A&S: The Crafters' Green If you practice a period art or science, we invite you to claim a stall in the Crafter's Green and set up whatever you're currently working on. Demonstrate your craft, interact with the populace, and share resources with other artisans! How to get involved: Artisans are encouraged to stay with their projects and actively work on them during the event. The idea is for artisans to demonstrate period techniques, discuss their methods, and give informal instruction if asked about their craft. General populace at the event are invited to visit and spend time chatting with, watching, and learning from the artisans. There are no requirements for documentation, type of project (except where limited by site) or length of time. Each project should emphasize period methods where possible and appropriate. Sign up in advance not required, but please contact the A&S Coordinator, Aurelio Vitrisoni, if you have specific concerns or requirements. Reach out to Aurelio Vitrisoni, (aj.laveer@gmail.com) with any questions or to arrange a spot!

A&S Competition: Present something to Tenoch for his Table! Categories:

Food and Beverage: display something to eat or drink. Documentation should include origin, materials used, and at least one source. EZ Doc form is acceptable. Does not have to conform to Pre-Columbian Meso-America. Judging by populace choice. Non-Comestible: display something that can't be eaten or drunk, but that might appear elsewhere at a feast (table linens? feast gear? table decorations?) Documentation should include origin, materials used, and at least one source. EZ Doc form is acceptable. Does not have to conform to Pre-Columbian Meso-America.

Judging by populace choice. Event Steward's Challenge: Present something to Tenoch, that he's familiar with! Display a food, beverage or other item from pre-1520 Meso-America. Entries can be entered in the main A&S competition as well. Documentation should include origin, materials used, and at least one source. EZ Doc form is acceptable. Judges will use General Atlantian A&S Rubric (<https://moas.atlantia.sca.org/atlantian-as-judging-form/>).

Martial Activities: Rapier Join outstanding Heavy Rapier and Cut & Thrust instructors for the day as they instruct you on a wide variety of swordsmanship skills. At the beginning of the day, you will sign up for one "track" with an instructor, and each instructor will have a set of key skills they are working on for the day. You and your classmates will together make a cohort, working with each other and that instructor across two morning sessions of instruction, exercises, and more.

After both classes and a lunch break, there will be a Grand Exhibition. During the Exhibition, pairs of fighters will take the field in front of the Gallery of Defense, where your Instructors will watch as you demonstrate your growth and exploration of the techniques you practiced that morning.

Wins and losses in the Exhibition are not counted, and each Instructor will be awarding a "winner" based on their own technical or study criteria. Each winner will receive a prize during our Folkmoot at the end of the day.

Thrown Weapons: Thrown weapons will be happening at Skewered!

Feast: Feast is appropriate to pre-1520 Meso-America! See the website for more details.

Merchants: Merchants are welcome and should reach out to the Event Steward, Helena Kassandreia, to coordinate. Email gebhard.jessica@gmail.com.

Other: Feast fees will not be refunded because food and supplies were already bought.
