From the Kingdom Seneschal

Greetings!

At the beginning of February, changes to our kingdom calendar come into view. In previous years, February would have been the time for hopefuls to begin counting qualifying events as the Crown Tourney Letter of Intent deadline looms. With Crown Tourney moving to April, Caid can instead embrace and enjoy the creativity that comes with the beginning of a new event season. Furthermore, as the weather begins to warm up, consider volunteering at an event or two. Sponsor an activity, teach something you learned over the winter, or simply test the 16th century proverb, 'many hands make light work.' Contributing to the functioning, diversity, and richness of an event is not so much work as it is an opportunity to experience the same event in a unique way. I also ask that we recognize and appreciate the contributions of those volunteering. The tapestry of our kingdom is sewn with threads of these special contributions. Whether in preparation or during an event, sharing your time, talents, and experiences makes our society whole.

In Service,
Sir Philip
Kingdom Seneschal

From the Kingdom Chronicler

Greetings Fair Caid!

After the hectic holiday season and what seemed to be a minor and brief respite, this year is proving to be far busier and more difficult than expected. Regardless of whether we are ready for it yet or not, we are getting up and running with all of the new and returning things to our calendar and I am looking forward to what the Crescent Lands have to offer with the approaching Spring.

Festival of the Rose is early (as early as can be given it is the 1st), and both Pentathlon and the West Coast Culinary Symposium return to our lands. The War of the Phoenix and Gulf Wars are once again with our cousins in Atenveldt and Gleann Abhann, respectively. In other words, there is stuff to do, people to see, and places to go. Enjoy the bounty of the Society and revel in its myriad of wondrous folks and events. Find your joy wherever you can. If you see me out and about, please stop and say hello.

In Service to Crown, Kingdom, and Society, I remain,
Beorn of the Northern Sea
Kingdom Chronicler

From the Minister of Arts & Sciences

Greetings Caid!

It's hard to believe that February is already here. Pentathlon is just a month away! This Pentathlon is bigger and better than ever. Good luck to all entrants! Even if you didn't enter, come on down to the event! Take one of the many classes offered, grab a bite to eat, and check out the amazing A&S entries produced by the incredible artisans of Caid. Then stay for the reveal and the awards ceremony where the new Kingdom A&S Champion will be announced.

Lastly, we've got some exciting new updates and opportunities coming up in the A&S space. Stay tuned!

In service,
Baroness Master Rebecca Robynson
KMOAS, Caid
