Their Royal Majesties

From Their Majesties

Greetings Unto the StormBorm!

Our time as Prince and Princess has flown by quickly but what wonderful memories with great friends We have made! We look forward to serving Our populace as Khan and Khatun with honor, courtesy, and chivalry.

His Majesty and I wish to thank the Shire of Loch Bais for hosting Our Coronation event and for the many hands that went into making that event a successful one. We saw so many smiling faces, heard the laughter of many, saw tears of joy roll down the cheeks of those whose accomplishments were praised during court. We spent time with dear friends we have not seen in many months and strengthened bonds of new ones. All of this under the Eternal Blue Sky of the day.

At Coronation, His Majesty held a tournament to determine his Heavy Champion. Congratulations to Sir Drogo of Axebridge who was chosen to stand as that Champion. All of the combatants fought with great skill, honor, chivalry, and courage.

His Majesty will be traveling to the Shire of Tor an Riogh to attend their event Something German to see their armored combat tournament to determine entry into TOC.

His Majesty and I are eager to make sure that Our populace receives awards that they are deserving of so We encourage all to write to Us, even if letters have been written previously.

Strong work to all gentles who work tirelessly to make our Kingdom grow and prosper. If any know of individuals who are deserving of awards, please write to Us so that We can reward those for their efforts justly deserved.

Until We meet again,

 Christof Breinninn

FROM THE CHRONICLER

Greetings unto the Populace of our fair Kingdom,

I send my heartfelt gratitude to Duke Connor and Duchess Dinara for an amazing reign. They took us all over the Kingdom from event to event and even on a long trek to Pennsic 50. We have seen many tournaments, Kingdom Champions, a Crown List, A&S projects and photos of everything along the way. They will be truly missed as King and Queen, but have left the Crowns in the very capable hands of their dear friends.

Our new Royals. Christof and Broinninn have taken the throne and will rule the Kingdom with grace, charm and lots of laughs. I for one can not wait to see what the next six months hold for them and the Kingdom.

As Christof and Broinninn lead us into event season, are we all ready. Do you have your new garb made? Do you have your summer art projects finished? Kingdom Arts & Sciences just wrapped up, do you have a new project in mind? Do you have your kits repaired for tournament season? Have you decided if you are fighting in Crown List? Do you realize Gulf Wars is only five months away?

Take heed of the time and prepare yourselves for War. Finish your projects, plan your volunteer time, and prepare for the magnificent parties that await.

Meet the Peer

Sir Fergus 'O' Kelly

Order of Chivalry

What is your persona and what drew you to it? -423 AD Dal Riata, filling in the blanks with Late Roman sources. I was attracted by legends of Arthur, Ogham stones, Pictish stones, reoccupied hill forts. It's the Age of Heroes.

How did you find the SCA? - I stumbled upon the local fighter practice on my way to a D&D game and got hooked.

What was your first SCA event? - Christmas Revel, Mad Hatter, 1988?

What SCA activities are you the most interested in? - Fighting and socializing. Honestly during the COVID hiatus I missed the socializing more.

If you could start on your path again with all the knowledge you have now, what if anything, would you do differently? - Travel more. Both to find teachers/coaches and just travel.

What is the best advice you received about being a peer? - Lead by example. Teach, learn, practice, compete. I practice the virtues as best I can.

What is the worst advice you received about being a peer? - Not advice, but worst example, treating associates like servants instead of students.

What is the one thing you wish someone had told you about being a peer? - I was told, but it's still surprising, how suddenly your words carry more weight.

What's something people try to tell you is peerlike, or is not peerlike, that you disagree with? - Some peers seem to think they don't have to do anything anymore and I disagree. Peering is a job, and if you're not doing anything you're not a peer anymore.

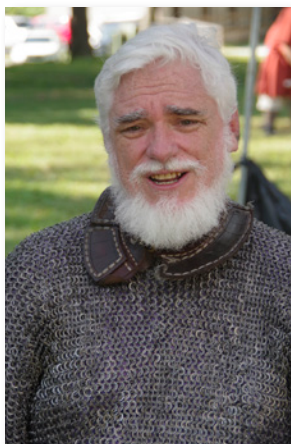

What is your favorite SCA moment? - Pennsic 1991 Woods Battle, as our line advanced the Tuchux dropped out of trees behind us and attacked. Epic moment.

For Fun - What SCA skills have you learned that would help you survive a zombie apocalypse? - Fort building, siege, melee, campfire cooking, blacksmithing, sewing, woodworking, leatherwork, would all be useful.

For Fun - What is your favorite cuss word? - My wife cusses for me.

For Fun - Is a hotdog a sandwich? Why or Why Not? - Sure, it's stuff between other stuff. But I'm undecided on corndogs.

Ethan, you need to push your shield out further; you're exposing your hip.

LAY ON!

It's all part of the plan. You'll never be able to hit my leg. Just try it!

-BLOCKED-

You're fast, but not fast enough for my ultimate defense!

Wait a second shot! The first one was a decoy!

Wait, he disappeared!!

-WHACK-

AAAAARRGH!

And Ethan, that is a butt wrap, also called a poodle scoot."
