A Missive from Their Royal Majesties

Greetings unto the fair and noble populace of Meridies:

We are pleased to see the days getting longer after a cold and icy winter. We have an exciting spring eventing season ahead and are looking forward to the joy and camaraderie in store.

We are especially excited about Gulf Wars. Meridies has allied with Trimaris and will be bringing the glorious might of our army against Ansteorra and its allies. We will also be joining our cousins in Trimaris for a combined social.

The Kingdom is strong, and We can't be more excited during this time of great joy and energy. Thank you all who work so hard to keep this dream alive.

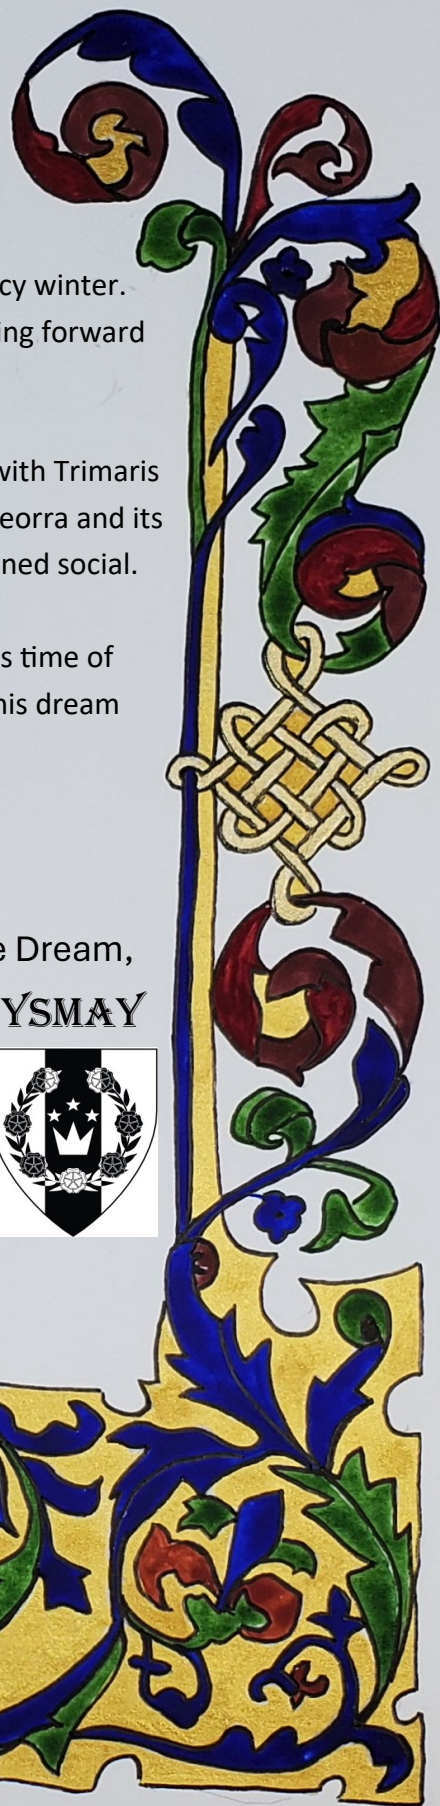

In Service to the Dream,

TIMOTHY

YSMAY

A Missive from Their Royal Highnesses

Salutations Magnificent Populace of Meridies,

This last month has been a whirlwind of fun. His Highness had a fantastic time at war college and fighter collegium. He and his squire had a brilliant time crossing swords with some many fine fighters. There were many great classes to take. It was great to see so many teachers step forward. Everyone got the chance to be a student and it was a great experience. A solid reminder we are sometimes a teacher and ever the student.

The Barony of Southdowns hosted Midwinter Arts and Sciences, which has a special place in his Highness' heart. Having been autocrat for a number of years, it is something that he has always enjoyed greatly. It was also her Highness' first event almost a decade ago!

We attended several classes throughout the first day. Met several new people who are learning more about our community. His Highness spent several hours in the kids classes for heraldry and story telling. He enjoyed being around those closer to his mental age.

In addition his Highness attended class on salads (which he is trying to eat more of) with Syr Iastreb, Mistress Magdalena got to learn why they are not allowed to sit in court together. At least she laughed a lot. Her Highness worked on a mosaic with one of our newest Laurels, Mistress Lucia del Mar, and attended a class on 1st century Roman sewing taught wonderfully by Lord Gaius Nautius Maximus.

The A&S competitions looked fantastic, there were a number of amazing entries. I believe there were two gentles who scored the highest possible score of a 20 and a few more 18-19s. The lowest score being a 13, which is fantastic. We are thankful to Duchess Thorkatla for all her efforts toward improving our A&S efforts.

Her Majesty was kind enough to Let his Highness ambush his sister, Margavati Bai who along with Maestro Lorenzo was inducted into the order of the Pelican. It is a great day when you can get your sister to loose her composure in court even if for a moment. The next day, his Highness went to the fighter practice where we had at least 4 youth combatants and another 10-15 adult fighters. Several authorizations happened, including several new adult fighters who now have Youth Sparring licenses. Huzzah!!! We hope everyone had as good a time as we did.

Illumination by Etain of the Ulaid

Yours In Service to the Dream,
MORGAN II & SEBASTIANOS II

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Meridies,

My time as Kingdom Seneschal ends in July of this year at RUM. I would like to announce that my replacement will be Duke Wulfstan Thorhallsson. I have full confidence that he will do an excellent job as Kingdom Seneschal.

From the Kingdom Minister of A & S

As I am at the halfway point of the Kingdom A&S Office, it is time to call for my replacement deputy.

The candidate must be organized with paperwork (both digital or physical), willing to attend and run all the Meridian regional faires, attend Gulf Wars to arrange for Meridian A&S Champions as well as organize the Open, and communicate with the other kingdom officers and royals. They are expected to communicate with the artists, local officers, guilds, and appropriate orders to promote the arts in Meridies.

If you are interested in the office or have any questions, please send an email to artsci@meridies.org.

In Service,

Duchess Thorkatla
