic info. The virtual part of the competition will be held much along the lines of last year's competition. Each candidate will meet face-to-face with a panel of judges over Google Meets for one 45-minute judging session during the week leading up to the event and their presentation and entry will be judged with the same rubric used at the event.

Right now, we are planning to spread out the virtual judging between Friday, September 26 and Thursday, October

2. With that in mind, the deadline for virtual entries is midnight, Wednesday, September 24, 2025.

Although we really appreciate pre-registration for the in-person event, candidates can sign up until 9:30am on the morning of October 4.

We want to emphasize that we totally love to see partial projects! It doesn't have to be a completely finished entry to be eligible. As usual, you may also enter up to three related objects as a single entry. Prior entry in another competition or display does not disqualify you from entering; we love to see continued progress on existing projects.

The scores will be tallied once all judging is complete (the combined online and in-person entries) and relayed to Their Majesties, who will choose their champion(s) and announce them at the event during court.

Their Majesties and the Kingdom Office of Arts & Sciences are very much looking forward to seeing what our Kingdom has to offer!

Yours in service,

Rue and Mairin (Kingdom Officers of Arts & Sciences)

Master Robert Ferness (Kingdom Arts and Sciences Webminister)

Court Reports

Blackstone Raids XXXII Court Report Regency Court of Byron and Ariella 4/26/2025

Documented from the Rolls and Files of the Coram Regentibus of Thomas Byron and Ariella, Rex et Regina Regentes of Æthelmearc: Being a True Record of the Business of the Regency Court at Blackstone Raids XXXII, 26 April, Anno Societatis LIX, in the Barony of Blackstone Mountain. As recorded by Gwendolyn the Graceful, Brehyres, Herald, with the assistance of Master Kieran MacRae and Baronessa Umbriana Campana.

Their Royal Highnesses were joined by Baron Cunedda and Baroness Alana, Baronage of Blackstone Mountain.

Their Highnesses thanked the Populace for their support during this time of transition and the Board for granting Them the ability to present the awards which had been arranged under the reign of King Timothy and Queen Gabrielle.

Their Highnesses invited forward any gentles who were attending their first event or Kingdom Court and were pleased to see many newcomers present themselves. In the tradition of many monarchs of the Kingdom, They entreated the newcomers to accept drinking mugs as gifts of welcome.

Their Highnesses then called for all the youth in attendance, and tasked Lord Joshua of the Debatable Lands with the toybox, sending the children in pursuit.

Their Highnesses next invited Meisterin Amalie Reinhardt to join Them. Understanding that it was her time to retire from the post of Kingdom Webminister, They asked her replacement, Sir Rhys of Myles Ende, to come forward, received his oath of office, and released Meisterin Amalie from her duties with the thanks of the realm.

Their Highnesses gave leave to Their Excellencies of Blackstone Mountain to hold Baronial Court.

Upon the conclusion of Baronial Court, Their Highnesses welcomed Magnifica Fede di Fiore to name the winning team from the second annual Project Promenade. Members of team "Orange You Glad," both present and in absentia, were recognized as the winners, for their construction of Japanese clothing, including a pair of geta, all made over the preceding 22 hours. Scroll by Magister Casimir Zelený z Stráňná skála.

Next, Their Highnesses requested The Honorable Lord Kumagaya Kentarou Masamoto, Kingdom Thrown Weapons Champion, to reveal the winner of the competition to select his successor. His Lordship called for the top two competitors, Lord Joshua of the Debatable Lands, and Baroness Rosheen O'Faye, to recognize them for the very close competition. In the end, Her Excellency won the contest by a single point. Her Excellency was thus invested with the regalia of the Champion and Their Highnesses invited Her Excellency to join the Court.

Brid Bjornsdottir was Awarded Arms in absentia, Baron Cunedda accepting. Scroll illumination and design by the INKS Guild (Lady Ylaire Saint Claire and Mistress Ursula of Rouen), calligraphy by Armiger Urraca Beatriz Botelho, upon words by Lady Nea Kimball.

Their Highnesses next sought Freydis Ragnardottir. In recognition of her leathercraft, as well as running children's activities, They Awarded her Arms. Scroll illumination by Lady Alessandra Serena Renda of Gibellina (East), calligraphy by Armiger Urraca Beatriz Botelho, upon words by Lady Nea Kimball.

Their Highnesses then desired to be attended by Lady Isabelle da Loria. Noting the many arts she practices, including weaving, scribal painting, and the creation of award medallions, among other pursuits, They were pleased to name her a Companion of the Order of the Sycamore. Scroll illuminated by Lady Rígnach inghean ui Chonaill, calligraphy by Lord Vincenzo da Loria, upon words by Lady Kolfina Jodisdottir and "some guy in a hat" (Master Po Silvertop).

Their Highnesses also wished at this time to speak with the said Lord Vincenzo da Loria. They were impressed by his long years of service, and his willingness to help in tasks large and small, so much so that They had difficulty keeping him from discovering Their intent to name him a Companion of the Order of the Keystone. Scroll by Baronessa Umbriana Campana.

Following this, Their Highnesses requested the presence of Baroness Katherine Wert. Her Highness recounted their long acquaintance, and the knowledge of Her Excellency's unfailing comportment and gentility. In recognition of her courtesy, Their Highnesses were pleased to confirm Her Excellency as a Companion of the Order of the Cornelian. Scroll illumination and wording by Master Angellino the Bookmaker and calligraphed by Baronessa Umbriana Campana.

At this time, Their Highnesses required the presence of Fuji'na no Takako-dono. His Highness pointed out that not too long ago, at the most recent Pennsic War, He had had occasion to be summarily shot by one of Fuji-dono's ballista bolts, and that this was not an unusual occurrence. Her skill upon the field with siege weapons, as well as her efforts to build the siege community, including constructing additional arbalests for the Sylvan Army, had also demanded recognition by the Noble Order of the Scarlet Battery, and thus Their Highnesses Granted her Arms and invited forward the members of that Order to greet Her Ladyship as their newest companion. Scroll by Meisterin Amalie Reinhardt.

Their Highnesses next requested the presence of The Honorable Lady Odette d'Arques. Noting Her Ladyship to be one of those gentles who is constantly laboring on behalf of her Barony, her Kingdom, and numerous reigns, that she has worn and wears many hats over the years, including those of event steward, tollner, seneschal, exchequer, clothier, and more, They deemed it time Her Ladyship be given yet one more "hat" to wear, and conferred upon her the rank of Baroness of the Court. Scroll illumination and calligraphy by Lady Ædiva of Cratorne, upon words by "some guy in a hat" (Master Po Silvertop).

Her Highness, following the tradition of the Sylvan realm's Queens, named Baronessa Umbriana Campana as Her inspiration for the day, in gratitude and recognition of the way in which Her Excellency had reached out to Their Highnesses and ensured that the days' Court docket was prepared and executed.

Their Majesties thanked all scribes and regalia wrights who contributed their talents and largesse to enhance the Court's proceedings and invited them to take replenishment of supplies from the scribal goodie box.

There being no further business, the Regency Court of Their Highnesses was closed.

Faithfully Submitted,

Court Suspended

Second Court of Murdoch and Riognach at Crown Tournament 5/05/2025

Being a right and proper report of the Court of King Murdoch Bayne and Queen Riognach ni Rose on the 3rd day of May, AS LX (2025) at Their Crown Tournament, as recorded by Helena Mutzhasen, Silver Buccle Herald with assistance by Dagonell Collingwood of Emerald Lake

On the field after the procession of combattants and consorts
Court was opened.

Their Majesties called forth Duke Thomas Byron of Haverford and Duchess Ariella of Thornburry, who recently stepped down as Regents of Æthelmearc, and both were awarded an Augmentation of Arms.

Court was suspended.

On the field following the tournament
Court was resumed

Their Majesties called for the victor of the tournament, Duke Andreas Morgan, and his consort, Duchess Kallista Morganova, and crowned them as Heirs of Æthelmearc. Their Majesties received the oath of fealty of Prince Andreas and Princess Kallista.

Court was suspended.

In the Evening
Court was resumed

Their Majesties welcomed all to the event, a good day, despite the weather.

Their Majesties summoned Jarl Bjarki Rikarðarson and all children present. Jarl Bjarki led the children upon a skipping chase for the children to choose toys from the Kingdom Toybox.

Their Majesties summoned all for whom this was their first event or first royal court, welcomed our new friends, and gave them mugs so they might return.

Their Majesties called before them Lady Morgan Iolaive and the St. Bavon Company of Falconry. The Company asked Their Majesties to sign their charter for the Kingdom of Æthelmearc and gave a demonstration of flight of the falcons present.

Their Majesties allowed a boon from Baroness Nuzha bint Saleem and Baron Andriú mac Domhnaill of Thescore to receive gifts for themselves and their heirs and received their Oath of Fealty. Their Majesties announced that any other landed baronage present could swear fealty following court.

Their Majesties then allowed the Ladies of the Rose and Garnet to come forth and speak about the tournament.

The Ladies spoke highly of the final bout between Jarl Arnthor and (then) Count Murdoch Bayne, how they displayed honor, chivalry, and good communication between them.

The Ladies summoned their current Shield of Chivalry holder, THL Frey Gore, and thanked him for his past service.

They then called forth THL Murcadh DalCais and noted his matches were worthy of holding the Shield of Chivalry and so bestowed it upon him in absentia. Duke Timothy of Arindale accepted it on his behalf and held it through the remainder of the court, promising to deliver it and the Roses' words to Murcadh.

The Ladies also noted the grace and chivalry of Baron Ulfkell Dungalsson and granted him a token in absentia.

Their Majesties granted Helena Mutzhasen time to conduct the following Heraldic business.

Luminaria Salvadore De La Torres was installed as Millrind Herald (Region 1 Regional Herald)

Meisterin Amalie Reinhardt was installed as Fleur d'Æthelmearc Herald (Region 5 Regional Herald)

Master Brandubh Ó Donnghaile was released from service as Sycamore Herald (Tournament Herald) and Master Robert O'Connor was installed as Sycamore Herald

Master Dagonell Collingwood of Emerald Lake was released from service as Jewel Herald (Reign Herald) and Brehyres Gwendolyn the Graceful was installed as Jewel Herald for the reign of King Murdoch and Queen Riognach.

lærifaðir jorundr hinn rotinn was called forth and made a Herald Extraordinary for his work as Silver Buccle Herald and

Golden Alce Herald (precedence). Scroll by Meisterin Helena Mutzhasen

Their Majesties then sought the words of Event Stewards, Baroness Elizabeta da Venezia and Baroness Bronwyn nic Gregor. They thanked all the staff who helped, including their cook, the tent mapper, the officers who made the double-tourney happen, the people who transported the list fields, and Einar, the parking attendant, who stood in the rain all morning directing traffic.

Their Majesties called forth the moneyers guild, who firstly offered to make reign coins, and secondly noted that the wagers of coin at Crown Tournament were simply a motive to get more hand-made coins into the hands of the people, and for the populace to have fun with the coins.

Their Majesties then called for Mästarinna Astridr vigaskegg and Baroness Nuzha bint Saleem, Kingdom Social Media Officer and Deputy Kingdom Social Media Officer respectively. They spoke of the many hours of work, often thankless, needed over the past two weeks and how the officers rose to the occasion. Their Majesties then awarded both an Æthelmearc Award of Excellence.

Along the same lines, Their Majesties awarded Golden Escarbuncles to the many local Social Media Officers:

Their Majesties then called forth Baroness Sefa Vefari, noting that during their procession she looked amazing. They inducted her into the Order of the Golden Mirror. Scroll wording was by Chaghagan Ghunan with calligraphy and illumination by Jinx.

Next, Their Majesties sought Isabel de Herrera and noted her service, particularly the belt favors she makes, and inducted her into the Order of the Keystone. Calligraphy by Baronessa Umbriana Campana upon an illumination by Asa of Oseberg.

Their Majesties called forth Oyama Michiharu noting their skill in the kitchens, particularly creating kimchi. They inducted them into the Order of the Sycamore. Scroll is in progress.

Their Majesties summoned Azemars Martel and spoke on his skill and research into book binding. For that, they inducted him into the Order of The Sycamore. Scroll is in progress.

Their Majesties demanded the presence of Duke Sigenoth the Blissful and spoke about all the things he had done and been recognized for. But there was one area that was missing: his skill and research into cooking. Their Majesties then summoned the Order of the Laurel and issued him a writ of summons to contemplate joining the Order of the Laurel at a time mutually beneficial to Duke Sigenoth and Their Majesties. Scroll is in progress.

Her Majesty spoke of her joy at seeing Einar present, and his dedication to the parking duties, in the pouring rain, and named him her inspiration. She gave him a bag of scribal supplies and a token.

The Scribes, Illuminators, Wordsmiths, and regalia-wrights were called forth and thanked by allowing them a gift from the Scribal Toybox.

Their Majesties and Highnesses then thanked everyone again, and court was closed.
