Words of the Crown

Greetings Drachenwald!

As the end of our reign is drawing near we would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who has contributed to helping us these past six months. Thank you to all those who have organized events for us to attend, to those who have helped behind the scene at these events with court, retaining and all service we have been given. Thank you to all the officers and deputies who have worked hard at keeping the kingdom, principalities, baronies and local groups running. Thank you to everyone who participates in our common dream, without all of you there wouldn't be a Drachenwald or an SCA.

It makes us very happy to see all the cool and interesting things that are going on in our Kingdom. Even if we have not been able to visit all events or local activities ourselves, news of the many things going on does reach us and we know there is even more fun stuff that we don't hear about. This is evident by articles in the different newsletters, pictures on social media and also in the many recommendations we receive. We know that there are many people who are actively engaging in the arts and sciences, in martial activities and in service and we have only been able to formally recognize a small portion of this. To all those who we haven't had the opportunity to shine a spotlight on at court please know that the people around you do see you and your contributions and achievements and we appreciate you.

It is with joy that we see several parts of our Kingdom grow and expand. We have had the fortune of greeting many newcomers at the events we have attended. Please continue to help them along in our society and make them feel welcome for many years to come. There are multiple groups in the Kingdom that are growing and expanding not just in the new formal Canton of Cluain Oir but also in many other established groups. We know this has taken time and dedication and thank you for bringing our dream to more people.

In service to Drachenwald, always,

William
King

Isabetta
Queen

Words of the Heirs

Greeting Drachenwald!

At the time of writing We are preparing for Our coronation in the fair barony of Eplaheimr. We look forward to seeing many of you, either there or later during Our upcoming reign.

In preparation for that period We ask you all to send in recommendations, look around you and try to find those that you know and also those that you don't really know but see in the corner of your eyes doing things. Perhaps you will notice people and things you haven't really seen before and realise that they play a vital part of our society.

We further ask that if you had an idea of making tokens for the different awards that exist in the Kingdom, please do make them. We wish to be able to give Our many worthy subjects the recognition they deserve. Many have been handed out and it gladdens Our hearts that there are so many that makes Our Kingdom brighter and better, We know that there are more We wish to recognize in the upcoming months.

For Drachenwald,

Æríkr
Crown prince

Jacquelyna
Crown princess

Greetings from the Seneschal

Greetings Drachenwald!

What a year we have had together! So many wonderful events! So many wonderful people!

A couple of times during the year their Majesties and Drachenwald kingdom officers have a digital meeting. It's a good opportunity for their Majesties to meet all and get an update on the admin side of our society. At the same time we as officers learn more about the different offices and how we can work, support and help each other.

To be a kingdom officer is an excellent way of getting to know Drachenwald. If you are curious there are several offices that are looking for deputies. You can always reach out to me if you are interested in becoming more involved but don't know exactly in which area. At our website under "Offices and Orders" you can read more and also find the contact information.

If we meet at an event I'm always happy to sit down for a chat! See you soon!

Tova av Attemark
Kingdom Seneschal

The Society for Creative Anachronism, Inc. is seeking candidates for the position of Editor for Tournaments Illuminated. This is a part-time stipend position with a three-year warranted term of service.

The successful candidate will be primarily responsible for the publication of the quarterly SCA magazine, Tournaments Illuminated.

Duties and Responsibilities of the Editor include, but are not limited to the following:

- Working with the TI Art Director, staff and authors to produce the quarterly magazine on schedule;
- Answering queries in a timely, courteous, and professional manner;
- Developing and maintaining relationships with authors and other content providers;
- Developing manuscripts with authors based on the audience of Tournaments Illuminated, general readability and (where appropriate) historical accuracy;
- Developing and working with a volunteer staff of reviewers (TI Review Panel);
- Recruiting (as needed), overseeing, working and communicating with column contributors;
- Developing new coverage areas and varieties of content that reflect the interests and priorities of TI readers and the wider SCA community;
- Developing a program for close communication with Kingdom representatives to help determine interest areas and contributors;
- Establishing and managing a team to support TI ventures, such as gathering and disseminating information, promoting the publication, and SCA community outreach for reader involvement;
- Reaching out to potential subscribers and authors and generally raising awareness of TI and SCA publications via virtual events, podcasts, social media, and other online opportunities;
- Manage the Tournaments Illuminated Team of volunteers and deputies;
- Assess and meet the diverse needs of the readership, as TI is meant for all members and participants, at all skill and experience levels;
- Quarterly Reports to the Board of Directors through the Publications Manager.

This position requires approximately 10+ hours per week, except during the two to four weeks prior to publication, when more time is spent putting an issue together. Qualifications for the position include excellent written and oral communication skills, the ability to work independently to prioritize tasks and meet deadlines, strong computer skills, ability to organize a staff, and familiarity with SCA publications and social media programs and platforms. Professional experience in a modern editing environment and prior experience in an SCA Chronicler position are desirable, but not required.

Successful candidates for this position must have easy access to phone, mail, internet, and reliable e-mail service. An applicant must be a paid member of the Society and must be able to meet publication and reporting deadlines in a timely manner.

Interested parties should forward copies of resumes (both professional and SCA related, including offices held and honors) to resumes@sca.org and pubmanager@sca.org.

Curia decision

During the curia held online on October 24th the repurposing of the old silver coronets was discussed as the previous discussions and decisions of what to do with them now that they are no longer regalia were unclear. Based on the discussion held at curia we have decided upon the following:

The old silver coronets will be dismantled for reuse. Parts that can be salvaged and remain distinctly recognizable as well as the stones will be repurposed into award tokens for the order of the companions of Albion and/or Order of Courtesy. The intent is that the original craftsmanship and artwork of the coronets should remain showing in tokens made this way. The rest of the silver will be melted down with the purpose of making it into sheet metal that can then be used to make award tokens for the same awards, the order of the companions of Albion and/or Order of Courtesy.

Master SvartuhR has offered to dismantle the coronets and melt all but the sections that will be repurposed. Master Adalhard in Styringheim has offered to create the sheet metal. Mistress Oriane has offered to create enameled tokens using the sheet metal. Any other artisans who would also like to make tokens using the saved sections, stones or sheet metal are welcome to do so. It is expected that the materials will be used on a first come first served basis until all of the usable material has been turned into tokens. How each token is made and what it looks like is up to the artistic choice of the artist (volunteer) doing the work. We would like to extend our sincere gratitude to the artisans who have offered their time and skills to this project.

Donations of new silver will be accepted in order to raise the silver content of the melted metal and improve the quality of the final sheet metal.

During the curia a number of items of older and seldom used regalia were discussed and the clear view of the curia was to decommission these items. An auction will be held in an online format where these items will be sold to benefit the Kingdom funds. Details will be announced at a later date.
