From Their Royal Majesties

Unto the Noble and Worthy Populace of Caid, Greetings from Wilhelm and Lorissa, King and Queen of these Lands,

It is with full hearts and deep gratitude that We write to Our beloved Kingdom, reflecting upon the many hands, talents, and spirits that shaped the recent gatherings of Our reign.

To the tireless volunteers—those seen and unseen—We offer Our profound thanks. Your labor, foresight, and dedication are the quiet strength upon which every success stands. Without you, none of these events could flourish as they did.

To the combatants who met upon the field with courage and honor, to the competitors who tested their skills with grace and determination, and to the artisans whose works brought beauty, inspiration, and wonder to all who beheld them—know that You have Our admiration and Our appreciation. You are the living soul of Caid.

We were honored to share in so many remarkable events. The Festival of the Rose was a celebration of love, honor, and beauty that truly reflected the spirit of Our Kingdom, and We cherished every moment spent among You. The Queen’s Champion and Queen’s Champion Ranged tournaments displayed excellence, focus, and chivalry, and We were deeply impressed by all who stepped forward to compete.

We were especially pleased to attend the War of the Phoenix, where valor and camaraderie burned brightly upon the field, and the Red Star Rapier War, which showcased skill, precision, and the fierce joy of honorable contest. These wars stood as shining examples of what can be accomplished when dedication and community come together.

We leave these events filled with pride, gratitude, and renewed joy in serving as Your Crown. Thank you, Caid, for your passion, your service, and your unwavering commitment to one another. It is because of You that Our reign is so richly blessed.

Given by Our hands and hearts,

Wilhelm
Rex

Lorissa
Regina

From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings, Caid!

It's official, this past January marks my 35th year in the society. As I think about my privilege of having found the SCA at that time, a recent comment echoes in my mind, "the SCA is my happy place." Over time, I witnessed many who found lasting friendships, personal growth, and unforgettable experiences, making the SCA a truly happy place we cherish. This happiness is built on the knightly virtues of courtesy and generosity, as we work together to foster respect and kindness among all participants.

As the days lengthen and our anniversary tournament season kicks into high gear, I invite you to help ensure that the SCA remains a happy place not just for yourself, but for others as well. By embracing virtues like generosity, honor, humility, and faithful service, each of us can contribute to a culture of inclusion and mutual encouragement. Thus, I encourage you to help turn the SCA into someone else's happy place, where everyone feels valued and inspired to grow.

In service to the Crown, Kingdom and Society,
Sir Philip
Kingdom Seneschal

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings, Caid!

I recently had the wonderful and excited privilege to join in with the Festival of the Rose event. The classes were informative and engaging. The displays were well crafted. And speaking with the creators provided a level of passion and depth that one cannot get from looking at a piece alone. Being able to compare the reference images to the newly created pieces was enlightening. In my opinion, photos don't do justice to the detail obtained.

My favorite part, was enjoying the bardic displays. People sang, danced, told stories, played instruments, and read poems. Each display was unique and showed off some of the amazing skills our Kingdom has been hiding! Many were new talents I had never seen and I was quite entertained.

If you have not yet experienced an A&S event like this, please do yourself a favor and check one out. Honestly, all events are absolutely worth checking out.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society,
Lady Amoða Kristinsdottir
Kingdom Chronicler of Caid

From the 17th Bard of CAID

Greetings good gentles of the most shining and majestic Kingdom of Caid!

It is I, Beorn of the Northern Sea, 17th Bard of Caid and ancient performer. As my mind wanders, my eyesight fails me, and my hearing descends further and further into what can only be described as listening to Throat Singing submerged in two feet of brackish water, I must needs begin the process of choosing my successor.

To that end, the following dates have been chosen for each in-person round:

Round 1-(Best use of three words given onsite) Nordwache Anniversary, 04/25/26

Round 2-(Your best war performance) Potrero War, 05/24/26

Round 3-(Period performance for fun and entertainment) Lyondemere Anniversary, 06/13/26

The Final Round-Coronation, 07/11/26

Each round has a hard time limit of 5 minutes.

Each round may be entered digitally, however the deadline for each online submission will be 11:59pm the Friday preceding the performance time in question. Miss the deadline and the submission will not count. The digital performance for Round One will be given three different words than those onsite at Nordwache. ALL digital submissions and/or questions or correspondence must be sent to: baron.beorn@gmail.com.

After three rounds (dropping the lowest score), the final three performers with the highest scores will compete at Coronation in Gyldenholt, July 2026. The new, 18th Bard of Caid, will be presented to Their Majesties in afternoon court.

I look forward to hearing all of the participants!

In Service to Crown and Kingdom, I remain, ever faithfully,

Beorn, Bard of Caid

Academia Draconis (Dreiburgen)

WHEN: March 20, 2026, 4:00pm – March 22, 2026, 6:00pm

WHERE: 4800 Crestmore Rd, Riverside, CA 92509, USA

Academia Draconis: The Caverns of Fate

From every corner of the earth, terrible creatures have come to tear the heart from Caid. For three years we fearlessly answered the call and defended this Kingdom. Standing shoulder to shoulder we stared across the battlefield at unfathomable foes. With each battle we emerged stronger and wiser, though it came at a price. We are not unscarred, and some of our ranks have been lost.

By my own endeavors, I have discovered a cave so deep that even fear does not dare to trespass. I ventured down into this enigma to see what secrets might lie in the oozing black depths. Staring into the stale black I could see nothing, hear nothing, and feel... nothing. A defiant scream leapt from my throat and was returned by no echo of my own making. Instead, what I heard was the very distant cries of my fallen comrades, and something else.

In a harrowing attempt to bridge the undead expanse and reach out to our fallen friends I am leading an expedition back into those formidable depths. Only the purest of heart and sharpest of minds will survive the journey. Therefore, I seek the bravest and brightest stars among us to accompany me in my quest.

Once more, the call goes out.

We muster at the base of the mountains three.

And this time, we venture beneath.

-Baron Ramvoldus Kroll

Fighters, come sharpen your skills at this Collegium of War. No matter what Barony, Shire, or Canton you hail from, we are Caid. It is now time to rally together and fight for one cause. It is time to defend the Kingdom again!
