Greetings,

By now we should all be able to tell that the days are getting longer and feeling that maybe winter will be done soon, if that rodent and his shadow business can get straightened out. :) Her Majesty and I are looking forward to joining Our subjects in the Western part of the Kingdom. May the weather be nice for a trip to Castel Rouge for their 12th Night, and then My travel to Windhaven for Fighter’s School. With this being a short month, I find that this missive seems to be short also, but sometimes short is good.

Greetings, Exchequers!

Please welcome, as the new NMR Deputy, THL Dyonisia Bulheued. She is also the Central Regional Exchequer, so is now wearing two hats!

Also, please thank Baroness Gwenllian verch Rhys de Goer for her 2+ years of service as NMR deputy. She did the job well and lifted a load from my shoulders, as well as assisting other exchequers and leaving me a quick guide to small group reporting, which I plan to roll out in the near future.

Hopefully, as of the time of this writing, 2023 reports are in, 2024 budgets are approved and you are settling in to make plans for a satisfying 2024. I plan to head south of Gulf Wars in March, celebrate our Kingdom, meet the Society Exchequer and reconnect with friends I haven’t seen in years. I remain in the Society because of the amazing people and plan to continue to connect with more folks to keep me motivated. May you find your own motivation during these colder, quieter months.

In service,

Æsa

Greetings unto the populace of Northshield from the Minister of Regalia,

Continuing our celebration of Northshield’s 20th anniversary as a Kingdom I would like to share some more of our regalia. This item is called the “Consort’s Mace” within our regalia listings. It is a popular item with the Consorts of Northshield and is currently in the hands of our Queen Isabella.

We do not know the crafter or history of this item. If there are others in the Kingdom that know more of the history of the Consort’s Mace, please let me know so that I can document it further.

I hope you all enjoy looking into the history of our Kingdom’s regalia and I look forward to sharing more with you in upcoming articles.

In Service,

Geoffrey of Warwick

SCA CORPORATE ANNOUNCEMENTS

COMMENTS REQUEST – PROPOSED CHANGES – CHATELAINE AND DEIB

The Board of Directors is currently considering changes to Corpora. It invites commentary from the membership and participants.

These changes aim to enhance recruitment and member retention in the SCA. They also aim to further support these goals. They elevate the Society Chatelaine to a greater Society Officer. They align local and regional chatelaines to this same structure. It is a strategic move. It aims to support the implementation of comprehensive recruitment and retention strategies. It also aims to align the office to a clear vision.

The Board also approved proposed wording. It supports the creation of a Society Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Belonging (DEIB) Officer. They also approved aligning local and regional DEIB officers into one structure. Like the proposed Chatelaine changes, it aims to support an aligned Society vision. It also aims to support the implementation of strategy in this space.

Finally, the Board approved changing the name and scope of the Corporate Diversity Equity Inclusion and Belonging Office. It is now the Office of Inclusive Programs. This office will handle the implementation of large scale, heavy-lift projects. This work will move inclusivity in the SCA forward. It will also transition leadership and management of game-facing DEIB work to the newly created Society DEIB Officer. This office will support all corporate and society officers. It will also serve as a primary DEIB advisor to the Board.

Note: Changes to corporate offices don’t require changes in Corpora or public commentary. Understanding the changes to the Corporate DEIB Office will add context for the proposed changes to Corpora. It will also provide clarity for the realignment of responsibilities among these offices.

This restructuring aligns with better practice for organizations that aim to improve recruiting and retention by creating welcoming and inclusive environments.

‘Recruiting and Retention structural changes for member commentary and verbiage change to Corpora.

Dear Abbess:
I have heard that Pope Gregory XIII has created a new calendar and I am incredibly confused. For nearly 16 centuries, the calendar of Julius Caesar has been good enough, but now I hear that we may have been celebrating Easter on the wrong day? How does anyone know what day it is? What will happen to the ten days we must skip to restore order?

—Reeling in Roma

Dear Reeling,
The new Gregorian calendar should not be any more difficult to understand than the old Julian one, but if you do not like it, you could simply leave Rome and travel to any of the Protestant-controlled lands, such as Sweden, Denmark, or England, where they will likely ignore this innovation for many years to come, or to the Ottoman Empire, the Great Joseon State, or the numerous lands beyond Europe that have their own calendars and have no concern for the Pope or his calculations. As for the ten days that the Pope has decreed must be skipped this year (1582), do not concern yourself—what even is time, anyway?

—Abbess

Do you have Medieval Problems? Ask Dear Abbess by writing to Northwatch@northshield.org, putting “Dear Abbess” in the subject.

As His Majesty and I reflected on our history, we were reminded that it is easy to forget that each and every individual who participates in the SCA has a “My First Event” story. Many of us, including myself, are guilty of comparing our attempts at recreating history with others and often get demoralized by comparing what we’ve accomplished with others. So often I forget that everyone has that “first outfit” made out of a bedspread or that “first armor” made out of an old rug and hockey equipment. We hope that by reading our anecdotes, you can see that even kings and queens started somewhere and that our stories are similar to yours. Enjoy!

His Royal Majesty, Yngvar inn Heppni, joined the SCA approximately 20 years ago. Here is his “First Event” story:

20 years ago I attended my first event, Un-named Event in shire of Rudivale (Grand Forks, ND). I was lucky enough to have met people who sewed me my first garb so I didn’t feel out of place; in fact, I think I had two sets! It was a camping event in June and I was able to share a tent with Ulrick der Lansenreiter. I had to rush in a check for membership, because I had planned to become an authorized fighter and back then if you wanted to fight at an event you had to be a member. As I looked around, I noticed how good all the fighters looked. Then I looked at myself and down at my legs…this wouldn’t do. They looked horrible. So I squeezed into a pair of pants and ripped out the crotch because they weren’t meant to fit with leg protection. It was rough, but it did look better! To this day, I’m friends with a bunch of people who I met back then, and still think about them even though some have moved far away. Truly a wonderful day. Now, who remembers Ulrick?

Her Royal Majesty, Isabella Beatrice della Rosa, joined the SCA 28 years ago. Here is her “First Event” Story:

My first event was Nordskogen’s 12th Night in 1995. A friend of the family introduced me to the SCA and made me two pieces of clothing as payment for watching her two-year-old twins. I was 17 at the time, so babysitting toddler twins was on another level and I certainly earned those clothes! When I arrived at the event, I was immediately overwhelmed with the sights and the pageantry of people. Here I had arrived in my Italian Renaissance dress, wearing my Letterman’s coat, and I was met with people who looked like they walked out of a painting. Back in those days there was no fighting at 12th Night, so everyone brought out their best garb and spent the day playing games, dancing, and conversing with friends. I immediately knew I had found my group, the people who would finally “get” me. I was introduced to many people (most of whose names I immediately forgot) and really did not want to draw attention to myself. I noticed that there was someone teaching dance in a classroom. I REALLY wanted to join in, but I was too embarrassed to say anything. The teacher noticed me watching and asked if I wanted to participate. I nodded yes. She then went into the hallway and shouted at the top of her lungs, “This good lady needs a dance partner! Will anyone help this poor lady?!?” I turned bright red and was so embarrassed, but also excited when someone answered the call, took my hand, and led me through the dance. I was trying to be so sophisticated, but in the middle of the dance, one of my shoes fell off! Instead of stopping long enough to put my shoe back on, I pretended it had not happened and finished the dance with only one shoe. At the conclusion of the dance, he kissed my hand, introduced himself again, and left. I think that was the first time anyone had ever kissed my hand. Then there was court. I changed into my “court dress” and watched as people were called forward to get awards. I had no idea what was happening, but I was totally excited to watch. It was like every book I read came to life in front of my eyes. After court there was a feast. My friend’s husband had won a metal trencher at the silent auction and presented it to me as my first piece of feast gear. I still own it. Every time I use it, I smile because it was such a sweet gesture. Then there was more dancing. I was absolutely horrible at it, but I loved every minute. We left and drove back to Mankato that evening and I excitedly told my mom about everything that happened that day. I was totally hooked! My daughter now wears that first Italian dress made for me and every time I see her in it, I am reminded about just how magical that very first event was.

Rhyt-on Point: Drinking in Style

By Furia Maxima <furia@mailfence.com>

There is a fascinating drinking vessel that seemed to exist across time and space called a rhyton. The rhyton is a drinking vessel shaped like a horn, often with animal features as decorative elements. The shape is significant, as the drinking horn spans from neolithic times up through the Norse culture during the Viking Age and through to the Middle Ages. The rhyton of Ancient Rome, Paratha, Syria, Malta often were designed with a hole at the end.

This suggests, especially in Ancient Rome, as surviving imagery implies, that the drinker was precluded from neglecting their drink. However, speculations from various sources suggest that while this could be to encourage drinking, more moderate drinkers had a servant (or, more likely, a slave) use their hand or a stopper hold it closed. There is also debate over whether rhytons were for ceremonial use, celebrations, or for everyday drinking. The latter has the weakest support.

Highlighting importance of the rhyton in Ancient Rome, there are sculptures of Lares (basically household deities) holding rhytons up in the air as if in celebration or at least in a position of prominence.

To report a change of officer or contact info (address, phone, etc.), please contact your kingdom superior - the Change of Officer form on the website is only for new, incoming officers. New seneschals must also send the appropriate paperwork to the Kingdom Seneschal to be listed.
