The Official Newsletter
of the Kingdom of the Outlands

Simon & Aria
Crown Prince & Crown Princess crownprince@outlands.org
 crownprincess@outlands.org

We have so many people to thank for the amazing weekend that was Crown Tournament. That starts with Their Royal Majesties Zachariah and Mariana, who ran as beautiful and clean a Crown Tournament as we have ever seen. To the populace of Nahrn, every time we visit, we want to live with you. You are such an amazing community of bright stars, and we thank you for your tireless efforts to make the weekend one to remember. For everyone who attended, as combatant, consort, support staff, or to bear witness, we thank you. Crown is the day where the true mettle of the kingdom is tested.

We'd like to talk about communication. As a couple, we often say that we can solve any problem together when we sit down and look at the issue as partners, instead of adversaries. In an all volunteer organization like the SCA, this is even more important. Please, when you are confronted with a problem, reach out like a partner. Don't assume an adversarial position or presume malicious intent without first bringing the issue to attention and discussion. We know how uncomfortable difficult conversations can be, but they are so much easier than long term discomfort or enemies gained for life.

In that spirit, if you have any concerns, discomforts, or doubts, please bring them to us. We promise not to assume malicious intent, and instead work with you to resolve those concerns in as peaceful and easy a manner possible.

Thank you all for the amazing Kingdom that you create every day. The Outlands is only as amazing and beautiful as its populace, and you are amazing and beautiful, indeed.

In Service,
 Simon and Aria

Greetings Outlands,

Our reign is coming to its end. Please join us in the great Barony of Unser Hafen in July as we recognize Their Royal Highnesses, Simon and Aria, and see them take their places on the Stag Thrones. Please welcome and support them as you have done for us. To show support, we would ask that you supply them with largess or regalia (Stags Blood or Silver Tyne sashes, newcomers cups, etc) if you are able so that they can recognize worthy individuals as they travel through the kingdom.

This month, the Society will see the introduction of a new peerage. The Order of the Mark is being created to recognize those who have excelled in martial endeavors with ranged weapons and embody the best parts of the SCA. We look forward to what this will mean to that community and to the Outlands as a whole. As time moves forward, we know that there will be many great individuals in this kingdom that will be recognized and lead the charge.

We will be traveling to War of the Lillies to spend time with our long standing friends and allies in Calontir. We are looking forward to spending the time relaxing with many of you at this wonderful event. As always, the weather may be unpredictable, but there is no question that the event and company will be amazing.

We are extremely grateful for all you have done this year. You have made The Outlands shine throughout the Knowne World. Please continue to keep each other in your hearts and support each other as we move forward to the next chapter of Outlandish history.

People On The Move:

May 1st, 2025 has Noble Shírin Al-Sasan aka Sas is stepping into the office of Kingdom Chatelaine.

Sas has been a vital force in our community, most notably through her outstanding service as Baronial Chatelaine in al-Barran. During her time in this role, Sas cultivated a warm, welcoming environment that made newcomers feel at home, empowering them to embrace the joys of the Society. Her thoughtful approach to outreach and inclusion has not only drawn many to our Kingdom but also inspired a vibrant community of volunteers.

There work building a strong core of local Chatelaine deputies has laid a solid foundation for continued growth and support. Thanks to Sas's dedication, al-Barran now boasts a dynamic, resourceful team, all committed to nurturing newcomers and ensuring they thrive within our Society.

We look forward to seeing the same care, creativity, and leadership that Sas has shown on the Baronial level come to fruition on a Kingdom scale. Please join us in congratulating her on this new chapter of service, and let us all work together to support her in this new role.

Thank you to Lord Ito de Faux for his service to the Kingdom of the Outlands. His contributions to the Office include the Hero's Quest and the Demo Handbook which will have a lasting mark on the kingdom.

Join us for our annual martial champions event on Saturday, August 2, 2025. This event will be day of fun and pageantry held in Mineral Palace Park, on the same spot we have our weekly Combat Practice. There will be tournaments to determine who will be our First Spear (armored combat champion), and our Blade (rapier champion) for the coming year. Anyone may enter and win the prizes up for grabs in these tournaments. Only members of the Barony of Aarquelle may claim the titles of "First Spear of Aarquelle," or "Blade of Aarquelle."

There will be prizes for Best Death, Best Walk-In (think WWE, or Chaucer's intros in the movie Knight's Tale), and Best Visual Heraldic Display.

The tournaments for Aarquelle's Warden (archery champion), and Sentinel of the Keep (crossbow champion) will be held on a separate date to be determined at the Bighorn Archery Range. More details will follow.

Dragon's Fount of Knowledge

Barony of Dragonsspine

Dragon's Fount of Knowledge is meant to be, in my intended image, the essence of what a "Newcomers" event should be. While several Newcomers have been intended to show what the SCA is, I want Dragon's Fount to actually teach what the SCA is and what we do/can do. Instead of having an event where newcomers are left to ask questions on their own, in the hopes that whoever they ask has an answer, I want an event where newcomers can ask a question where they're guaranteed an answer by being a student in a teacher's class.

Dragon's Fount of Knowledge would be an event that consists of purely classes with the topics ranging across all of what we do in and for the game. This will range from A&S classes, to martial classes, to even the various forms of service that can be provided. What classes that will be taught will be entirely based on what the teachers themselves desire, and are comfortable and confident enough to teach. The teachers themselves will consist of whoever is willing to teach, regardless of awards, titles, or positions.

Words from the Officers

FROM THE SENESCHAL:

Beloved Outlands,

Endings are only a new beginning. As my warrant as your Kingdom Seneschal comes to a close, a new era is on the horizon. I leave this office with deep gratitude for the incredible support of our populace, many of whom welcomed a relative newcomer into the culture of the Outlands and stood with me throughout these two years.

Together, we have worked to make volunteering easier by streamlining paperwork, created clearer guidelines for demos and events, and incorporated feedback from the Kingdom Event Rotation Committee. We celebrated our local Branch Seneschals, collaborated with five sets of Royals, and saw the welcome return of an in-person StagsCon. We also took important steps toward building a healthier community by developing tools to address bullying, exploring Crucial Conversations, and learning to lead with curiosity rather than assumption. These accomplishments were never mine alone. The Seneschalate is not the work of one person; it is built by all of you. I may have helped chart the route, but it was the dedication of the Kingdom and branch officers, along with the voices of our populace, that carried us forward. I am deeply thankful for everyone who offered ideas, critiques, and encouragement. Your feedback was truly a gift.

As I step away, I am thrilled to see Don Emrys take on the role. With a professional legal background and military leadership experience, he brings the ideal combination of integrity, structure, and inspiration. Emrys has a gift for cultivating leadership in others. He supports our many talented officers and helps them grow from strong administrators into confident and visionary leaders. I trust he will build on the momentum we have created together, and I encourage you to welcome him with the same support and partnership you offered me. It has been an honor to serve you. So long, and thanks for all the fish.

In service,

Baronessa Ayşe's al-Rumiyya, CDH, OSO
Outgoing Kingdom Seneschal, Outlands

White Stag, as the epithet “Principal Herald” suggests, is the chief heraldic officer of the Kingdom. They are responsible for ensuring that paperwork is filed on time to the right places, making sure that all of the Kingdom’s heralds have the resources they need to do their jobs, and fostering the art and practice of heraldry in the Outlands. They report to the Crown and to Laurel Sovereign of Arms (the chief herald of the SCA) and are the primary point of contact for the Crown and the populace regarding the goings-on of heraldry in the Outlands. All heralds in the Outlands report to White Stag, as does the Kingdom Scribe (the College of Scribes, though a self-sufficient office, falls under White Stag for the purposes of upwards reporting). White Stag Principal Herald is designated by Kingdom Law as a Greater Officer of State. White Stag also has some ceremonial responsibilities: they traditionally have the right to Herald the first and last rounds of Crown Tournament, and in Coronation ceremonies they are the Herald presiding over the period of time between the outgoing Queen releasing Her Blue Iris Herald* and the incoming Queen appointing Hers. The job of White Stag requires strong organizational and interpersonal skills, as well as a time commitment of approximately 5 hours per week (though that fluctuates based on what’s going on in the Kingdom at the time). The current White Stag Principal Herald is me, Andreas von Meissen. I have been serving as White Stag since March 1 of this year, and my warrant runs through February 28, 2027.

Palmer Herald is the emergency and administrative deputy to White Stag. Traditionally the role has been filled by (a) the previous White Stag, serving as a mentor and drop-dead to the new White Stag for a period of time until they get their feet under them, or (b) the current White Stag’s designated successor, as they train up for the position. Responsibilities vary based on the needs of the White Stag and whether or not they are mentoring or being mentored, but generally include helping with administrative tasks, covering for White Stag when they are unavailable, and whatever other tasks that White Stag delegates to them. The current Palmer is Æðeluulf munc, who assumed the role when he stepped down as White Stag on March 1, and will be in the role for a period of six months as I get up to speed.

If you are interested in learning more about—and maybe serving as—White Stag or Palmer, please reach out! I am always happy to talk heraldry and always interested in getting more people involved in heraldry at all levels. Next month in this series: the two Submissions Heralds, Gold Castle and Rampart!

FROM THE HERALDS:

Greetings Outlands!

As a continuation of last month’s letter, I would like to begin a series highlighting the various offices of the Outlands College of Heralds and their duties, with the goal of demystifying the College of Heralds and what it does (and should any pique the interest of any readers of the OH, the more the better!).

I will kick things off with the top two seats: White Stag Principal Herald and Palmer Herald.

In Dienst,

Andreas von Meissen
White Stag Principal Herald

*Historically, Blue Iris (more on that job in a future letter!) is the Queen’s Herald and serves as the Royal Court Herald, with White Stag being the King’s Herald. Should the Outlands ever have a Queen Regnant or a same-gender Consort, White Stag would be the Sovereign’s Herald and Blue Iris the Consort’s.

Words from the Officers

FROM THE EARL MARSHAL:

Greetings fellow Outlanders!

My name is Mordygan, and by the grace of Their Royal Majesties have accepted my intent and heard my oath of service as the new Kingdom Earl Marshal. I look forward to working with my various deputies and with the populace in pursuit of all marshal endeavors within our great kingdom! As we move forward, please be aware that I am not found on social media, though I will work with the Kingdom Social Media team to disseminate any new information that comes down, alongside letters in the Outlandish Herald. While I am not reachable directly through social media, I can be reached at earlmarshal@outlands.org. Once again, I am excited to begin this journey and look forward to what we can create together!

Eorl Mordygan, Dux Outlandium
