Kingdom of Artemisia

From the Golden Wing Principal Herald

Greetings from Braden, your Golden Wing Principal Herald,

After four fulfilling years of serving the Kingdom and overseeing the heraldic duties of the "herd of cats," I am preparing to step down and allow a new, enthusiastic individual to take on this role. My term concludes in December 2025.

I am currently seeking a successor for the position of Golden Wing Principal Herald. This position requires approximately two to four hours per week and involves overseeing the heraldic submissions staff, as well as working with the Order of Precedence and scribal officers and local group heralds to ensure the smooth operation of heraldry in the Kingdom of Artemisia. You report to the Queen Laurel at Arms of the Society as well as the Kingdom Seneschal.

Heraldic expertise is not necessary. This role is primarily managerial, where you will provide guidance and support to the heraldry deputies.

Those interested in applying for the position of Golden Wing Principal Herald (which comes with a prestigious title and an office badge) are invited to submit a letter of intent to the following recipients:

His Excellency Braden, Golden Wing Principal Herald (principal-herald@artemisia.sca.org)

His Excellency Bartholomew, Kingdom Seneschal
(seneschal@artemisia.sca.org)

Their Majesties (crown@artemisia.sca.org)

Their Highnesses (heirs@artemisia.sca.org)

All letters of intent must be received by September 1st.

In Service I remain,

Braden

Golden Wing Principal Herald

Our great Kingdom of Artemisia finds itself on the precipice of a grand and tumultuous event. The Uprising War XXXVI is upon us, a clash of titanic proportions that shall echo through the halls of history. Two mighty factions, each vying for supremacy, have risen from within our noble realm, their banners unfurled and their war cries resounding across the land.

On one side stands the defenders of the ancient ways and protectors of the realm's sacred traditions. Their knights, clad in gleaming armor, call upon all loyal subjects to rally to their cause, to uphold the honor and glory of our forebears.

Opposing them is a coalition of bold and daring warriors who seek to forge a new path for the kingdom. With fiery passion and unyielding resolve, they summon all who yearn for change and a brighter future to join their ranks.

The Barony of One Thousand Eyes, a land of rich history and valor, now becomes the stage for this epic confrontation. The call to arms has been issued, not only to the brave souls within our borders but to all who would heed the summons from lands near and far. Knights, archers, and foot soldiers, prepare thy weapons and steel thy hearts, for the time of reckoning is nigh.

Random Carp that I have learned...

A look at modern practices and their medieval sources by K. Braden von Sobernheim

We measure mass today via the modern gram, the medieval ounces and pounds, and... carats? The modern carat (not carrot, carat) is about 200 mg, or 0.007 oz. The carat is for precious items, and has been throughout history. It comes from the Arabic qīrāṭ from the Greek name for the carob seed keration, a small horn from the carob tree. The seeds were believed to be very consistent in their mass, allowing for an accurate way to make small mass measurements. It was commonly used for weighing gold, and in the later 16th century started its role in the measurement of diamonds, other gemstones, and pearls.

It was realized during the 19th century that mass carob seeds were NOT consistent, so a hard value of 200 mg was used to calibrate the carat by the late 1800s.

And now you know more Random Carp.
