A Missive from Their Royal Majesties

Hello, Meridies!

At the time of this writing, we haven't had any events since RUM in July, and our subjects are at Pennsic. It has been a strange, but relaxing time for Their Majesties. In the heat of the summer, it's a great time to fix your armor, make a new tunic, or just hang out with friends and family; all things you can do in the air conditioning.

With the end of August comes Borders without Walls at the northern extents of the Kingdom. Laurel Grove is beautiful, and the event is shaping up to be a fun day of fighting with people coming from at least 3 kingdoms. Over the course of September, there are events all over the Kingdom. At Vices and Virtues, We are elevating one of those We issued writs to for the Order of the Mark. At Heroes and Heroines, the Meridian Orders of the Blade and the Sable Sword will be having their Invitational tournaments. Black Gryphon in Tennessee, Daggers and Hemlock on the southern coast, Red Tower in the Atlanta area, Hausblot on the northern border, and wrapping up with pageantry of MGT at Camp Discovery.

As most of you know, Her Majesty is fond of tea. She has been attempting to learn, from a book, how to read tea leaves, in the hopes of foretelling the longevity of Her reign. As would be expected, without a true tutor, She sees pink shag carpeting, red station wagons, and people dancing in the streets in each cup. Ridiculous visions aside, She knows the Kingdom is safe from usurpers on a mission.

For the love of The Game and shaking a few tail feathers,

Lochlainn,
Ri

Paraskova,
Banrion
