Words from the Crown

Greetings Atenveldt,

Though February is the shortest of months, it seems most appropriate that the shortest of Kings and Princes would host the kingdom's largest event. War of the Phoenix A.S. 60 is now over and plans for the next War of the Phoenix are already underway. Please reach out to Rachel, Seelos, or Gavin if you have suggestions or would like to help make the dream a reality next year. This past war will certainly be hard to surpass. The weather was great, the bacon sizzled, and whether you identified as a dragon or a phoenix, you got to witness the talent and skills of so many incredible Atenveldt artisans, as well as the prowess and honor of Atenveldt's accomplished warrior force. We would like to thank all the many people who helped make this event happen as there are no stronger alliances than the ones formed at war. We also congratulate those who accepted Our reign challenge to try something new, and found joy in these new experiences at war. Hopefully everyone is continuing to recover and refresh for the many upcoming events.

Another celebration this past month welcomed Our new Barons of Tir Ysgythr. As Aesa and Jorgen retire to the ranks of Theign and Bantheign, We are excited to see what exciting ventures Baron Qaadir and Baron Grimald will bring to Our home Barony, the gem of Atenveldt. Our heirs, Craven and Elzbieta, Crown Prince and Princess of Atenveldt were also able to discover their Archery, Crossbow, and Thrown Weapons Champions on this very same weekend.

As We reminisce on the joyous occasions throughout February, We begin to look ahead at what March has in store. We first travel to the South to one of Our newest shires - Vallis Aeris where the hospitality and merriment always exceed Our expectations. We greatly anticipate the Copper Rose event where We get to see the many new artistic collections of the people of the shire, and cheer on the rookie fighters at the Tutor Tournament, designed for those who have been fighting less than two years. This tournament and event is very near and dear to Our hearts.

We will also be traveling across the secular borders of this modern country to participate in Gulf Wars in the Kingdom of Gleann Abhann and proudly represent Atenveldt and We get to fight beside Our closest neighboring kingdoms instead of across from them. This will be Our first opportunity to play east of the Mississippi river, while We also get to catch up with friends from across the known world.

Speaking of war, We hope to see all of you at the upcoming Border Wars, hosted by the central baronies of Atenveldt. As much as we enjoy traveling and hosting a thousand foreign dignitaries, there is nothing quite like a war at home surrounded by your closest friends. We greatly look forward to the camaraderie and spirit of Our home battles.

Lastly, We would like to give a special call for all chess players. Corpora expects that all peers be adept at playing the game of chess, and therefor all perspective peers have yet another way to prove their progress towards their chosen path. At this reign, We will host a chess tournament as well as a giant game of live chess at the April Arts and Sciences Competition. Not only will Prince Craven and Princess Elzbieta be seeking their A&S champions for their upcoming reign, and We will host a Circle of the Order of the Mark, the entire Royal Family greatly anticipates this opportunity for the populace to demonstrate intellectual prowess and show that declaring an oath to 'endeavor ever' includes all facets of the SCA.

New Cut & Thrust Combat Handbook Commentary Request

The Society Marshal, Society Rapier Marshal and Society C&T Deputy are pleased to make available for commentary the approved draft of the new Cut & Thrust Handbook. Commentary will be accepted through March 30, 2026.

This new C&T handbook is part of the ongoing modernization effort, which is updating ALL the marshal handbooks in conjunction with updates to the marshal related sections in Corpora. The goal is to better reflect the current structure, culture, and safety best practices we use today in our SCA martial activities.

One of the most significant changes is the modernized format, designed for easy online access and usability. With clearer layout, improved navigation, and consistency across all marshal handbooks, this new format makes it easier for both newcomers and experienced participants to find the information they need quickly and confidently.

The new online Cut & Thrust Combat handbook and supporting material can be found at https://society-rules.fullmesh.co.nz/index.php/Main_Page. Also available at this site:

- A PDF version of the proposed new handbook
- Cliff notes on the C&T Handbook, with a summary of the changes
- A FAQ on the overall rules moderation process, the new handbooks and format

Important Dates: Similar to the new Rapier Combat Handbook, a multi-month process is being used to improve communication and transparency. The timeline is aligned with the current ongoing Rapier Handbook commentary and approval process, so that both handbooks will enter their final form and approval at the same time.

The timeline is:

- Feb 2 thru March 30: C&T Combat Handbook is open for commentary. This version has been approved by the BoD for commentary for 60 days.
- March – April: Updates to the handbook will be developed based on the commentary.
- April 1: New handbook with updates resulting from received commentary will be submitted to the BoD for final review and approval.
- May 20: Both the new C&T and Rapier Combat handbooks will be in effect (if approved during the April BoD meeting).

Please email all commentary to marshal@sca.org and rapier@sca.org, and use the title "New C&T Handbook – commentary" in the subject line. CC'ing your Kingdom Rapier/C&T/Fencing Marshal is highly recommended.

Most of the content is shared between the Rapier and Cut and Thrust Handbooks. If you have already provided feedback on the Rapier Handbook, and your comments are not specific to cut and thrust, you do not need to send your feedback again.

Commentary must be received no later than March 30, 2026.

In Service,

Arabella da Siena
Society Marshal

The Kingdom Arts & Sciences office and the Barony of Atenveldt invite you to the Spring 2026 A&S: Meet the Masters!!

At this con-style event we are inviting ALL artisans show your skills by demonstrating an art that you love. Inspire others to join you in that art or science. Artisans are encouraged to have a make and take at their table so that people have the opportunity to experience what you do! The normal style of this event is that artisans stay at their table throughout the day and demonstrate their art while others come by to see what they are working on.

In addition, we are once again hosting the busking competition and invite all bards to participate. We will give tin cups and bards should be working the crowds to get "paid" for their performances. The bard with the most coins will be declared as Busker Extraordinaire.

Along with all the other arts, Their Majesties are challenging the fighters, knights and squires to participate in a game, specifically a Chess Game. While there will be chess boards available for one on one, we would also like to see boards or pieces the fighters made. The "piece de resistance," there will be a live chess game, you will be a chess piece, two players will contest their pieces against each other. Count Thomas and Baroness Kattrra have agreed to assist with the organization and running of the game.

This promises to be most entertaining, so don't miss out. As if this isn't enough fun for the day the new A&S champion will be selected by the heirs at this event. You may enter a separate display, or your demo can be your entry so you don't have to choose one or the other. You must have documentation for either means of entering but only one item, or demo is required.

Kingdom Announcements

Announcement from the Atenveldt Youth Coordinator

Aten Jr Corner

The Youth of the Known World had an amazing time at War of the Phoenix. So many populace members donated items so they could have a Youthful Tea, Valentine's Party, to learn so many new things, and have craft areas at Youth Pointe at War. One of the things the youth did was learn how to turn food into dye for dying cloth. They learned that if you take yellow onion skins, boil them for an hour, and strain them, it will turn the water into a golden yellow. For red onion skins, you get a reddish color, blueberries, you get a purple color, and red cabbage, you get a deep purple color. They also learned if you add vinegar or baking soda to the water it will change the color of the dye.

Drawing Contest for Youth. Email the name of your Barony you play in, along with the names of your Baron and Baroness to be entered into a drawing for the winner to be announced in the next edition of Aten Jr.
