Missives

From Their Majesties

Until the populace of the West Kingdom does Thorfinn and Tullia by right of arms King and Queen of the West send greetings

Well, the heavy lifting is done! We Westerners have fought in a major war, alongside age-honored Allies and showed the Known World the might of Western fighters, artists and our service to the Society! We especially want to thank the members of the Western army who took up the bow and helped change the army, and give Us victory; let's continue to work together to build a better Western army on the heavy and defense fields! We have found a set of amazing successors, and bore witness to both Cynagua, as well as the Mists, finding their undoubted heirs... Our kingdom will be left in good hands.

The weather changes, and as it cools We look to hearth and home. We will continue Our grand progress through Our lands, going to Allyshia, and cold Oertha shrouded in dark hours, as well as many other places, to share the joys of celebrating the holidays together. We will attempt to attend as many feasts as We are capable. We hope to see you all, and look forward to recognizing all Our populace that needs to be awarded.

Please send in those award recommendations so We can do as much as We can!

In service to the West,
Thorfinn V and Tullia
King and Queen of the West

From The Crown Prince and Princess

To Our beloved Populace of the West, greetings from Fabian and Eliška, Heirs to the Occidental Throne, as We embark on the Last of the LIX Reign (the last reign of the 59th year of Our Kingdom).

We are so looking forward to celebrating with you all at Our Twelfth Night Coronation! As We will announce then, one of the things We will be honoring during this reign is the way so many of you make this Kingdom the best in the Known World - We want to shine a light on all those activities, and inspire even more.

To that end, We issue the Last of the LIX Challenge! Our challenge will give you an opportunity to celebrate all you and others do for Our Kingdom. (Please note that participation in our Crown Tournament this March will be dependent on the aspiring couple having completed at least 4 of the Challenge activities between the two of them.)

You can learn more about the Challenge on our Kingdom website, specifically at www.westkingdom.org/aslix/challenge. You may also post questions regarding the challenge (or anything else) to Our Facebook and/or Discord channels, or privately to Us at heirs@westkingdom.org, or at crown@westkingdom.org after Twelfth Night.

Thank you,
Fabian and Eliška
Crown Prince and Princess of the West

This is a vital role, and I hope to have someone step in by 12th Night. ~ Rew Payne ☐

Kingdom Exchequer

My intent is to step down at June Crown, but I'd like to find a successor before then to give that person time to go through a few quarters' worth of reporting cycles, including budgeting, end-of-year and the Kingdom consolidated reports. A basic knowledge of accounting principles is helpful, but the most important job requirements are attention to detail, organization and the ability to stick to deadlines. If you're interested, please email me at exchequer@westkingdom.org. ~ Rose de Le Mans

Calendar Deputy

A successor is needed for the West Kingdom Calendar Deputy. It is my hope to step down at 12th Night next year. Timely communications with territory seneschals and event stewards, creating and maintaining time sensitive documents for review by the Kingdom Seneschal and the Crown, and attention to detail is necessary when reviewing and processing event date requests. Please email me, if interested, at mdm_ghislane@westkingdom.org.

Royal Archer

Archers! I have just lost my Deputy Royal Archer. I have been in too long and need to be done. I am stepping back to concentrate on mundane life. You should be currently or willing to become a target archery marshal. You work with Site Stewards on Kingdom Events provide archery at those events, you or a Marshal-in-charge will run them for the event. There are some reports and minor other things. Please contact me if you are interested. It is not too big of a job. Sandra Lowry

Greetings from the Kingdom Wooden Spoon Minister, Our next competition will be held at the West Kingdom's Twelfth Night. This year we wish to see period Subtleties, defined as food disguised to look like other food, or some other object altogether. As before, I will not be requiring documentation. I am a firm believer that the cooking and enjoyment of food should be the focus of my competitions. You may have documentation, it will not be a part of the judging. I would prefer to hear from the contestants in person about what they did and why. The hotel is not allowing food to be down in the common areas. Dame Mercy Grym has offered the use of her room to hold the competition. My hope is to announce the time to meet for the competition at morning court along with the room number. As always, I look forward to seeing many entries and getting the chance to see many old and new faces. YIS, Master Rowan Buchanan, OP

The Board of Directors is currently considering the following proposed changes to Corpora and invites commentary from the membership and participants. You'll find an explanation for the suggested update to each section right after the marked up paragraph. New text is included in italics, with removed text struck out.

I.C7: General – Role of the Board – Communications with the Board of Directors of the SCA, Inc.

c. Any written communication with the Board is considered public, subject to any confidentiality provisions of Corpora, Corporate Policy, and approved Officer Handbooks, unless the author stipulates at the time of writing that the document is to be considered confidential. Any communications regarding sanctions and/or Board/Officer work-product are deemed confidential communications. Confidential documents will not be distributed outside the corporate staff unless the author's permission has been obtained.

The Board reserves the right to declare any communication confidential subject to the author's right to republish the communication. Reasonable requests for copies of other communications must be made in writing to the corporate office, and all such requests are automatically considered public documents.

[Explanation: Confidentiality is an important topic in the Society, and it can sometimes be confusing. The rules about confidentiality are mentioned in a lot of different places, and over time, the wording in those places has changed a bit, which has caused some confusion about how the Society should handle confidential information. This update is meant to make everything clearer and more consistent, so it's easier to understand what is considered confidential, and what the limits or exceptions to that confidentiality are.]

II. B. Requirements for Participants at Society Events

Anyone may attend Society events provided they wear an attempt at pre-17th century clothing, conform to the rules of the Society provisions in Corpora, and comply with any other requirements (including but not limited to site fees or waivers) which may be imposed. At business meetings and informal classes, the requirement to wear pre-17th century dress may be waived. All participants are expected to behave in an appropriate and respectful manner.

[Explanation: Corpora is not the only document where rules that SCA participants are expected to follow may be found. These rules may also be found in the By-laws, Corporate Policies, and various Society officer policies approved by the Board and contained in officer manuals. The proposed language makes clear that the SCA has rules which participants are expected to follow.]

VI.A.2: Society Officers – General Requirements and Benefits

d. No Society or Corporate Officer may serve as Crown or Coronet during their tenure in office. In order to fight or be fought for in a Crown or Coronet Lists, the officer must have served a minimum of one year in that office and must have an appointed deputy, approved by the Board, who is ready and willing to accept all responsibilities for that office. Committing to become a Crown or Coronet Victory in a Royal List will be considered a resignation from office, effective no later than their Investiture.

[Explanation: This change spells out current practice and defines the exact circumstances under which a Society or Corporate Officer will be expected to resign that office.]

VIII.E.2: Personal Awards and Titles – Reservations to the Board – Revocation of Awards and Grants of Arms

As with Peerages, the Board specifically reserves the right to revoke any Award or Grant of Arms. Kingdom law may make provision for offering such a recommendation to the Board. Unless stipulated otherwise by the Board, the Board's decision in such a case applies only to the matter at hand. Nothing prohibits a person who has had any award or recognition revoked from being bestowed the award or recognition at a later date, should the Crown determine that the person in question now meets the requirements of the award or recognition being bestowed.

X.B.4.d: Grievances and Sanctions – Sanctions – Reservations to the Board – Revocation of Awards and Grants of Arms

As with Peerages, the Board specifically reserves the right to revoke any Award of Arms or Grant of Arms. Kingdom law may make provisions for offering such a recommendation to the Board. Unless stipulated otherwise by the Board, the Board's decision in such a case applies only to the matter at hand. Nothing prohibits a person who has had any award or recognition revoked from being bestowed the award or recognition at a later date, should the Crown determine that the person in question now meets the requirements of the award or recognition being bestowed.

[Explanation: The proposed added language already exists in Corpora VIII.E.1 and X.B.4.c., which discuss the reservation to the Board of the right to degrade a person from the Peerage and the ability of a Crown to bestow such an award at a later date should they determine it is deserved. This change is proposed to apply the same language to Board removal of an award or grant of arms.]

X.B.1: Grievances and Sanctions – Sanctions – Royal Sanctions

The Crown of a Kingdom may sanction subjects, residents, and visitors within the borders of the Crown's Kingdom for just and stated cause. Royal Sanctions take effect from the moment of proclamation but must be announced in court and also be published in the next available issue of the kingdom newsletter if the sanction is to remain in effect. Within 15 business days of the imposition of the sanction, the specific cause and occasion of the sanction must be explained in writing to the sanctioned individual unless it is impossible to do so, in which case it should be done as soon as possible.

[Explanation: If the Corporate office or the Kingdom do not have a valid current means of contacting the sanctioned individual, it is not possible to fulfill this requirement unconditionally. The proposed change acknowledges the possibility that a correct means of notification may not be known at the time of the sanction.]

X.B.2: Administrative Sanctions

Officers may impose Administrative Sanctions within their areas of authority, for just and stated cause, only in accordance with the rules defined in their office handbooks or specifically granted to their offices by the Governing Documents of the SCA. Only the Society Seneschal or the Board may impose an Administrative Sanction that precludes the holding of any office including that of Crown.

[Explanation: This proposed change acknowledges that either the Society Seneschal or the Board of Directors has the authority to impose an Administrative Sanction that bars an individual from holding multiple offices. The Board already has ultimate authority over the rules of the SCA and over sanctions, as established in the By-laws, Section VI.A and Corpora I.C.1, so this simply adds language acknowledging that authority.]

Corpora, including the By-Laws, can be found in its entirety can be found here: <https://www.sca.org/resources/document-library/govdocs/>

Please email all commentary to SCA-Comments@sca.org and use the title "Clarifying Corpora" in the subject line.

NOTE: Do not use attachments in your commentary. Attachments will cause your message to be marked as spam, and it will be bounced.
