Words from the Crown

For the final time, We wish warm greetings to you, the Populace of Atenveldt,

May brings with it our stepping down and the Coronation of our Heirs, Baldric and Hurrem. There are no words to truly express what an amazing and joyful experience this has been for Us.

Thank you to all of the members of Our court who supported us throughout the last 7 and a half months. We appreciate the Kingdom Officers and the B&Bs for their hard work running the Kingdom and being a supportive and guiding force. Without each and every one of you we would not have been able to do this. We look forward to spending time with all of the members of the populace who we have been so blessed to meet during Our Reign as we all enjoy the Reign of our Heirs.

Long Live these sovereign lands of Atenveldt!

With great affection and ever in service,

Words from the Heirs

Greeting Unto the Populace of Atenveldt.

This month has passed in a blur as we prepare for our coronation on May 4th. We give profuse thanks to all of the amazing people helping us as we prepare for this journey.

This past month we attended Border War in the Barony of SunDragon as we readied our armies to campaign to the battlefields of Pennsic in the East and then march back across the known world to answer the call of battle in the West at Great Western War. At Border War we were blessed to spend time with so many friends. Thank you to the archery and thrown weapon community for teaching us. Thank you to the equestrian community for showing us your noble steeds and allowing us to give them treats. Thank you to all who attended the bardic circle on Saturday night, especially Captain Eirik, you created a safe and inviting atmosphere that encouraged all to participate.

Our travels this month will be taking us into our southern lands. First to the Barony of Tir Ysgithr for Sable Knight as we have heard rumor of a dark figure threatening the College of St Felix, and then to celebrate our artists at Kingdom A&S. Afterwards we will travel further south to the southern Marches and the legendary taverns in Barony of Mons Tonitrus at Barmails.

We look forward to spending this month with the populace of our solar kingdom and encourage all to travel south with us to defend our scholars, share the knowledge of our artists, and raise a cup in the taverns of the Southern March.

With Our Warmest Regards,

Baldric and Hürrem, Crown Prince and Princess of Atenveldt.

Patron Membership – Corpora Commentary Request

As part of the upcoming addition of a Patron membership, we invite you to provide commentary on the language changes in Corpora that this update will require. This commentary will assist the Board in forming further decisions relevant to its consideration of this matter.

What is the Patron Membership?

It is a membership tier that offers the option of a greater financial contribution to the organization. Many non-profit organizations offer tiers of membership.

What is the proposed cost of a patron membership?

The proposed cost of the patron membership is $150 a year.

Is it linked to titles or in game recognition?

No. Some Kingdoms require paid annual memberships rather than an event membership (non member rate) for awards but this is not a Society wide requirement.

Is it mandatory? No.

Who asked for it? The Corporate Office has received feedback from members at times that this is an option people would like available.

What are the benefits of a Patron membership?

The main benefit is knowing that you are contributing to the ongoing administrative functioning of the Society in a way that you prefer. The organization is providing a small range of options as a gesture of its appreciation for your generosity.

Commentary regarding this proposed Corpora change must be received by the Board no later than May 3, 2024. Add #6 to Corporate Policies below. In bold.

Corporate Policies, I.B, 1-4—Membership Types-Non-Statutory Members:

B. Non-Statutory Members

The Board of Directors has designated the following categories of advisory membership. Such advisory members are not members within the meaning of Section 5056 of the California Corporations Code. California law supports the SCA's use of the terms "member" and "membership" in the common English meaning, referring to persons who have paid to be associated with the organization.

1. Sustaining Membership conveys eligibility to hold office in the SCA, a subscription to a Kingdom newsletter, the option to subscribe to other Corporate publications, and any other privileges designated by the SCA or its subdivisions as accruing to members of the SCA. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership.
2. International Membership conveys the privileges of Section I.B.1. This membership type is available only in locations outside the United States which are part of the SCA, Inc., and not subject to an affiliate corporation. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership.
3. Associate Membership conveys eligibility to hold office in the SCA, except where other membership categories are required Governing Documents. Associate membership also entitles the holder to any privileges designated by the SCA or its subdivisions as accruing to members of the SCA, except where another membership type is specifically required by the organization defining the privilege. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.
4. Family Membership extends the privileges of Section I.B.1 to one additional adult and any children aged 21 or younger who live at the same physical address as a member defined in paragraphs B.1-B.2 of this Article. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.
5. Institutional Membership allows a library or school to subscribe to Tournaments Illuminated and The Compleat Anachronist without acquiring the regional newsletter, and without any of the other privileges of membership. The Board reserves the right to determine whether or not a given organization qualifies for this membership type
- 6. Patron Membership conveys all privileges of I.B.1. along with additional privileges as designated by the SCA.

Commentary Request – Newsletter References – Governing Documents

In 2022, the Board of Directors decided to remove kingdom newsletters from behind a paywall and make the newsletters freely accessible from the SCA.org website. This change caused all references in the Governing Documents of the SCA, Inc. to “subscribing memberships” and requirements for immediate access to a newsletter at one’s home to become obsolete. The Board of Directors is seeking commentary on the changes to the Governing Documents necessary to bring them in line with the reality that the newsletters are no longer of limited access.

Below are the areas of Corpora, the Bylaws, and Corporate Policies where changes will be needed to bring these documents in line with current practice.

Governing Documents: References to Membership types for Officer Privileges

- Bylaws, V.C.2.b—Members-General Conditions and Privileges of Membership-Privileges of Members-Eligibility for Office:
 - Officers at all levels of the SCA must be members and must have immediate access to the corporate newsletter for their area. This standard also applies to deputies designated as successors to officers subject to this provision or assigned independent administrative duties. Deputies who only assist with specific tasks are exempt from the newsletter access requirement.

Corporate Policies, I.B. 1-4—Membership Types-Non-Statutory Members:

- 1. Sustaining Membership conveys eligibility to hold office in the SCA, a subscription to a Kingdom newsletter, the option to subscribe to other Corporate publications, and any other privileges designated by the SCA or its subdivisions as accruing to members of the SCA. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership.
- 2. International Membership conveys the privileges of Section I.B.1. This membership type is available only in locations outside the United States which are part of the SCA, Inc., and not subject to an affiliate corporation. This type of membership is considered a subscribing membership.
- 3. Associate Membership conveys eligibility to hold office in the SCA, except where other membership categories are required by the Governing Documents. Associate membership also entitles the holder to any privileges designated by the SCA or its subdivisions as accruing to members of the SCA, except where another membership type is specifically required by the organization defining the privilege. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.
- 4. Family Membership extends the privileges of Section I.B.1 to one additional adult and any children aged 21 or younger who live at the same physical address as a member defined in paragraphs B.1-B.2 of this Article. This type of membership is not considered a subscribing membership.

Corporate Policies, II.C: General Conditions and Privileges of Membership-Eligibility for Office:

- Officers at all levels of the SCA must be members as defined in I.B.1-4 above. and must have immediate access to the corporate newsletter for their area provided by a subscribing membership at their residence. (Alternate access arrangements may be made on a case-by-case basis for people with post office boxes and for International Members.) This standard also applies to deputies designated as successors to officers subject to this provision or assigned independent administrative duties. Deputies who only assist with specific tasks are exempt from the newsletter access requirement.

Corpora—Glossary:

- Subscribing member: A Sustaining or International member of the SCA, Inc. or its approved equivalent in an affiliated organization.

Corpora I.D.2– General-Membership Requirements-Officers:

- a. Officers at all levels of the Society must be Society members as defined in the By-Laws and Corporate Policies of the SCA, Inc. Glossary. and must have immediate access to the corporate newsletter for their area received at their residence. (Alternate access arrangements may be made for members of affiliated organizations or on a case-by-case basis for people with post office boxes and for International Members.) This standard also applies to deputies designated as successors to officers subject to this provision or assigned independent administrative duties. Deputies who only assist with specific tasks are exempt from the newsletter access requirement.

Corpora III.A.2—Branches-General:

- While international memberships may be used in the calculation of membership totals for branch status, a branch based on international memberships must have least one subscription to the appropriate corporate publication for their geographic area. The exact number required is a matter for negotiation among the Seneschals of the branch, principality, and kingdom, and the Society Seneschal. The required subscription(s) may be purchased communally by the branch.

Corpora, including the By-Laws, can be found in its entirety here: <https://www.sca.org/resources/document-library/govdocs/>. Please email all commentary to SCA-Comments@sca.org and use the title “Newsletter References” in the subject line.

It's time again for the Barony of Granite Mountain's Champions event. This year's theme is "fun and games." Expect all activities (bardic, rapier, armored combat, A&S, archery, and thrown weapons) to have a game element. For example, our rapier competition will be a variation on "musical chairs." The A&S competition will bring 2 of your best items (one of which will be donated towards largesse). We will have the park all weekend and the Senior Center on Saturday. The fighting competitions, A&S, and Bardic will be on Saturday. Archery and thrown weapons will be on Sunday morning at the home of their excellencies.

This year, we will have some camping available at the park. It will be limited to 10 tents (the first 10 that sign up) and 5 RVs. So, if you want to come in on Friday afternoon (after 2:00 p.m.) to set up, you can.

Following afternoon court on Saturday, all are invited to a traditional medieval meal of Stone Soup. The members of the populace are requested, per the tradition of Stone Soup, to enhance this gastronomic delight by bringing items to add to the soup caldrons, for example: potatoes, carrots, rutabagas, parsnips, squash, mushrooms, peas, leeks, cabbage, onions.
