From Their Majesties

At long last Spring is making her presence felt. Or at least the multitudes of little birds shouting outside our windows at top volume are telling us she's here.. At length, and with extra notes.

We now look ahead to new growth and brighter days, it's time to pull the warm weather clothing out of storage chests and hang them out in the fresh breeze to air and to find where the banners were safely stored for the winter. Soon we join friends around fires under starry skies, share meals and conversation in cozy camp spaces...

And beat the ever livin' stuffing out of our friends. In a very gentle, loving, caring, and above all friendly competitive way of course.

Axe! Arrow! Blade! Targets will tremble at the fury!

Rapiers will dart and dash in a deadly dance of precision!

Thundering crash of sword, shield and spear, tumult and battlecry!

And lest we forget, the sting of needle, burn of touching a too hot clay cooking vessel, the victorious yell of "Hah! I KNEW I had saved that documentation!" The Arts carries its own banners of battle - never doubt it.

The long dark winter is behind us at last Fair Ealdormere, Summer beacons us all forward and We look forward to seeing all of you doing the things that bring you joy in this amazing Hobby of Hobbies.

May you also grow and thrive with the season.

From The Kingdom Seneschal

Hello Sunshines!

First and foremost, to Their Excellencies Crispin and Anne it was a pleasure to work with you both during your reign. I would also like to congratulate Their Majesties Gann and Maegwynn and I look forward to your reign.

This marks my final Tidings letter as your Kingdom Seneschal and I have to thank all of you for your patience and support during the last two years. You did your level best not to make me too much extra paperwork and I am grateful.

Thank you especially to all of the seneschals who keep things running at the local level and without whom nothing would run. I wouldn't do this job in any kingdom but Ealdormere.

I'd like to welcome Her Grace Breylla, who will be taking over this office at Spring Crown Tournament. I have no doubt that she will be brilliant at stepping into this role and keeping Ealdormere on the straight and narrow.

In Service,
Lucia de Moranza

From The Kingdom Clerk Register

Greetings good people of Ealdormere!

I am looking for a deputy interested in stepping into the Clerk Register (Web Minister) office this fall (2025). The Kingdom Clerk-Register is in charge of the website ealdormere.ca, emailDodo lists, Zoom meetings, administering four LAMP Servers, maintaining the officer warrant list and supervising group Web Ministers.

A simple report is sent to the to the Society Web Minister bi-annually. Use of a personal Credit Card is required for subscriptions, which are reimbursed by the Kingdom.

This is a Privy Council office, with a duty to provide advice and counsel to the Crown. If you are interested in this position, please email me (Penda) at ealdormereweb@gmail.com. A copy of the Society Web Minister's handbook is available by request which outlines the job duties in detail.

In Service,
Baron Penda,
Kingdom of Ealdormere Clerk Register

From The Kingdom Arts & Sciences Minister

Greetings to all from your Kingdom Minister of Arts and Sciences;

Summer is almost upon us, and I'm looking forward to attending or hearing about classes or projects that you will be setting up at events. And I delight in seeing/hearing your individual preparations to make those event spaces magical.

Please remember to keep track of what you have done and share with your local A&S Minister, or directly with me. Feel free to nominate people for recognition in the arts as well, using the form on the Kingdom web page or using whatever is set up for award nominations at the Baronial level.

Finally, my apologies to Skalli in my report about Kingdom A&S. it was, of course, Skalli Wegg who entered Pent with five cups in different mediums, not Skalli Grimm.

Yours in Service,
Siglinde

From The Kingdom Chronicle

Greetings to the Good Citizens of Ealdormere,
Why do we have a Kingdom Newsletter?

Can't we just do all this on assorted social media?
Let us consider: single point access, accountability, accessibility, removing barriers, permanence, publication process.

Not everyone is on every social media feed, and is also following those feeds attentively. With the ever changing movement on social media, even the most avid checker of their feeds may miss a post.

The Tidings newsletter provides an official permanent record in order to ensure that important missives from the Royalty or Kingdom Officers are not obscured by new incoming posts.

Event information is accessible to all, both electronically and, yes, you can receive a paper copy in the mail. The Tidings is always available in a stable format, eliminating the need to search your social for the pertinent post.

Prior to publication, each issue of The Tidings and our kingdom supplement, The Vox Borealis, is reviewed by The Society Chronicle for appropriate content that reflects well upon our kingdom and the greater Society.

Having been published with due process, events in The Tidings may hold official courts. Please remember to register your event with the Kingdom Calendar Secretary.

<https://ealdormere.ca/how-to-register-your-event-the-kingdom-of-ealdormere/>

If you wish to have The Tidings and Vox delivered directly to your inbox each month please email me to join the mailing list at:

ealdormere.kchronicler@gmail.com.

Articles, artwork and photos for both The Tidings and Vox are always welcomed!

Cheerfully in Service,
Duchess Kaylah

From The Kingdom Earl Marshal

Hello from my estates of Hundehugel.

We are shortly going to be entering the hottest parts of the summer months.

My official duties include: Being responsible for the safety of all martial activities in the kingdom.

To that end, I would like to introduce the following heat conventions:

HEAT CONVENTIONS

ALL martial activity on ALL fields will cease if the heat index on ANY field reaches 40c.

The heat index will be checked at least one hour prior to every melee at the melee location. If the heat index reaches 40c prior to the melee start time, then the fighting is cancelled.

If the heat index reaches 40c during the melee, then the melee is concluded early due to heat.

No discussion or notification to the Crowns is required by the marshals: the marshals will end the melee.

Activity will resume when the heat index drops below 40c. Only the Marshal-in-Charge can reopen the fields.

AccuWeather is a free app that can be downloaded onto your phone. It gives both the real temperature and the "Real Feel".

I am sure other apps can do the same thing; I happen to use AccuWeather.

When days are crazy hot, please remember rule 7 of the Rules of the List and the Application of rule 7:

Rule of the List:

7. No one may be required to participate in Combat-Related Activities.

Application of Rule 7:

No one is required to engage in SCA combat should he or she prefer not to do so

At any time it's ok to say you don't want to fight because it is too hot.

Stay Safe, stay hydrated.
Elizabeth
