From Their Royal Majesties

Hail Caid!

Now that We have packed on some extra preparations for the winter during the Yule season it is time for Our Coronation. We look forward to a fun filled day to be followed by a fun filled reign. We intend to see as much of the kingdom as We can during Our Reign.

Please keep sending in those award recommendations.

As most of you know by now, Brocc loves to dance. If you wish to have dancing at an event He is attending, please let Him know.

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings Caid!

As we exit the holiday season, it is with great anticipation that I assume the role of Kingdom Seneschal at Coronation/Twelfth Night in Dun Or. I would like to give my humble appreciation for Master Laertes and all the challenging work he contributed to forge our path over the past few years. Looking forward, I am excited to see the vibrancy of our kingdom continue to grow.

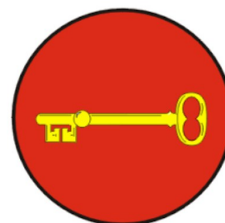

Although I have been a long-time member and contributor to Caid, I am aware that I may be unknown to many. I found the SCA in A.S.25 (1991) while attending school in the Shire of Isles. I quickly fell in love with the expansive world of our Society, and I jumped in with both feet. With interests in dance, pageantry, and 14th/15th century tournament culture, I have spent decades sharing my passion for history. You can learn all about me here (https://caidwiki.org/index.php?title=Philip_Williams_of_Aston).

Aside from SCA pursuits, I believe my qualities and professional experience will enhance my tenure as Seneschal. Mundanely, I have a senior leadership role in a large national organization and have had extensive training in conflict resolution, management, supervision, and DEIB. I also have a PhD and am a part-time University professor. My leadership style emphasizes transparency, collaboration, and equity.

I have always found the SCA to be a place of magical moments and opportunity. In this moment, I am embracing the opportunity to contribute to the stability and growth of our fair Kingdom.

Lastly, with Coronation comes some important calendar changes documented in Kingdom law. Through months of hard work, we now have a rebalanced schedule that I hope will better meet the needs of the Kingdom. It is an honor and privilege to serve Caid and the SCA.

Respectfully,
Baron Sir Philip

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Happy New Year Caid!

Well, here we are, 2025. Otherwise known as the back half of Anno Societatis LIX (59). That's right, we are rapidly approaching our 60th anniversary! Please, if you get a chance, ask some of the senior members of the SCA about their experiences when they started.

Coronation is here, earlier than any in recent memory, and we are back to Consort's Martial Champion Tourney being the day after, so, plan accordingly. I look forward to seeing you at events that don't require heat advisories or misting tents. Good luck, stay safe, and be well.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society, I remain,
Beorn of the Northern Sea
Kingdom Chronicler

From the Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Caid!

Some people make New Year's Resolutions. Others choose a word or mantra to center on for the year. Just as in 2024, for 2025 my words continue to be "exposure" and "opportunity", specifically focused on expanding exposure and opportunity in the arts and sciences in Caid. That means working on removing barriers to access to A&S resources (teachers, classes, supplies, etc.) and expanding the type and frequency of A&S activities throughout the kingdom. It also means collecting data to see what's working and what isn't, so that the KMOAS office has both the facts and means for improvement. I hope you will continue to support me on this journey.

I'm so excited for our upcoming Pentathlon. If you are planning to enter, fantastic! Don't forget, the deadline to register is 1/26/2025. And if you aren't entering, please consider coming out to the event anyway for a fun day of classes, free lunch (donations accepted), and an evening revel. Pentathlon is a competition, but it's also a celebration of our tremendous A&S community. Everyone is welcome!

Lastly, I am actively soliciting deputies who may be interested in stepping up as KMOAS in 2026. If you are interested, please let me know at arts.officer@sca-caid.org. Caid is an amazing kingdom, full of amazing artists. I am so proud of our community, and it has been a privilege to serve as KMOAS.

In service,
Baroness Master Rebecca Mary Robynson

Kingdom Law Changes Announcement

Greetings!

With the completion of the commentary phase, the following changes to Kingdom Law by Their Majesties Sven and Iseabail will take effect upon the Coronation of Their Heirs, Valentine and Brocc.

Moving Dates for Crown Tournament

With the rescheduling of Great Western War to November, we are moving:

- Spring Crown Tournament from on or about the first weekend of March, to on or about the first weekend of April, and
- Fall Crown Tournament from on or about the first weekend of September, to on or about the first weekend of October.

Revised text (III.A):

“There shall be two Crown Tournaments and two Coronation Ceremonies per year. A Crown Tournament shall be held on or about the first weekend of April with Coronation on or about the second weekend in July, and on or about the first weekend in October with the Coronation on or about the second weekend in January. These four official events shall be held within the boundaries of Caid. The exact dates and locations of these events shall be made known to the populace in the official Kingdom newsletter and may not be changed without just cause.”

Net Impact: The term of serving as Royal Heirs changes from four months to three months.

Bring Existing Ranged Martial Activities Related Awards into Alignment with Upcoming Peerage

In preparation of the new ranged martial activities peerage, the existing Grant-level and Armigerous-level awards are being restructured. The Order of the Chiron and The Order of the Argent Arrow are being expanded to include all current forms of ranged martial activities. In addition, the Order of the Arcus is being closed. Finally, it is the custom in Caid that only the terminal level order for an activity or skill be granted the right of consultation with the Crown. With the establishment of the new peerage, the Order of the Chiron will no longer be a terminal order for ranged martial activities. As such, the right of consultation is being removed.

Revised text (VIII.E.2.d):

“The Order of Chiron shall be awarded for outstanding ability in SCA-style archery, combat archery, mounted archery, thrown weapons, or siege weaponry.”

Revised text (VIII.F.2.d):

“The Order of the Argent Arrow shall be awarded for superior skill and appearance in SCA-style archery, combat archery, mounted archery, thrown weapons, or siege weaponry.”

Added text (VIII.I.1.e.)

“The Order of the Arcus was an Armigerous Level award for superior skill in combat archery and siege Weaponry.”

Rescinded text (VIII.F.2.g)

“The Order of the Arcus shall be awarded for superior skill in combat archery and siege Weaponry.”

Rescinded text (IX.C.1.b)

“The Order of the Chiron of Caid:

- (1) Membership shall be granted by the Crown of Caid in accordance with the Statutes of the Order of the Chiron.
- (2) The Order shall create and maintain the Statutes of the Order of the Chiron which address the structure, conduct of business, and are subject to Kingdom Law.”

Kingdom Law Changes Announcement Cont'd

Net Impact: These changes prepare the kingdom for the establishment of the new ranged martial activities peerage by redefining and expanding the scope of the existing Armigerous and Grant level awards. Although the Arcus is being closed and no new members will be added after this change, current members of the Order will retain all associated honorifics.

Address Gap in Process for Naming a Regent

Upon the publication of the current version of Kingdom Law, it was noticed there was a gap in the process for naming a Regent in the instance of an abdication and the stepping down Crown does not nominate a candidate.

Revised text (III.E.2)

“If both the Sovereign and Consort abdicate, a Regent acceptable to the Great Officers of State shall be appointed by the abdicating Royals to perform those duties of the Crown, which cannot be delayed without prejudice to the Kingdom. If the Sovereign and Consort fail to present a Regent for review, the most recent and available Sovereign and Consort will be empowered to nominate a Regent that is acceptable to a majority of the Great Officers of State.”

Net Impact: Address gap in existing process.

Clarify Language for Determining Baronial Successors

Rephrased run-on sentence

Revised text (V.B.1.a)

“The Crown shall invest a member of the Baronage only after brief SCA resumes from all candidates have been provided and reviewed by the Crown, Kingdom Seneschal, and current Baronage. Additionally, a confidential electronic and/or mailing poll of the current SCA paid members of the populace must be conducted, with no serious or significant opposition revealed, and a notice must be placed in the baronial newsletter.”

Net Impact: Clarify existing process

Codify Royal Peerages and Order of the Rose

In Caid, we have the custom of awarding Royal Peerages after the end of a successful reign, along with elevating the Royal Consort to the Order of the Rose. These additions and changes codify this custom.

New text (VIII.D.5.)

“A Royal Peerage, to those who have successfully completed a reign as Sovereign and Consort of the Kingdom of Caid.”

Revised text (VIII.H.1.a)

“The Order of the Rose, to any person receiving a Patent of Arms as a Royal Peer who shall have served a full reign as Consort of the Kingdom or Principality of Caid without removal by the Board of Directors. By custom, the privileges of membership in the Order are also extended, while they are in Caid, to those who served as Royal Consort in any other Kingdom or Principality.”

Net Impact: Codify existing customs.

An updated version of kingdom law, The Boke of Caidan Law (version 20), will be available on the kingdom’s website after the changes are enacted at Coronation on January 4, 2025.
