Kingdom of the Outlands Fall Crown Tournament
& The Barony of Citadel's 40th Anniversary

Come and join Their Majesties, Mordygan and Ymanie, in the selection of Their Heirs in Their southernmost Barony of the Citadel of the Southern Pass! The day will be full of fighting, celebrating the Citadel's 40th anniversary, and good laughs with the populace that makes this kingdom so great. Bring your banners, polish your armor, and add to the pageantry of this beautiful day, as the Outlands shines in all her glory.

There will be hot and cold foods served as a charcuterie throughout the day. We will have a silent auction for kingdom travel fund, and tent will be set up to display historical artifacts from throughout the Baronies history. There will also be a bead and trim swap table set up. Hotel group pricing is a work in progress.

Sunday's events will be held at Memorial Park, for a war practice and other activities as needed to possibly include the Princess Protector's tournament.

Directions:

From I-10: Head to US54, take exit 30 toward Sun Valley Dr. Head North on Gateway North, turn right on to Junction Ave. Go .3 miles and turn left onto Pasadena Cir, site will be on the right .1 of a mile.

From US-54 (via New Mexico): Head south on US-54, take Gateway S Blvd (do not enter US Patriot Freeway) and turn left on Kenworthy St. Go one mile down Kenworthy St. and Turn right onto Pasadena Cir.

Here follows the changes made to the Laws of the Kingdom of the Outlands, as proclaimed and put into Law by Mordygan and Ymanie, 72nd Crown of the Outlands, in AS LXIII.

Through the process of updating the Outlands Kingdom Law document, formatting and copy editing adjustments and corrections were made throughout, including:

- a. Adjusting the table of contents to reflect changes in page numbers and section titles.
- b. Adding page numbers to the document
- c. General copy editing, reformatting, and renumbering as was appropriate

The following changes were made to Kingdom Law:

Section II: Rights, Duties and Privileges of the Crown

Subsection E, sentence 2: Change “Only members of the SCA may receive armigerous awards,” to “Only paid members of the SCA may receive armigerous awards.”

Section III: Selection of Royalty

Subsection A: Strike “Sovereign” and replace with “Crown” to read: “The rules of the Crown lists shall include the Rules of the Lists and the Kingdom fighting conventions, as approved by the Crown of the Kingdom in consultation with the Kingdom Earl Marshal.”

Subsection C:

Sub 1, now i: Strike “Sovereign” and replace with “Crown” to read: “Be acceptable to the Crown.”

Sub 7, now vii, is struck and rewritten to say, “Be current members of the Society for Creative Anachronism. Within ten business days after being declared victor in a Crown Tourney, the Victor and Consort must present to the Kingdom Seneschal proof that their memberships are current through at least the end of the prospective reign.”

Subsection E is corrected to D. Strike both entries of “Sovereign” and replace with “Crown” to read: “The Crown may remove any fighter from the field should the Crown consider the fighter’s conduct to be unchivalrous.”

Subsection F is corrected to E.

Subsection G is struck.

Subsection H is renamed G. Strike “registered and submitted” to read: “Prospective entrants and consorts must submit a letter of their intent to vie in the Crown Tournament Lists. Letters must include both entrant’s and consort’s SCA name, legal name, home address, phone contact, e-mail address, membership number, and membership expiration date.”

Section IV: Succession of the Crown

Subsection B: Struck and rewritten to say: “The Crown shall call a Court of Royal Prerogative should either of the Successors fail to appear and there is sufficient evidence to suggest that this failure was through personal malfeasance.”

Subsection C: Struck and rewritten to say: “If the prospective Sovereign shall abdicate, be disqualified, or removed, or in the event of their death, before Coronation, the Crown shall consult with the prospective Consort and the Kingdom Seneschal to determine if the prospective Consort shall become Sovereign or if a new Crown Tournament should be held to find new Successors.”

Subsection D is struck.

New Subsection D added to read: “If the prospective Consort shall abdicate, be disqualified, or removed, or in the event of death, before Coronation, the Crown shall consult with the prospective Sovereign and the Kingdom Seneschal to determine if the prospective Sovereign shall continue alone or if a new Crown Tournament should be held to find new Successors.”

Add Subsection E to read: “If either Successor shall be invested alone because the other cannot continue, They must reign alone.”

Add Subsection F to read: “If a new Crown Tournament is to be held, the tournament shall be held as soon as one can reasonably and legally be announced and published. This shall determine a new couple to be invested as Heirs at the court following the List. The abdicated/disqualified/removed prospective Sovereign may not participate in this tournament.”

Section V: Provision for the Absence of the Sovereign and/or Consort

Subsection C is struck and rewritten to say: “In the event that the Sovereign is unable to complete Their reign, the Consort shall be named Sovereign and assume the duties, rights, and responsibilities of the Sovereign, and shall reign alone. If the new Sovereign is not an authorized armored combat fighter the Kingdom Earl Marshal or their Armored Combat Deputy, shall supervise the fighting on the field.”

Subsection D is struck and rewritten to say: “In the event that the Consort is unable to complete Their reign, the Sovereign shall continue alone.”

Subsection E is struck.

Subsection F becomes E

Subsection G is struck.

Section VI: Events and Tournaments

Subsection A is struck and now reads:

- A. The following weekends are Kingdom events and are reserved. No other Outlands events may be placed on the Kingdom calendar on the same days as Kingdom events. The Kingdom events are:

I. LAWS

- A. These Laws may be amended, added to, or deleted by the Crown.
- B. All changes to Law must be signed by the Crown.
- C. Any changes to the Laws shall be reviewed by the Kingdom Seneschal who will ensure that the Laws are consistent with Corpora and will witness the document.

II. RIGHTS, DUTIES AND PRIVILEGES OF THE CROWN

- A. The Crown of the Outlands hereinafter referred to as “the Crown” shall consist of the positions of Sovereign and Consort. All references to “Successors” shall be deemed to refer to the Heirs to the Throne of the Outlands.
- B. The Crown must continue to reside within the boundaries of the Kingdom throughout Their tenure both as Successors to the Crown and for the duration of Their Reign. Failure to do so shall be considered as forfeiture of the Reign for the one, or both, living outside the Kingdom.
- C. The Crown shall, with coordination of the Kingdom Seneschal and other Kingdom Officers as needed, decide future Crown Tournaments and Coronations.
- D. The Crown shall maintain a regular means of quick communication and dependable transportation.
- E. The Crown shall confer awards upon individuals or official groups. Only paid members of the S.C.A. may receive armigerous awards. No award may be conferred upon a subject of any realm outside the Kingdom of the Outlands without the prior consent of the Crown to whom the individual is subject.

- F. The Crown shall call courts as may be necessary for the governance of the Kingdom.
- G. The Crown shall monitor the status and welfare of each Barony and take appropriate action as necessary.
- H. The Presence of the Crown shall be ten (10) feet around Their Persons or Their thrones. No one may enter this area without rendering courtesy as is right and proper.
- I. The Crown sets the Order of the March for Their Courts and for Kingdom events.
- J. It shall be presumed that all persons who complete a full reign as Crown of the Outlands have met the requirements for elevation to the peerage. The granting of Royal Peerage may therefore be accompanied by a Patent of Arms. Any Peer who wishes to rebut this assumption may petition the Successors prior to the granting of the Patent.
- K. Each Consort shall be admitted into the Order of the Rose at the end of the Consort's first full reign. Companionship in the Order of the Rose shall carry neither arms nor precedence, and an individual may be admitted only once.
- L. The Crown shall, within sixty (60) days of the end of Their reign, file with the White Stag Principal Herald and Kingdom Chronicler a list of all awards given during Their reign.
- M. The Crown shall be responsible for the safe upkeep and condition of the Kingdom regalia entrusted to Them. They shall ensure the regalia is turned over to Their Successors in a timely fashion and that all items shall be returned in the same condition as when They initially received them, excluding normal wear and tear.

III. SELECTION OF ROYALTY

- A. The rules of the Crown Lists shall include the Rules of the Lists and the Kingdom fighting conventions, as approved by the Crown of the Kingdom in consultation with the Kingdom Earl Marshal.
- B. Entrants and consorts shall present themselves before the Crown the day of the Crown Lists in a manner showing their preparedness to serve as Crown. The Crown may allow the absence of the consort for an emergency.
- C. To be eligible for the Crown Lists, the entrant and prospective consort must meet all of the following requirements in addition to those stated in Corpora:
 - i. Be acceptable to the Crown.
 - ii. Be at least eighteen (18) years of age by the scheduled Coronation.
 - iii. Have resided within the boundaries of the Outlands for the twelve (12) consecutive months immediately prior to the day of the Crown Lists.
 - iv. Have regular means of quick communication, dependable transportation, and sufficient income to support serving as Crown, should they win.
 - v. Be knowledgeable of the structure and laws of the Kingdom of the Outlands and the Society.
 - vi. Be an authorized fighter of good standing (required for the entrant).
 - vii. Be current members of the Society for Creative Anachronism. Within ten business days after being declared victor in a Crown Tourney, the Victor and Consort must present to the Kingdom Seneschal proof that their memberships are current through at least the end of the prospective reign.

- viii. Be willing and able to swear the Sword Oath, which must include affirmation that the entrant and consort fulfill all requirements for entry into Crown Tournament and that they will maintain themselves in an honorable manner during the tournament.
- D. The Crown may remove any fighter from the field should the Crown consider the fighter's conduct to be unchivalrous.
- E. An entrant or consort may petition the Crown to be allowed to withdraw at any time. If a consort is allowed to withdraw, the entrant who carries that person's favor is thereby disqualified.
- F. Prospective entrants and consorts must submit a letter of their intent to vie in the Crown Tournament Lists. Letters must include both entrant's and consort's SCA name, legal name, home address, phone contact, e-mail address, membership number, and membership expiration date.

IV. SUCCESSION OF THE CROWN

- A. The Crown Successors of the Outlands shall be crowned according to the customs of the land.
- B. The Crown shall call a Court of Royal Prerogative should either of the Successors fail to appear and there is sufficient evidence to suggest that this failure was through personal malfeasance.
- C. If the prospective Sovereign shall abdicate, be disqualified, or removed, or in the event of Their death, before Coronation, the Crown shall consult with the prospective Consort and the Kingdom Seneschal to determine if the prospective Consort shall become Sovereign or if a new Crown Tournament should be held to find new Successors.
- D. If the prospective Consort shall abdicate, be disqualified, or removed, or in the event of death, before Coronation, the Crown shall consult with the prospective Sovereign and the Kingdom Seneschal to determine if the prospective Sovereign shall continue alone or if a new Crown Tournament should be held to find new Successors.
- E. If either Successor shall be invested alone because the other cannot continue, They must reign alone.
- F. If a new Crown Tournament is to be held, the tournament shall be held as soon as one can reasonably and legally be announced and published. This shall determine a new couple to be invested as Heirs at the court following the List. The abdicated/disqualified/removed prospective Sovereign may not participate in this tournament.

V. PROVISION FOR THE ABSENCE OF THE SOVEREIGN AND/OR CONSORT

- A. If, at any time and for any reason, the Sovereign and Consort are unable to complete Their reign, the duties of the Sovereign shall revert to the most recent Sovereign willing and qualified to serve as Regent. To be qualified, the Regent must

- be a paid member, reside within the Kingdom, and have dependable transportation and means of quick communication. The regency shall not be considered a reign and the Regent shall not bestow or approve awards nor proclaim Law.
- B. If the Heirs have not already been determined, the Regent shall ensure scheduling of the Crown Lists as soon as may be reasonably and legally proclaimed and shall exercise the ceremonial authority of the Sovereign in managing the Lists. Investiture of the new Sovereign and Consort shall take place at the closing court following the Lists.
 - C. In the event that the Sovereign is unable to complete Their reign, the Consort shall be named Sovereign and assume the duties, rights, and responsibilities of the Sovereign, and shall reign alone. If the new Sovereign is not an authorized armored combat fighter the Kingdom Earl Marshal or their Armored Combat Deputy, shall supervise the fighting on the field.
 - D. In the event that the Consort is unable to complete Their reign, the Sovereign shall continue alone.
 - E. Abdication or disqualification of the Sovereign or the Consort does not constitute a full reign for that individual. This disallows the right to County or Ducal titles which may have been forthcoming from their reign.

VI. EVENTS AND TOURNAMENTS

- A. The following weekends are Kingdom events and are reserved. No other Outlands events may be placed on the Kingdom calendar on the same days as Kingdom events. The Kingdom events are:
 - i. Winter Coronation, which shall take place the third weekend in January.
 - ii. Kingdom Arts and Sciences Competition, which shall take place the fourth weekend in March.
