Read into Court

On this, the 12th day of July in the year 2025, Anno Societatis LX (60), We, Emerick Blackpool and Kolfinna Halvgrimsdottir, Crown of Calontir, issue a Banishment from the Royal Presence for Will Phillips, known in the Society as Hugo van Harlo.

From Their Majesties of Calontir, Emerick Blackpool and Kolfinna Halvgrimsdóttir, warmest greetings and fondest words.

As the wheel turns and summer wanes, we find ourselves reflecting on the mighty deeds and moments of joy we've shared with this glorious kingdom.

This past month, we had the immense honor of witnessing the talents of both our artisans and our fighters—those who weave with thread and those who weave with steel. The halls were filled with creativity and the fields rang with the clash of arms, and in each, Calontir's heart shone bright.

We marched east to the great fields of Pennsic, where we stood shield to shield with our Ansteorran brothers and sisters, and alongside our noble Western allies. Together, we faced the trials of war with courage and unity. It was a joy beyond words to fight beside such valiant hearts, and to celebrate friends from both near and far—some of whom we were honored to recognize and cheer upon the battlefield itself. As always, the end of war brought with it bittersweet partings, and we were heavy of heart to say farewell to so many beloved companions.

Not long after, we again traveled north to the Barony of Mag Mor for Cattle Raids—a day full of joy, laughter, and the spirit of Calontir. There was valor in the fighting field, skill upon the archery range, wisdom within the classes, and beauty in the equestrian displays. It was a shining example of how our kingdom thrives in every discipline.

And then, as the dust settled from Cattle Raids, we made our way to Raid or Trade—a delightful day that blended fun, friendship, and a healthy dose of mischief. We thoroughly enjoyed the laughter, the cleverness of the challenges, and the creative ways in which our populace engaged with one another. It was a perfect example of how Calontir finds joy not only in battle, but in community and play.

But most of all, throughout every journey and every event, we have felt the love and support of this kingdom. Surrounded by friends, family, and folk from every corner of Calontir, we are constantly reminded that a reign is made not by crowns, but by the people. And you, the heart of Calontir, have made our reign absolutely wonderful thus far.

With gratitude, pride, and joy, we look ahead to the months to come, eager to see where our Falcon leads us next.

*In service and in joy,
Emerick & Kolfinna, King and Queen of Calontir*

Greetings Calontir!

This month's letter is more of an Origin Story. That is, the story of how I became a Herald.

In the spring of 2022, we were camping with friends, and talking about the SCA (as one does) and I mentioned that I still needed to decide on a name. We went through the process of finding a name, starting with something similar to my own so that I was more likely to answer to it. We used books and the internet and everything.

At an event, I took the researched name to Herald's Point, and asked for help in transferring it to a submission form. I received enthusiastic assistance, and was also offered the chance to design a device to go with my name.

It was about ten minutes in to talking with the heralds, when Dorcas loudly proclaimed that I was 'on the wrong side of the table,' and invited me to come around and learn how the consultation process worked.

I had an amazing time, and learned more about the Calontir College of Heraldry, and joined both the email and Facebook groups.

A few weeks later, the current Gold Falcon sent out a notice that they were looking for a new Eyas (internal submissions) Herald. No prior experience necessary, but they were looking for someone with strong computer and administrative skills.

Listen - I had only been a herald for a month, but I can administrate like the wind. So I applied. I interviewed.

And I got the job.

With the advances in technology, the Eyas Herald is mostly responsible for taking the data from submissions forms and inputting it and any images into the Online System for Commentary and Response (lovingly called OSCAR).

Submissions are snail mailed, emailed and even handed directly to you. There's a fancy tool to run after everything has been scanned in to make the little thumbnails.

And I began to run the monthly internal decision meetings, where the heralds discuss and determine whether or not submissions were ready to advance to the next stage.

I learned a lot; I met a lot of super cool people along the way. Registering peoples names and devices is an excellent way to learn more about your new friends in the SCA.

This utterly fascinating story is brought to you by the need to announce that I am currently accepting applications for a new Eyas Herald. Dorcas Whitecap has been doing both Saker and Eyas positions since I stepped up as Gold Falcon in February and it's more than past time to fill my old position.

Interested parties should send an email to goldfalcon@calontir.org by October 31st.

*Yours in Service,
Dýrfinna Tonnudóttir
Gold Falcon Herald*

Greetings from your Arts and Sciences Master Scheduler,

Kingdom Arts and Sciences is happening Saturday, September 27th, 2025 in the Barony of Mag Mor!

This event allows artisans of all skill levels compete in Tri-Levels; with a single entry judged at the difficulty level you choose, or to achieve the role of Kingdom Arts and Sciences Champion. To enter the Championship, you will need 3 entries from different disciplines <category/type of entry> that show a breadth of your skill and work.

We look forward to showcasing all the amazing artisans in our Kingdom! Entry submission will open August 11th, and the deadline for entries will be September 10th.

We will also need judges of all types! Please consider sharing your time and knowledge with our entrants. Judges sign up will also open August 11th.

*For the Dream,
Dame Marie le Faivre
Master Arts and Sciences Scheduler*

Greetings Calontir!

First of all, we would like to remind local officers to make use of the new event management system. Not only can you use it to submit and publish information about your event, but you can also use it to set up the event schedule, request submissions for activities and classes, publish feast/inn menus, and more. Effective use of this system will greatly improve communication surrounding events, so please be sure to get your information entered as far in advance of your event as possible.

Second, we are still seeking candidates for the office of Kingdom Webminister. This role does not require computer programming skills, however candidates should be "tech-savvy" and willing to learn. The office is responsible for building and maintaining the kingdom's web presence and for supervising the local group webministers. These technologies include Wordpress, Google Workspace, Google Sites, and interfacing with our web-host. If you are interested in this position, please send your letter of intent to webminister@calontir.org. Include any relevant experience and explain any goals you may have for your prospective term.

There are also several kingdom deputy and local group webminister positions available - so if you are interested in joining the team, even if not as the kingdom webminister, please send me an email.

Tech Tip of the Month: You can make a QR code from a website directly from many browsers. In Chrome, you can do this by right clicking on the window and selecting the "Create a QR Code for this page" option. QR codes are a good way to communicate links to forms and class handouts when at an event.

*Sincerely,
Gawin Kappler, OoD
Calontir Webminister*

Greetings unto the Populace of Calontir!

RUSH is the Royal University of Scir Hafoc (Welsh for "Bright Falcon"). The University is dedicated to promoting medieval history and Calontir culture, with a focus on accessibility and inclusion.

RUSH is looking for a new Deputy of Online Classes. This is one of our more active positions. The deputy is responsible for:

- Recruiting teachers for monthly classes.
- Creating and promoting the events online.
- Moderating the classes.

The deputy does not have to always do these tasks themselves, but they are responsible for ensuring the tasks are completed on time. There will be training provided, but familiarity with Facebook events, Zoom, Google Calendars, and Discord is recommended. This role typically has a 2 year term.

Many thanks to The Honorable Lady Berakha bat Mira v'Shlomo for her enthusiasm and work in this position. She did an amazing job and we look forward to working with her again in the future.

If you're interested in this role, submit a letter of interest to RUSH-Chancellor@calontir.org. Please feel free to reach out with any questions.

*Yours in Service,
Vashti al-A'sharyyah
