From Their Royal Majesties

Greetings Caid!

We hope you are staying cool in the summer sun. Thank you again to everyone who made Our Coronation possible. We spent the day surrounded by the warmth of the Kingdom that We love. As We said in the closing comments of Our first court, so many of you have made Our SCA journey richer and We hope that this reign will help make your SCA story amazing.

In like manner, thank you to the Marshals, Stewards, and everyone who made Consort's Champion possible. In keeping with speaking on virtues Our Kingdom endeavors to emulate and reflecting on the skill of Our new Champions, this month We would to speak to Prowess.

Prowess is a difficult virtue to discuss. Most who participate in a competitive discipline want to win and sometimes that drive to be the best can twist the pursuit of Prowess into a desire to win at all costs. The real opponent in the struggle to attain Prowess, however, is ourselves. Prowess is approaching your journey with curiosity and a willingness to learn, no matter how many years you've been on the field or the range. It's being better than you were yesterday and bringing your best to your opponent. It's the refusal to allow yourself a sloppy victory or shrug off a shot you knew found a weakness in your guard. The pursuit of Prowess is the pursuit of excellence, whether or not that excellence leads to momentary victory.

With Pennsic on the horizon, We cannot wait to show the Knowne World a small sliver of what Caid has to offer. We will carry all of you with Us and test Our skills on the armored, rapier, and archery fields to push back the armies of the East and Middle. Once We return, We look forward to Festival of the Rose, and Highland War.

Stay safe, stay cool, and We can't wait to see you soon!

In Service to the Dream,

Bjorn

Konung

Roisin

Cwene

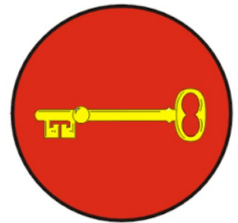

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

As the summer tourney season winds down, our kingdom's events transition to an arts and sciences focus. Starkhafn's Ceilidh, Dreiburgen's Summer Arts, Festival of the Rose, Academia, and Harvest Arts make for a robust month of activities. These present excellent opportunities to explore the richness of the society's artistic and historical endeavors. While tournaments return next month, August also marks the beginning of our preparations for Crown Tournament (Oct 4). The call for Letters of Intent to participate will open August 23rd.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
--Sir Philip

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

I am excited to officially take on the role of your Kingdom's Chronicler. I know I have some big shoes to fill and I will do my best to continue to bring you a newsletter worthy of our fine people. Of course, know that I will not be able to do this alone and I am privileged to have such a great group of editors behind me to ensure every "t" has been dotted and every "i" has been crossed. Or something like that.

Furthermore, we have some amazing photographers in our kingdom; who have allowed use of their imagery within our pages over the years. But know, we could always use more. All of the amazing talent that we have within our borders that is not being shared is such a shame and disservice to everyone, the creators and observers alike. So, I shall take this moment now to call upon you, the populace of Caid, to share whatever you would like to across the land. Leather working, fiber arts, paintings, poems, songs, armor, blades, delicious dishes. I know many of you have things you have shared among your baronies but are deserving of all eyes. If you would like to share but are unsure of how: there is the Academy of St. Veronica Facebook group or you can send images directly to me at my official email: chronicler.officer@sca-caid.org.

Thank you Caid for allowing me this chance to be of service to you. I hope to do you, the office, and my distinguished predecessors proud.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdóttir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid
